Disability Hate Crime

It is wrong for anyone to have prejudice or hostility for other people
It is wrong for anyone to hurt you or make you feel unsafe.
It is wrong for anyone to take or harm your things.
It is wrong for anyone to treat you badly for who you are.
If anyone does any of these to you, because they do not like disabled people....
...this is a Disability Hate Crime

Disability
Someone may have a disability if they:
Find it hard to move around - Physical disability
Do not hear or see or find it hard to hear or see - Sensory disability
Find it hard to learn some things - Learning difficulty or disability
Do not feel well in their mind at times - Mental health

Tell someone, Report it.
