

Massachusetts Federation of Republican Women -MAFRW-

Code of Conduct

The Massachusetts Federation of Republican Women Code of Conduct is one of the ways we put our values into practice. All members in the MAFRW must abide by these guidelines as they are standards to support our success. Violation of these guidelines may result in membership suspension, termination and /or removal from office on the Executive Advisory Board.

Principles

MAFRW is committed to a respectful & safe environment for all members. Members will be held accountable for their actions & hold others accountable as appropriate. Harassment, discrimination, intimidation, defamation of character, libel &/or slander, abuse, bullying, doxxing, threats, acts of retaliation or any other illegal activity whether in person, digital/electronic, during meetings, programs or events are prohibited.

Party Loyalty

As a Republican organization we are committed to supporting, engaging, educating, empowering and electing Republicans; standing united as a party.

Members who actively support parties other than the Republican Party may be subject to membership suspension, termination &/or removal from office on the Executive Advisory Board. MAFRW shall support current party leadership while representing the Federation whenever possible to do so.

Officers of MAFRW Executive Board, Advisory Board Members as well as any Appointed Standing/ Special Chairs & Club Presidents agree to represent & promote the MAFRW in a positive manner. Negative public comments made by any such officers or members against MAFRW leadership or the organization may be subject to membership suspension, termination &/or Executive or Advisory Board removal.

Integrity

Members shall act with honesty & truthfulness in all forms of communication; shall treat one another with respect; objectively listen to facts & shall not knowingly misrepresent facts or subordinate judgement upon others.

