

Welcome to the first edition of our Club newsletter for the 2026–2027 school year! We're excited to share Club highlights, celebrate our Members of the Month, and keep you updated on upcoming events and ways to get involved. Here's to a great year!

SEPTEMBER HIGHLIGHTS

MORNING PROGRAM

Our AM Program students have been enjoying some friendly competition! Students in grades 1–8 kicked things off with a pumpkin decorating showdown, bringing their best “gourd game” to the contest. Congratulations to Kayleigh Eagan, our pumpkin decorating champion! The September Coloring Contest was another success, with students showcasing their creativity through colorful and imaginative artwork. Congratulations to our winners: Annabelle, Natalie, and Daylen. Great job to all our participants for sharing their creativity and making our AM Program contests so much fun!

DROP IN PROGRAM

School has been off to a great start! Students enjoyed a Halloween dress-up party filled with fun and festive spirit. We're also excited to kick off our specialty clubs, giving members new opportunities to explore interests, build skills, and try new things!

Project Learn Winner – Hudson Hartzell

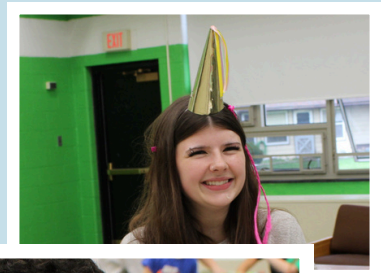

Hudson completed his Project Learn sheets with Mr. David in the computer room every day. Great job, Hudson!

Power Hour Winner – Abigail Moomey

Abigail worked hard and completed her homework almost every day in September. Way to go, Abigail!

Members of the Month – Stella Roehner & Jessie Keith

Stella and Jessie were recognized for their kindness, good behavior, and positive attitudes each day. Congratulations to both of you!

AFTERNOON JUNIORS PROGRAM

Highlights

Our afternoon Pre-K and Kindergarten students stay busy with painting, dance parties, football fun, and creative activities! Every afternoon brings opportunities to learn, play, make friends, and share plenty of smiles.

Every Child Matters

Our WRAP students and staff wore orange to support the Every Child Matters initiative, celebrating inclusion, kindness, and the importance of every child feeling valued and supported.

Miss. Candy's Crew: Go Bills!

Miss. Candy's Kindergarten crew celebrated football season with games, team activities, and plenty of Bills spirit! From touchdown dances to friendly competition, everyone had a blast cheering on their favorite team. Go Bills!
