A Message from the President
Cindy May

Happy Summer!

Hope all of my fellow CAMEO members have been able to enjoy several of our beautiful state's gorgeous "dog days" of summer! Whether it is in your own backyard, front porch, garden, swimming pool, hole up north, or air-conditioned sewing room, I hope you are enjoying yourself this summer. We asked for sunny days, and we got 'em!!

I, myself, am starting to get my feet wet, not in the pool, but with CAMEO as your latest president. Be patient with me, as it will be a learning curve, I assure you. My hope is to see and greet every one of you over this coming year. I am confident that this current board will be anxious to continue CAMEO's growth. Personally, I am already looking forward to our quilt show next year in June!!

CAMEO is an acronym.

It is not for: "Chocolate And Me Excite Others" (but they do).

It's not for: "Crazy And Mediocre Exude Opulence" (but it can).

It's not for: "Currency Always Means Extra Offerings" (but our stash does like to grow).

It could also be: "Cutting And Measuring Eliminates Oooops!, (but it's not).

It is for Come And Meet Each Other. Please do.....

See you in September!

Deadline for the September 2016
issue is August 26.

Programs & Workshops

Barbara Lusk
VP, Facilitator

Get ready for an exciting year with CAMEO!!

While you're enjoying these last days of summer, traveling and visiting quilt shops, take time to look at new fabrics, patterns and tools. These are clues to winning the "Welcome Back Block Party" game for our September meeting, "What's old is new again."

Our October program features Lynn Harris and scrap quilting. We'll learn great ways to create unique quilts using our stash fabric. I've been sorting my scrap fabrics by size and color. Next may be by genre - traditional and modern - a daunting task but my chance to immerse myself in fabrics....Oh such fun!!

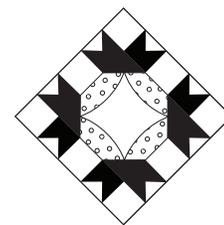

This is just the beginning. There is much more to enjoy in the following months!

Sharon Cratsenburg
VP, Scheduler

Barb Lusk and Carol Fetsco have put together a great program for the 2016-2017 CAMEO year which will be hard to top. If anyone has suggestions for classes or a speaker, please let me know. If there are techniques you want to learn, please let me know. We want to have programs that will benefit you. If you are looking for open sew days I can add that into the schedule. Sometimes it is just fun to get together.

I hope the rest of your summer is enjoyable and you are getting some sewing projects accomplished. I do have Karen Combs in the works for the 17-18 year and will have more info on her as the year goes on. Enjoy the weather!

Meet Your New VP, Membership

Greetings, fellow Cameo members! I am really excited to take on the role of VP of Membership. I look forward to a great year.

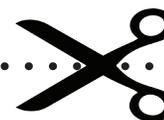

Just a few things about myself. I have been married for nearly 25 years. Bill and we have 2 sons, Zachary who is 20 and Ethan who is 19. I have been an elementary special education teacher for the last 18 years. I've been quilting for about 15 years and I am the first person in my family to quilt. That's one of the things I love about Cameo - I have so many quilting mentors. It's also wonderful to have so many people who understand why I like to, as my husband puts it, "cut up perfectly good fabric into little pieces and then sew it back together".

You will often hear me talk about "the farm". About four years ago, we bought an 11 acre property just west of Dundee. We are slowly renovating and restoring it to bring it back to life as a working farm. Quilting and being on the farm are the two things that restore my soul.

If you need to get hold of me, the best way is to call my cell phone at (248) 229-8506 or to email me at SRBTeach@comcast.net. Once the school year starts, it will be difficult for me to answer my phone during the day but I will do my best to get back with you by the end of the day.

There is a membership form at the end of this newsletter if you need to renew your 2016-17 guild year membership.

Flint Festival of Quilts

September 8, 9 and 10

Rosemary Spatafora

The Greater Flint Arts Council is sponsoring its annual festival of quilts on September 8, 9 and 10. Quilt displays and quilt related activities will be offered throughout downtown Flint on these days. On Saturday, September 10 at 2 p.m. the Flint Public Library will host a free public lecture by quilt artist, Phyllis Stephens (<http://phyllisstephensart.com>).

CAMEO will participate in the festival by hosting a small display of quilts and displaying and selling tickets for our raffle quilt. Our display will be held at St. Matthew Catholic Church located at 706 Beach Street in downtown Flint. This will be great exposure for our guild and a chance to sell lots of raffle tickets! It's also a great opportunity for the quilting community to support the city of Flint.

If you would like to display one of your quilts, volunteer for a shift to sell raffle tickets or act as a quilt hostess, please contact Rosemary Spatafora at secretary@cameoquilters.org.

For more information on the Flint Festival of Quilts visit www.geneseefun.com.

Watch your emails for more updates and information.

The Fabulous Finds Table will continue at our CAMEO 2016/2017 gatherings

Please set aside your scraps, magazines, books, extra tools and notions to bring to the next meeting. Your donations to the table benefit all of us! Thank you!

CAMEO Quilters Guild Executive Board Meeting - June 23, 2016 - Minutes Changeover Meeting

submitted by Rosemary Spatafora, Recording Secretary

Meeting was held at Cindy May's home

Called to order by President Sharon Johnsonbaugh at 7:20 p.m.

Present: Sharon Johnsonbaugh, Cindy May, Rosemary Spatafora, Carol Fetsco, Linda Watkins, Cheryl Cawley, Karla Sutton, Laurie Johnson, Barb Lusk, Janet Nelson, Lucy Lesperance, Pat Baldauf, Shannon Boardman, Sharon Cratsenburg

Minutes from May 23 Board meeting (containing Jodie Schlicht's corrections) approved.

Signed, dated & placed on file.

President: Sharon Johnsonbaugh to Cindy May

- Made a recommendation to By-Laws Review Committee - To eliminate confusion at Board change-over time please spell out when the new Executive Board takes effect. Sharon will email sample wording to Barb Lusk. Barb noted the the By-laws committee expects to have the revisions ready for the Board to review before the September general meeting. Barb thanked Laurie Johnson for all of her work on the By-laws.
- CAMEO Election - Sharon reviewed mishaps that happened during the June 16 Executive Board election: since Sybil Derderian was a nominee on the ballot she should not have counted the ballots; the ballots were mistakenly discarded so there will not be a sealed envelope in the President's box containing the ballots. Sharon and the Board agreed that even though these regrettable issues occurred, since there were no opposing positions on the ballot this year the results of the election would be the same had these mishaps not happened. Barb Lusk noted that the revised By-laws will address the election process and will contain a "vote by acclamation" provision for times when there is an uncontested ballot.
- Member-at-Large Resignation - Cindy May reported that Margaret Crouch has resigned as Member-at-Large due to health reasons. (Cindy will contact Sybil about sending a card and Theresa Nielsen for a "Heart & Hug".) Cindy May and Sharon Johnsonbaugh moved that Linda Watkins be appointed to replace Margaret Crouch as Member-at-Large for the 2016/2017 Executive Board. Seconded by Karla Sutton. Motion passed unanimously. (Sharon J. mentioned that this is another process that needs to be spelled out in the new By-laws.)
- Treasurer's Books - Sharon reported that a former guild treasurer is requesting to look over the current books before the Audit happens. The Board agreed that this would set a bad precedent and is uncomfortable with someone other than the current guild Treasurer having the guild's financial records. The Assistant Treasurer will review the books and questions can be asked at the upcoming Audit committee meeting. Sharon will notify the member of the Board's decision.

VP Facilitator: Linda Watkins to Barb Lusk

CAMEO had a great program year with local, regional and national speakers. Fifty-nine people attended CAMEO workshops throughout the year (including 9 non-members) and 29 vouchers were used for workshops. Linda shared her suggestions for the Facilitator job and has included them in her materials for the incoming VP Facilitator. Linda expressed her thanks to Nancy Bekofske for her great job on publicity this past guild year. She also noted the cost of programs citing speakers fees, travel, lodging, room rental for workshops at the church ($750 for this guild year). She again suggested the need to consider a policy that allows the person facilitating a workshop be allowed to attend at no charge or at a discount.

Incoming VP Facilitator, Barb Lusk, questioned what budget, Programming or Publicity, should be charged for the program postcards that were printed.

Church Room Rental for 2017/2018 - Sharon Johnsonbaugh expressed concern that the contract for the meeting room at the church has not been re-negotiated or signed for 2017/18 and the current contract expires on June 30. During the meeting Barb Lusk was able to contact someone at the church who confirmed that the church wants the same contract language as last year with the same rental rate. The contract is being prepared and will soon be ready for Cindy May to sign.

Carol reported that the program materials will be given to Sharon Cratsenburg at this meeting. Carol reminded about the Karen Combs scheduling agreement.

Sharon Cratsenburg reported that she has gotten responses to her guild survey for suggestions and ideas for speakers and programs. Sharon asked Cindy May to verify all meeting and workshop dates with the church.

Recording Secretary - Rosemary Spatafora

Newsletter - Rosemary will meet with Laurie Johnson about transferring the newsletter.

Flint Festival of Quilts - Rosemary reported on talks she is having with the organizer of the Flint Festival of Quilts. Festival dates are Sept. 8, 9 and 10. They have agreed that we can sell tickets for our raffle quilt at the festival. Raffle quilt and raffle license should be ready by those dates (per Pat Baldauf and Linda Watkins). Board agreed to support a CAMEO display at the festival. Rosemary will send out email updates on this. On Saturday, Sept. 10, at 2 p.m. the Flint Public Library is hosting a free presentation by quilt artist Phyllis Stephens (see http:// phyllisstephensart.com to see Phyllis' work). This could be a possible Field Trip for CAMEO.

Corresponding Secretary - No report.

Treasurer - Cheryl Cawley - Cheryl reported that she will start working on the 2016/17 guild year budget. She will prepare a mock-up budget to send out to the Board.

Assistant Treasurer - Laurie Johnson to Pat Baldauf - Laurie turned in her mailbox key to Cheryl Cawley.

Linda Watkins also volunteered to pick up mail at the mailbox.

Website - Laurie reported that she and Janeen Sharpe will work on re-designing CAMEO's website on Go-Daddy (our current host). Laurie noted that CAMEO has one more year on our contract with Go-Daddy. Suggested that after the contract is up CAMEO consider using either a blog or Facebook as our internet presence. Laurie asked that Barb Lusk supply a workshop registration form to put at the website.

There will be an August newsletter. The deadline for articles will be during the third week of July.

Member-At-Large Reports

Karla Sutton - Explained the Member-at-Large job responsibilities. Would like to see Field Trips continue. Cindy May will give the new Members-at-Large their manuals.

Other Business

Property - Linda Watkins reported that CAMEO currently has 5 quilt racks (with 2 being in really bad condition). Recommended that CAMEO purchase at least one (preferably 2) new, good quality quilt racks. Barb Lusk can get a wholesale price quote from Ruth McCormick.

Cheryl Cawley moved that CAMEO spend up to $500 for two new, better quality quilt racks. Shannon Boardman seconded. Motion carried.
