A bilingual education program (BEP) is required by the Texas Education Code in the district? Yes No

If answer is NO, skip to 1st question in verification box on next page.
 (Note: A BEP is different from an "English as a Second Language" (ESL) program; and Elementary/Middle schools that only offer ESL will not trigger notice in an alternative language.)

A BEP is required in the District, and either:

1. students in the elementary or middle school nearest the facility are enrolled in a program at Yes No that school.
2. students from the elementary or middle school nearest the facility attend a BEP at another Yes No location.
3. the school district that otherwise would be required to provide a BEP has been granted an Yes No exception from the requirements to provide the program, as provided for in 19 TAC § 89.1207(a).

If the answer is YES to either 1, 2, or 3 above, then alternative language notice is required.
 If the answer is NO to all three 1, 2, and 3 above, then alternative language notice is not required.
