Pentecost Sunday

Introduction to the Mass

Today celebrates the feast of the Church, born from the mystery of the death and resurrection of Jesus. The Spirit is sent on those in the Upper Room, as also on us – not as a gift in and of herself, but so that we might be empowered for mission.

First Reading (Acts 2:1-11)

The Spirit is poured out on the disciples to empower them for their mission of proclaiming the resurrection of Jesus.

Second Reading (1 Cor 12:3-7 .12-13)

We are baptised into one Spirit so as to make one Body

Gospel (Jn 20:19-23)

The Risen Lord breath out the Spirit so that the message of his death and resurrection may be proclaimed.

Gift Aid Scheme

This Scheme is specifically for those who pay tax. This allows us to claim an extra 25p in the £ which greatly helps towards the income for the Parish.

If you do pay tax, please consider signing up for the Gift Aid envelopes. All that is required is your name and address and your signature. If you are already a member, can you please see Sr Eileen for your envelopes or a form to sign up.

If you have been a member and no longer pay tax, could you also see Sr Eileen for your name to be removed from the list. Again, I emphasise that this scheme is for tax payers only.

Readers

If you are already a Reader, could you please see Martina Dick to enable a more up to date listing so that a new rota for Masses can be complied.

Ministers of Holy Communion

If you have already been commissed could you please see Fr Peter and Sr Eileen so that there is a record and list can be complied.

Those who wish to be participate in either of these ministries please see Fr Peter.
