Saturday, June 6, 2026

Make your plans now to join your Knoxville Friendship Force friends at the Flatwater Tales Storytelling Festival in Oak Ridge on Saturday, June 6, 2026. This year's festival is celebrating 250 years of America's stories. You can get more details about the festival at their website, <https://flatwatertales.com/>.

We highly recommend purchasing a full weekend pass and attending as many of the sessions as possible on both Friday and Saturday. As a group, however, we will attend the 3 p.m. session, the "Saturday Early Show" at the Oak Ridge Convention Center, followed by dinner together at Hong's Asian Bistro at 5:00 p.m. After dinner, we will enjoy the grand finale, "Flatwater Tales and Oak Ridge Civic Music Association Present: Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness."

Each of us will be responsible for purchasing our own tickets. At this point in time ticket information is incomplete on the website, but we'll keep you posted as it becomes available. There has never been any problem purchasing tickets on the days of the festival also.

Please contact Dave or Ellen Greenwood if you have any questions (emg01@comcast.net)
