National Hate Crime Awareness Week #NationalHCAW

17-24-30 National Hate Crime Awareness Week (1184819) is a national anti-hate crime charity, set up in March 2009 to mark the 10th anniversary of the London Nail Bomb attacks on Brixton, Brick Lane and Soho (17th, 24th and 30th April 1999 hence the first part of our name).

The charity organised the London Vigils against Hate Crime (2009-2012) after the death of Ian Bayham (Oct 2009).

The vigils evolved into National Hate Crime Awareness Week in 2012.

The national week aims to encourage the authorities (Government, Police and Councils), key partners and communities affected by hate crime to work together to tackle local hate crime incidents across the UK.

We promote a message of H.O.P.E.

H

Hate Crime Awareness

We want everyone to know what hate crime is and how to respond to it.

Operational Responses to Hate Crime.

We want the police to respond to hate crime appropriately.

We also want everyone else to know what to do if they or their loved ones are affected by hate crime.

O

P

Preventing Hate Crime

We need to learn from what has happened before in order to put measures in place to prevent it happening again.

E

Engaging Everyone.

We want everyone round the table to work together to tackle hate crime.
