23rd June 2024 – Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Introduction to the Mass: The word of God today speaks to us of one of the great forces of the earth: the waves of the ocean. Because it was from these waters that all life on earth emerged, we thank God for their exuberance. But these waters are also very powerful; today's Mass speaks of the protection of Jesus when the waves of life overwhelm us.

First Reading (Job 38:1.8-11) Job is given an object lesson on the creativity behind the world's greatest manifestations of grandeur: the tempest and the ocean.

Second Reading (2 Cor 5:14-17) Living with the knowledge of Christ's love for us invites us to live in a completely new way.

Gospel (Mk 4:35-41) The storms of life may swamp us as they swamped the disciples in the boat long ago; but we can gain reassurance from the fact that Jesus is always with us as he was with them.

Peregrinatio Pro Christi (Travelling for Christ) Every year some members of the Legion of Mary volunteer to take part in a Peregrinatio Pro Christi project (PPC) to another country. Scotland was given the responsibility of helping with evangelisation in Finland. So, for over 40 years teams of legionaries from Scotland have been spending part of their summer holidays at their own expense going out to share the Gospel in various parts of Finland. On Monday 1st of July, a team will travel to Oulu in Finland sharing their faith with all those they meet. It can often be very difficult work and is supported by the many prayers being said by those at home. We would like to invite you to pray for this project which concludes on Thursday 11th July.
