“And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book . . .” (Revelation 13:8).

Dear friend,

August 2023

America has been infiltrated by homegrown Marxists which hate God and righteousness. These people weren't born in Communist countries but they've allowed themselves to be overcome by the same spirit as Lenin, Stalin and Mao Zedong. It is a spirit of defiance and rebellion towards God their creator.

These American Marxists traitors I'm referring to have seized control of our government, military and White House. They are rapidly “moving forward” with their agenda to turn America into a godless utopia like Sodom and Gomorrah. In this edition of Tribulation Watch Newsletter we spotlight the dangers that all God fearing people are now facing right here in America!

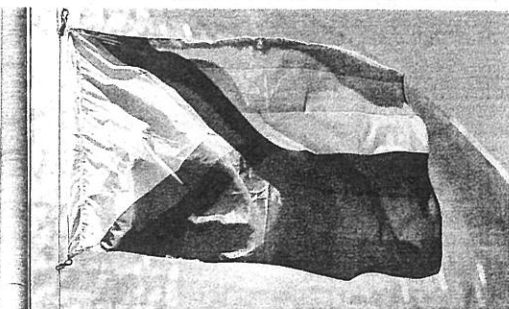

God bless you!

Did you know The White House has been captured!

In my July newsletter, I inserted a picture of a gay rainbow flag which was draped over the balcony of the White House between two American flags giving it preeminence. After further research, I learned that this particular LGBTQ flag is called a “Progress” flag. I also learned that there is much more to this flag than meets the eye!

The gay Progress flag was designed by Daniel Quasar a graphic designer in 2018. The homosexual designer added a chevron point to the LGBTQ Rainbow flag to place a greater emphasis on “inclusion and progression”. The chevron arrow includes black and brown colors which represent LGBTQ people of color. The chevron arrow also includes pink, light blue and white, which are used on the Transgender Pride flag and the “MAP” Pride flag (minor attracted persons or pedophilia).

Of course, homosexual fact checkers deny that the light blue and pink colors in the gay Progress flag represents “MAP” child predators. But we know there are evil forces trying to make pedophilia legal in America. A good example is a 2020 California law (SB-145) signed by Gov. Gavin Newsom, where a 24-year-old sodomite can have sex with a 14-year-old child and possibly never spend a day in jail. That's a fact! That's Progress to them.

The Portland based designer says the main section of the flag incorporates the six-stripes (rainbow) so as to not take away from the initial meaning, while the additional elements form an arrow shape that points to the right, to represent “forward movement”. They are placed along the left edge of the flag to state that “progress still needs to be made.” In Other words, they're not finished yet!

Captured Territory

Flags and banners are important symbols that claim and establish territory or convey an important message. When explorers set sail for new worlds, they planted their nation's flag in the sandy soil where their ships landed, claiming the newly discovered land for their king and queen.

When Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin set foot on the moon in July 1969, one of the first things they did was plant the stars and stripes in the barren lunar landscape, declaring to all humanity back on Earth that the moon was first reached by the U.S.A. That flag dealt a crushing symbolic, humiliating blow to the Soviets: They had lost the space race.

The Underlying Message

Do not underestimate what this means. The underlying message behind the gay Progress flag that the Biden administration placed on the White House is far more alarming than a single instance of ignoring the flag code. Woke-Marxist forces controlling the White House have long been driving their message about their power to rid Christianity and American patriotism from our culture. They would like to go further; and would extract and eradicate both from our DNA if they were able. It's a message intended to demoralize those who cannot in good conscience support the notions of same-sex marriage, transgenderism, or the propagandizing of students in public schools. It also sends the message that they are in control and there's nothing We the People can do about it.

The Spirit of Nietzsche

There is no question that America has become a nation of “Madness” (insanity). Mass shootings are taking place daily. Sexual perversion (LGBTQ agenda) fills the land. Men are becoming women and women are becoming men. Violent rioting and division has become common place in our cities. Drugs, alcohol and death by suicide is an everyday occurrence too. So the question that remains: What is behind all the “Madness” we are witnessing take place today in America? Well, in his book The Naked Communist, W. Cleon Skousen FBI agent under J. Edgar Hoover gives us a clear picture of what is causing all the “Madness” that we are watching take place in America and the world today. The following information can be found on pages 347-350 of Skousen's book which was originally published in 1958 Let's read:

“One hundred years ago there was a little school of philosophers in Europe who called themselves “pure materialists.” They had their headquarters in Germany. Two of those materialists carved a place for themselves in history. Through their speeches and books they lighted a flame which, in a century created more distrust, insecurity, bloodshed, war-mongering and destruction of property than all the criminal and gangster elements in the world combined.

One of the men was Frederick Wilhelm Nietzsche. It was Nietzsche who rose up out of the school of pure materialism to advance the idea of a Superman. His ideas could be summarized as follows: ‘Since there is not any God and since human beings are only graduate beasts without any souls and without immortality, men should not therefore follow a system of ethics and morals. The natural law of force should prevail in the universe. The weak deserve to serve, the strong deserve to rule. Somewhere on the earth there is a nation which is just naturally superior and which should ruthlessly subdue the rest of mankind. Within that nation a single individual should rise up as the natural leader and dictator to rule over humanity because he is a Superman.’ It was Nietzsche who made up Superman, not the comics.

The Man of Destiny

Now it was Nietzsche's thinking which inspired Adolf Hitler with his apocalyptic nightmare of total war. Hitler envisioned himself as the man of destiny- the superman-who would one day rule the world. When Hitler wrote Mein Kampf (My Struggle) it was though Nietzsche were speaking from the dead. Said Hitler, “Look at these young men and boys! What material! I shall eradicate the thousands of years of human domestication. Brutal youth-that is what I am after...I want to see once more in the eyes the gleam... of the beast of prey. With these I can make a new world... and create a new order!”

Mankind felt the crushing, brutal impact of Hitler's mammoth war machine during World War II as he forced millions to join his ranks of imperialistic conquest which was designed to make him dictator of the world. In this country we watched in amazement as he rose to power. Finally, after several years of seeing the black boots of National Socialism stomp out the light of civilization wherever they marched, we rose up in our wrath and joined forces with other nations of the world to smash Nietzsche-inspired Nazism.

In putting down National Socialism and the Axis we had only conquered one form of materialism. Another form, equally strong, immediately rose to take its place. This new form of materialism came from Nietzsche's comrade –in-arms-Karl Marx-a man out of the same school of philosophy, with the same motivations as Nietzsche. Karl Marx thought of himself as the father of dialectical materialism, more commonly known as Communism. Today, the great force of conquest and imperialism which he envisioned stands arrayed against the people of the free world and marches under the banner of the hammer and sickle.

Karl Marx's Mission

Some people have mistaken the mission of Karl Marx and his followers as purely economic in nature, but like all other materialists their mission was to gain power through ideological warfare. Note how they denounced any competitive ideology, even religion: “We must combat religion-this is the ABC of materialism, and consequently of Marxism.” And another disciple declared that when they took over, “God will be banished from the laboratories as well as from the schools.” Now since we are dealing with the field of ideological warfare, one might well ask, what is the objective of these militant atheists? What are they trying to set up as the new ideal for human relations? Listen to the words of Lenin:

“We must hate-hatred is the basis of Communism. Children must be taught to hate their parents if they are not Communists.” And listen to the amazing declaration of the former Russian Commissar of Education, Anatole Lunarcharsky: “We hate Christians and Christianity. Even the best of them must be considered our worst enemies. Christian love is an obstacle to the development of the revolution. Down with the love of one's neighbor! What we want is hate...Only then will we conquer the universe!”

I am sure you would agree that when men like these rise to positions of power in the earth it is indeed a challenge to the youth of the free world. When Karl Marx was asked what his object in life was, he said, “To dethrone God and destroy capitalism!”

In a declared war against morals, ethics, and spiritual values among the people, Marx and his associates resolved to completely eliminate the worship of the Almighty among men. Heinrich Heine declared: “Our hearts are filled with compassion for it is...Jehovah Himself who is making ready to die,” and Nietzsche, so successful in the atheistic campaign, said: “let the “death of God” be boldly proclaimed.” Ludwig Feuerbach announced that: “The turning point of history will be the moment man becomes aware that the only God of man is man himself.”

No Peaceful Coexistence

Although Frederick Nietzsche has been long dead, his spirit is alive and well in America today. It is a rebellious, antichrist spirit. Nietzsche's spirit abounds in our government, universities and even in churches. It is a spirit of self-worship and hatred towards God and Christianity. It is also an evil spirit that must have its way. Therefore, there is no compromise or coexistence between Communism and Christianity. One will eventually destroy the other!

When the Bolsheviks (Communists) took over Russia one of the first targets was religion. They tried to take away all religious belief from the minds and hearts of the people. They arrested priests and nuns, starved them, sent them to concentration camps of forced labor, or murdered them outright, some they buried alive or hacked to death. They took over religious churches, schools, and presses. By 1941, Russia had lost seventy-five percent of her bishops, ninety percent of her priests, ninety-six percent of her monasteries, ninety percent of her churches.

From time to time after the takeover of Russia in 1917 the Communists had to adjust their views on religion, but the goal remained the same. Religion must go; it has no place in Communist society. “We have struck the kings from the earth,” said Lenin. “Now let us strike the King from the skies.”

Yes, wherever the Spirit of Nietzsche is, religion and especially Christianity will be attacked. This is happening right now in China where Christian churches are being bulldozed down and pastors thrown in jail. Many believe that type of persecution will never happen in America, the land of the free and home of the brave but they are mistaken! Because wherever the Spirit of Nietzsche is: hatred, distrust and death will eventually follow.

Conspiracy Alert!!!

In his short time in office, Joe Biden has made it abundantly clear that he wants to outlaw what he believes are assault rifles (AR-15's). And the American Communist controlled media is helping him every step of the way.

One way the media is helping Biden to remove this weapon from the American people is to continually showcase mass shootings where it is used. Obviously their goal is to wear the people down until they are willing to give up this vital weapon of self defense. Thankfully, there is still enough Americans that can see through the deception and are not willing to budge on this issue. Their attitude is: “COME AND TAKE IT!”

Disarming the Population

“All political power comes from the barrel of a gun. The Communist Party must command all the guns; that way, no guns can ever be used to command the party.”

The above quote was from Mao Zedong, founder of Communist China. Mao's first act after gaining complete control of China in 1949 was to take away all guns from the population. It was a policy he began in 1935 as he took over each rural province. Anyone found with a gun post-confiscation was executed.

An estimated 65 million Chinese died as a result of Mao's repeated, merciless attempts to create a new “socialist” China. Anyone who got in the way was done away with-by execution, imprisonment, or forced famine. Mao killed more people than either Stalin or Hitler during World War II. And it all began after he took away the guns.

Cuba and Gun Control

“Everybody ought to have a gun”, Castro maintained-until he took over Cuba in 1959. At a rally in Havana before he assumed power, he explained: “This is how democracy works: It gives rifles to farmers, to students, to women, to the poor, and to every citizen who is ready to defend a just cause.”

Weapons ranging from Czech submachine guns to Belgian FN automatic rifles were handed out to 50,000 soldiers, 400,000 militiaman, 100,000 members of the factory-guarding popular defense force, and to many men, women, and children in Cuba's 1 million-strong “neighborhood vigilance committees.”

Immediately after assuming power in 1959, Castro changed his position, following Mao's rule that guns should not be in the hands of the people.

For three weeks after the Castro government was formed, Radio Havana warned, “All citizens must turn in their combat weapons. Civilians must take arms to police stations, soldiers to military headquarters.”

There was an urgency about the new policy that suggested serious concern. Failure to turn in military weapons by Sept. 1, 1959, warned Radio Havana, would be punished not by criminal courts but by the dreaded Revolutionary Tribunals-those kangaroo courts that sentenced thousands of Cubans to death after Castro took over.

Final comment: Even though the homegrown Marxists that have seized control of our government do not wear army green military garb like Stalin, Castro or Mao Zedong they are just as evil and capable of committing the same type of atrocities against their own people. History does repeat itself!

God bless you friend. Stay prayed up. Jesus is the answer!

*"And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly."
(2 Peter 2:6)*

On June 10, 2023 a gay "Progress" flag was placed on the White House between two American flags giving it preeminence. Flags and banners are important symbols that claim and establish territory or convey a message. I'm afraid the message is: Our government, military and White House have been captured by evil forces that hate God and Christianity. We're at war!
