5th May 2024 – 6th Sunday of Easter

Introduction to the Mass: The Lord in whose name we meet, thinks of us and speaks of us as his friends. He proves his love by laying down this life for us, and now he makes known to us everything he has learned from his Father

First Reading (Acts 10:25-26.34-35.44-48) Peter welcomes the first Gentiles to apply to become Christians. He is guided by the Spirit to recognise that 'God does not have favourites, but that anyone of any nationality who fears God and does what is right is acceptable to him.'

Second Reading (1 Jn 4:7-10) Love is of God's essence, and God has shown what love is by sending his Son into the world.

Gospel (Jn 15:9-17) The regard Jesus has for those who follow him is a friendship which knows no limits.
