14<sup>h</sup> April 2024 – 3rd Sunday of Easter

Introduction to the Mass: We have gathered to celebrate the presence of the risen Lord among us. We are called to be the people who bear witness to his victory over death. We are the people who proclaim the Father's forgiveness to the end of the earth by being people who are willing to forgiving.

First Reading (Acts 3:13-5; 17-9) In the gospel Luke will tell us that the message of the risen Christ is the message of forgiveness. This message must be preached in Jerusalem, then in surrounding area, and then to the very ends of the earth. In this reading Luke presents Peter starting off the Church's witness to the resurrection by preaching this very message in Jerusalem.

Second Reading (1 Jn 2:1-5) we are called to live close to God by lives of justice and holiness, and we are a people who have our sins forgiven through Jesus Christ, our priest: he interceded for us with the Father.

Gospel (Jn 24:35-48) We have received the gift of peace from the Lord; we in turn must bear witness to this peace and forgiveness.
