Please keep our Lebanese brothers and sisters in your prayers as they deal with the aftermath of the massive explosion in Beirut on August 4. There are several Church of God congregations in the area including one led by Pastor Andy's friend and former schoolmate Joy Mallouh, whose church building has suffered quite a bit of damage. Pray for and consider offering financial support for Joy and other local leaders like Rev. Bassem Melki as they navigate not only rebuilding their churches, but reaching out to help their neighbors and communities during this difficult time.

Prayer Requests:
