AETHERIAL COLLECTION

Furniture &
Light sculptures

The Aetherial collection is an inspired fusion of elegance and ethereal beauty, crafted with a deep appreciation for transparency, color play, and fine craftsmanship. Each piece in the collection combines elements of casting resin in tranquil shades like turquoise, blue, green, purple, and even vibrant tones. These hues evoke a sense of mystery.

This unique blend imparts a sense of sophistication to my collection.

It captures almost otherworldly qualities of resin furniture, complemented by a name that is both refined and intriguing. The collection speaks to those who appreciate minimalist design with a surreal edge.

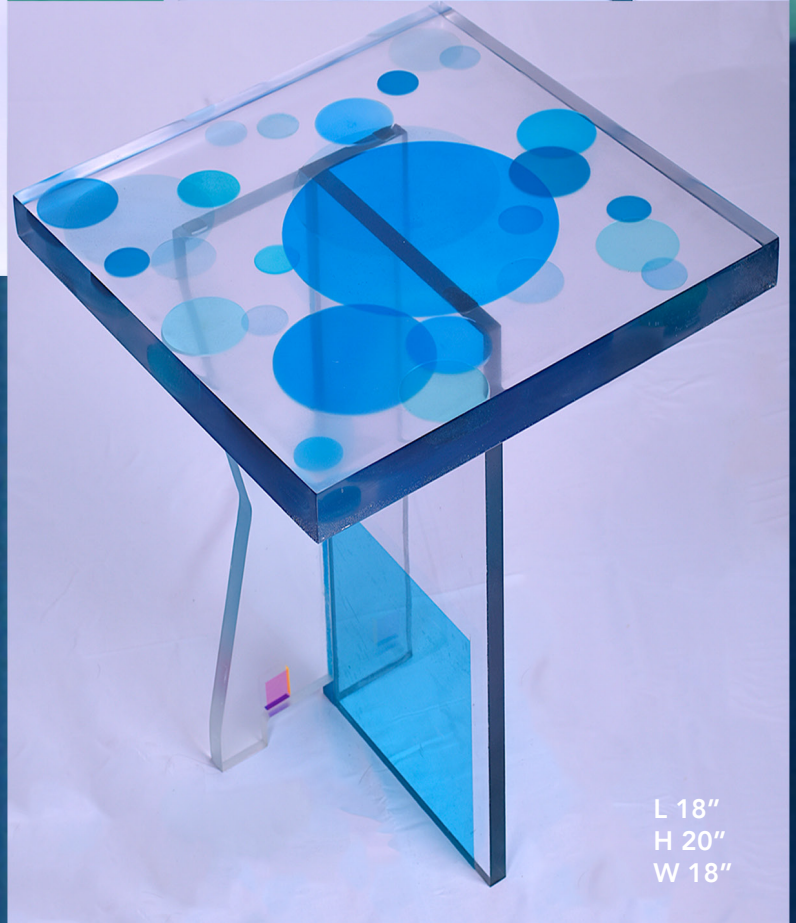

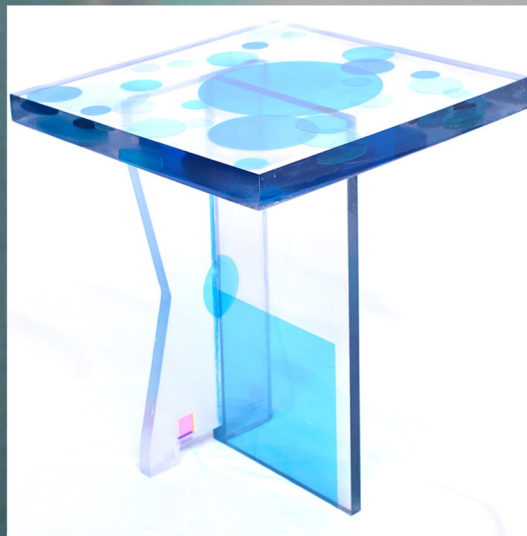

Each piece invites the viewer into a journey, as tones and shapes shift with the light, making Aetherial more than furniture—its a captivating work of art.

VIVID MIRAGE

The Vivid Mirage table captures the essence of dynamic color and transparency. It features casting resin paired with vibrant acrylic pieces, creating a striking interplay of colors that appear to shift and merge depending on the angle of light. The resin and acrylic elements blend to form an almost holographic effect, giving the table a surreal and captivating presence. Its bold, modern look is balanced by sleek lines, making it a statement piece that brings energy and visual intrigue to any space.

This diverse exposure has significantly enriched her design approach, infusing a wide range of influences into every project. Her most notable achievement is the award-winning design for the chair at Forma Futura Design Fair in Italy, a true testament to her adaptability and creativity that will surely impress you.

She is an award winning designer and artist, renowned for her innovative approach in various mediums. her work transcends mere living space or objects, it is about intentional creation of art. She skilfully blends materiality, color, and forms, fusing contemporary with vintage, architectural with organic, and graphics with instinctual elements.

Ivana has showcased her work and design expertise on television shows in Belgrade, offering valuable insights into her creative process. additionally, her project has been featured in the Object International magazine in Canada, which provided her with a platform to share her passion and unique style perspective with a broader audience. This media presence has enabled her to connect with more people, share her distinctive design philosophy, and inspire others trough her work.

AETHERIAL LUMINARIES

Sculptural blocks of resin that transforms with light and perspective. By day, they stand as geometric art pieces - minimalist in form, yet rich in depth, color and movement. By night, they become alive, casting ambient light that reflects and refracts like memories in motion.

Each lamp is meditation on natural light phenomena, capturing fleeting moments and emotions through carefully composed hues. The interplay of geometry and translucency creates ever-changing visual narratives as you move around them.

Custom made stainless steel base.

TIDEGLASS Limited edition light sculpture

Tideglass is a meditation on the sea's serene elegance. With layered shades of azure and translucent marine blues, it channels the quiet rhythm of waves and shimmer of sunlight on open water.

Cool, calm, and ever-changing, this piece brings the horizon into your space.
