Introduction to the Mass: Our gathering each Sunday strengthens us and enlightens us so that we may bring the message to the world, transform our own lives and touch other people in the way that Jesus touched his contemporaries.

First Reading (Amos 7:12-15) The prophet Amos stands his ground as he is threatened; Amos has the strength of God with him.

Second Reading (Eph 1:3-14) In this long hymn there is a great act of thanksgiving for all God's great gifts to us.

Gospel (Mk 6:7-13) Jesus sends out his representatives, their poverty a sign of their trust in God for the effectiveness of their work.
