The police don't tolerate hate crime

Why should you?

Report it online: www.report-it.org.uk
Report it to your local police: Call 101
In an emergency, always dial 999

NATIONALHCAW

We believe it is important to remember those we have lost, those who need our ongoing support, and to educate others to bring an end to hate.

The anti-hate crime charity 17-24-30 National Hate Crime Awareness Week was set up in April 2009 to mark the 10th anniversary of the London Nail Bomb attacks, on Brixton, Brick Lane and Soho.

The charity organised the London Vigils against Hate Crime between 2009-2012, after the death of Ian Bayham (Oct 2009).

In 2012 the hate crime vigils evolved into National Hate Crime Awareness Week.

We deliver a programme of Hate Crime Projects including an annual H.O.P.E. campaign to raise awareness and keep tackling hate crime firmly on the national agenda.

Hate Crime Awareness

We want everyone to know what hate crime is and how to respond to it.

Operational Responses to Hate Crime.

We want the police to respond to hate crime appropriately.

We also want everyone else to know what to do if they or their loved ones are affected by hate crime.

Preventing Hate Crime

We need to learn from what has happened before in order to put measures in place to prevent it happening again.

Engaging Everyone.

We want everyone round the table to work together to tackle hate crime.

NationalHCAW

We organise National Hate Crime Awareness Week #NationalHCAW.

A week of action tackling hate crime, held between the 2nd to 3rd Saturday in October.

The national week aims to encourage the authorities (Government, Police and Councils), key partners and communities affected by hate crime to work together to tackle local hate crime incidents across the UK.

We host a national launch event - a Service of Hope & Remembrance for those affected by hate crime.

We provide volunteering opportunities and create resources to promote the week.
