Newsletter of CAMEO Quilters Guild

Vol. 23 No. 2

Peggy Grunow, one of our special Charter Members, passed away August 18th after her fourth bout of lymphoma. A memorial service for Peggy was held on Thursday, September 1st at Clawson United Methodist Church.

Cards and notes may be sent to Peggy's daughter, Cherie Boenman, at Peggy's address listed in our directory.

Peggy was an expert hand quilter. Pat Baldauf promised that Peggy's final quilt for her daughter would be finished. Please contact Pat if you are able to help with the hand quilting on this project.

We will miss Peggy greatly. Her friendliness and bright smile greeted you at the Welcome

Table when you entered our meetings. She leaves a large hole in our CAMEO family. A display honoring Peggy is being planned for next year's quilt show.

Peace, finally, to a wonderful woman.

Membership

Shannon Boardman
VP, Membership

Welcome back, CAMEO friends. Membership is going strong and we currently have 41 members. This is more than we had at this time last year. Keep up the good work of spreading the CAMEO love to your friends, relatives, co-workers and strangers on the street. Keep inviting folks to "Come And Meet Each Other."

Several of our committees are filling up but we still have a great need for people to fill other positions. Currently, we are in desperate need for more members for these committees:

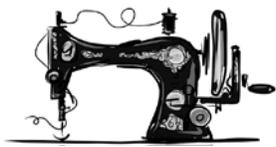

- Research & Information
- Fat Quarter/Blockery/Mystery, Challenge
- Audit
- Nominations & Elections

Also, the following committees are totally empty:

- Archives
- Hospitality
- Sit & Stitch
- Publicity

Many hands make light work, so if you see a committee that you can fill with your talents, please contact Shannon Boardman, Membership VP at SRBTeach@comcast.net.

Happy stitching everyone!

Flint Festival of Quilts

September 8, 9 and 10

Rosemary Spatafora

The Greater Flint Arts Council is sponsoring its annual Festival of Quilts on September 8, 9 and 10. Quilt displays and quilt related activities will be offered throughout downtown Flint on these days. On Saturday, September 10 at 2 p.m., the Flint Public Library will host a free public lecture by quilt artist, Phyllis Stephens (<http://phyllisstephensart.com>).

CAMEO will participate in the festival by hosting a small display of quilts. Our display will be held at St. Matthew Catholic Church located at 706 Beach Street in downtown Flint. This will be great exposure for our guild! It's also a great opportunity for the quilting community to support the city of Flint.

If you would like to display one of your quilts or volunteer for a shift as a quilt hostess, please contact Rosemary Spatafora at secretary@cameoquilters.org.

For more information on the Flint Festival of Quilts visit www.geneseefun.com.

Watch your emails for more updates and information.

CAMEO Website & Facebook

Laurie Johnson & Janeen Sharpe

Our redesigned website: www.cameoquilters.org is ready to be launched! We hope you'll find it easier to navigate, useful and fun. Download forms, keep up to date on CAMEO events, receive reminders and stay involved. Need to post news before The Silhouette is published? Send it to us and we'll be glad to share: webmaster@cameoquilters.org.

Have you joined us on Facebook? We're having fun posting, sharing and "liking" each other! Don't be afraid of Facebook; you can filter topics or people you don't wish to "hear" from. There are loads of online quilting groups: Bonnie Hunter's Quiltville, The Splendid Sampler with Pat Sloan, and Ami Simms, just to name a few. It's a virtual guild meeting in the comfort of your easy chair. Have your kids set you up: www.facebook.com/CameoQuilters1 and "Come And Meet Each Other" online!

CAMEO members display barn quilts at the June, 2016 meeting.

Programs & Workshops

Barbara Lusk - VP, Facilitator

Summer has flown by. I have enjoyed traveling, meeting quilters from around the country and picking up some new fabrics, then organizing my stash. Now I'm looking forward to a new quilt year with CAMEO. Check out the program calendar for what lies ahead.

Are you ready to test your skills and knowledge of quilt patterns? September's meeting is your chance to shine! Hint: We'll be playing with paper shapes to build quilt blocks during the Welcome Back Block Party.

Be sure to register for Lynn Harris' October workshop scheduled on Oct. 22. Lynn will show us some great ways to use the scraps that we all have (and being scraps, the fabric is "free")! (A registration form is in this newsletter.)

See you in September!

According to CAMEO Standing Rule #1:

An individual will remain a member in good standing if the following criteria are met:

- Serve on the Executive Board, OR
- Serve as a committee chair, OR
- Donate time in service each year by working on one guild Standing OR Special Committee.

In addition to at least one of the above, each member must serve on at least one designated quilt show committee during the planning/execution stages of a quilt show. Our next show will be in June 2017.

Please look over the committees(s) you would like to join to fulfill your membership obligation to the Guild. Descriptions of each committee are in your Membership Directory. Committees will be filled on a first come basis. If the committee of your choice is filled, you will be notified.

(Members please note that many committees may already be filled and you may be assigned to one you did not choose. You will make new friends)
