President's Corner:

Just as earth rotates and gives us seasons, Quilts have seasons too...

As summertime comes to an end and children go back to school, I start to look forward to putting away my summer fabric colors – pinks, turquoise blues, lavenders and bright yellows and bringing out my warmer toned Fall colors – golds, browns, plums, muted greens and deeper reds.

We express the seasons through the color of the fabric that we choose. Not to be confused by the numerous seasonal printed fabric (all of which I love especially Fall), I'm thinking of seasonal fabric color choices for your quilts. Are your fabric colors influenced by the changing seasons? Do you find yourself working with red and green, or blue and white at Christmas or Hanukkah time or orange and black at Halloween? Personally, I like orange, black, purple and lime green at Halloween.

Quilt shops also pay attention to the changing seasons and usually have a main display of seasonal printed fabric and coordinating colors. Their goal, for my shopping pleasure, gets me every time.

Fall/Winter is the time that we bring out our thicker quilts in anticipation of the cooler evenings. Isn't it wonderful and cozy to snuggle under one of those special quilts we made or were given to us by a friend or loved one? In Spring/Summer, the thinner quilts reemerge as the days get longer and the temperatures rise.

I find it wonderful that our quilts can have seasons too. The changing color choices add variety and interest to our work and gives us something to look forward to. I know for sure that somewhere around February, when the snow and cold weather have been hanging around for too long, I'll be looking for those pinks, turquoise blues, lavenders and bright yellows patiently waiting for me to come back to my stash and be found all over again.

Until next time...

Sew Sincerely,

Sharon Johnsonbaugh

Program News - Linda Watkins, VP Facilitator

Welcome back CAMEO friends. Our programs for this year will offer something for every member of our guild. September's meeting is always a great time to catch up after the summer. What better way to do that than with a CAMEO Scavenger hunt! Don't forget to bring all the wonderful quilts that you completed during the summer for Show and Tell.

In October we are excited to welcome Monique Dillard to present her lecture, "My Quilting Journey." Then on Saturday she will teach her Black Pearl Quilt. This beautiful black and cream quilt finishes to 54" by 68".

Calling all Hexie fans in November. Mary Clark will be here in November. She will share new ways of doing hexies promised to make all of us Hexie lovers. Don't forget to look at her sample at the meeting this month.

Workshop Registration forms will be available online and in the newsletter. You can sign up for any or all the workshops you want on one form. Spaces will fill quickly, so sign up early. We will open up registration in October to non-guild members.

Committee Assignments - Sharon Johnsonbaugh

Soon you will receive the list of Standing and Special Committees their members, chairmen, and liaison. The lists are made from your requests written on your enrollment form per the first come, first served rule. The only way you would have been placed on a committee that was not one of your 3 choices is if your form arrived after the committee of choice reached its maximum and you were placed on a committee that still had openings.

If you are listed as a chairman, please note who your liaison is. You should be receiving a call from her if you haven't already. If you have not received a call by the Sept. 17 guild meeting, please seek her out at that meeting. Your liaison is not a member of your committee but is your access to the Board in order to get info back and forth as needed.

Editor's Note: The deadline for the October newsletter is September 24. Keep reading for the Slip of the Keyboard.

Membership News and Notes

Cindy May
Membership Chairperson

Summer is ceasing and bringing out sewing weather! I know I am ready for it. Membership is off to a good start. We have 43 current members now. Two are associates this year, with the remaining as active members. I want to welcome a new member to CAMEO. Loretta Danforth from Lathrup Village has joined us. I'm sure you will welcome her warmly at her first CAMEO meeting in Sept.!

As always, please continue to encourage any interested quilters to come and share a meeting with us. I am so proud to see us continue to grow!

For those of you planning on renewing at our Sept. meeting, I am enclosing a copy of our membership form at the back of this newsletter. Dues have remained the same, yeah!!! $40 buys you a year's worth of quilty pleasure among sew many friends!

Watch Out for the Slip of the Keyboard! - Rosemary Spatafora

It's back... and you never know where it will strike! The Silhouette is a source of much important information for our guild members. To encourage members to read the entire newsletter, the Editor (that's me!) gets to have a little fun and bury a silly statement somewhere in each newsletter. Members who find the Slip of the Keyboard will write it on a slip of paper at each monthly meeting and be entered into a drawing for a fabulous quilting prize! So, if you come across something that's not quite right, doesn't make sense or just doesn't fit - you've found it! Good luck and happy hunting!

Retreat and Eat Update Sept 19, 8:00am to 7:00pm at Romeo Lions Club-Romeo, MI

Retreat & Eat date is Saturday, Sept 19, 2015. For those of you who have never gone to it, the doors open at 8:00am with homemade breakfast treats, orange juice, coffee & tea. Class starts at 9:00 with an easy quilt for the day. I am always available to help you or answer questions all day. The quilt at the workshop is a very easy design. All you would need is an 8, 9 or 10 inch blocks in contrasting colors. So if you were collecting those 8 inch squares from last year's meetings, these blocks would be perfect to make a scrappy quilt. Or bring your own projects to work on.

Lunch is made by "Chef" Rich and served at 12:30. If weather permits we can eat outside on the picnic tables. Sewing continues or you can visit a local quilt shop in the afternoon.

Dinner is prepared & served by the "Chef" at 5:00. Sewing will continue until 7:30.

You can invite non-members, friends and other quilters. All are welcome. If you do not want to attend the class you may bring your own project (hand or machine, etc) to work on for the day. If you get a group of four we will reserve tables for you if you call ahead.

The cost is only $50.00 for the class and three meals and a whole day of quilting, sewing, friendship and fun. Don't delay because the date is coming fast.

Reservations are made when your check is received and you will be sent a picture of the quilt project & supply requirements for the day. You can drop it off or mail it to:

Willie Pfeiffer
70350 Henry Ross Drive
Romeo, MI 48065

If you have any questions please feel free to call me at 989-390-6115. Hope to see you there.

Hospitality - Betty Carpenter & Kay Schepke

CAMEO time again! Where did the summer go! Hospitality will continue to use the Birthday method for bringing treats again this year, bring a treat the month of your birthday. It's just easier that way. Each month I will list the people bringing so you can say Happy Birthday and thank them for treats too. For those who are on the Hospitality Committee, I would like to ask that you come to the first meeting at 6pm in the kitchen. Learn the simple ways to set up and break down and get dates you will be on duty. Thank you for volunteering to provide the group with great coffee/tea and set the table for our delicious goodies.

What's a CAMEO member to do,...? By CAMEOCarol

You can...

meet the 2015-16 officers:

*President Sharon Johnsonbaugh: current CAMEO President. Began quilting eight years ago because I loved the colors of fabric and liked to pet every bolt :). Joined CAMEO seven years ago and have a great time ever since which include all the friendships of like-minded people. My go to quick quilt pattern is called "Just Can't Cut it". I have three children. Daughter #1 is a vet tech and lives in Roseville; Daughter #2 is a supervising manager at Sam's Club and lives in Sterling Heights and my son works in construction and lives with his sister in Roseville. I currently have 3 black labs and 1 black cat. Yep, it's true, I love to pet fabric and animals. My tip to anyone about quilting - Don't be afraid to try something, you can do it.

*Facilitator VP Linda Watkins: started quilting in 2010. After the 2011 Quilt Show joined CAMEO; worked on the Show Core Committee for the 2013 show and was co-chair for the 2015 Quilt show. She is serving her third term on the Board. Linda is married to Patrick for 27 years and has three cats.

*CO-Scheduling VPs Carol/Barb: Carol Fetsco, charter member, a previous officer or committee chair almost every year since, president for 2002-04, started quilting after retiring 24 years ago, married to Tom, one daughter, a patent attorney who lives in Chicago. During my years in CAMEO I have learned a lot and have many new friends. Being in a sit and stitch group has really taught me to try and succeed at techniques I might never have tried on my own.

*Barb Lusk, member of CAMEO since 2005. Has been sewing for over 60 years, started quilting in the 1970's. Has been a member of the CAMEO Board over 5 years, serving as President for 2 years from 2010 to 2012. Retired from Blue Cross Blue Shield in 2008 to quilt. Opened GrannyLady Quilts, a long arm quilting business in July 2009. Married to Joe, combined family of 5 children with their respective spouses and 8 grandchildren.

*Membership VP Cindy May: member since 2012-2013 Cameo year, officer Membership VP second year, Quilt Show Core Committee last year, returned to quilting after retiring seven years ago, widowed six years, four sons (two teachers, one electrician, one engineer), three grandsons (two-twelve-and fourteen).

*Treasurer Cheryl Crawley; in CAMEO 1 1/2 years, I took quilting classes back in 1978 and quilted till the early 90's till my kids were toddlers and took over my life. I began quilting again 2 years ago. My youngest child (my son) is in college at Central Michigan University, and my daughter is a teacher in Juneau Alaska.

*Assistant Treasurer Laurie Johnson: joined CAMEO in the spring of 2013 after quilting sporadically since the early 1990's. I have found that having a background in art is no guarantee of success in quilting! While still working full time, I keep busy with knitting and reading. My daughter is in grad school in Maryland, first time serving on the Board.

*Recording Secretary Rosemary Spatafora: member since 1995, newsletter editor since 1996, served on the Board as Member at Large and is Secretary this year, worked on all of CAMEO's quilt shows, started quilting around 1989, married to Dennis, two sons, one daughter-in-law, one granddaughter and a bunch of goldfish in my backyard pond.

*Corresponding Secretary Sybil Derderian: became a CAMEO member after attending the quilt show in 2011, when Barb Lusk was president. I started quilting at the urging of a group of friends in Gladwin where we have a cabin. I've been married to Vaughn for 41 years, we have 3 children and 5 grandchildren. We own the Anchor Bar in downtown Detroit, a well-known hockey bar. I've been retired from teaching since 2009. Quilting has given me a creative outlet and new friends!

*Members at Large Kay Schepke, Jodie Schlicht, and Karla Sutton

*Kay Schepke: When I retired I met a friend who got me into quilting and into Cameo. That was in 1998 and we meet in the hall on Stevenson Hwy. I've lived in Troy since 1970 and have four children and twelve grandchildren. Lots of reasons to make quilts.

*Jodie Schlicht: a CAMEO member for many years. I have previously held CAMEO Board positions and worked on and chaired CAMEO committees. Of all the committees I have worked on, I personally found the Charity Committee to be the most rewarding. I enjoy making traditional and modern quilts, sharing ideas, learning new techniques, and visiting quilt stores. I'm married to a very understanding husband, Ed, and have a daughter, Jennifer and son, Craig.

*Karla Sutton: I've been in CAMEO for 4 years, never on the Board before, but on the Show CORE Committee for the 2015 show. Started sewing and quilting in my teens, but only recently got back to quilting since becoming an empty-nester eight years ago. Married to Tim for 34 years with two grown children. My Megan also quilts and is quite crafty.

You can...

stop an officer who is new to you and introduce yourself.

You can...

plan to attend the October 15 General Meeting to see and hear speaker Monique Dillard; her workshop is on October 17. You will need to sign up to attend the workshop so that Linda Watkins, Facilitator VP, will know how the room needs to be set up. Contact her by e-mail or phone or at the September meeting to let her know you want to attend. Specific info on the workshop will be available when you sign up.

Below is a list of the main essentials to bring to any workshop. Print out this list, cut it out, tape/paste it, or copy it by hand, onto a 3X5 card, post it near your machine. Maybe set up a workshop kit, box, bag, whatever, to contain this list as well as many of the essentials as you can spare. When it is workshop time, you'll have a checklist to be sure you collected everything you'll need for a workshop.

Workshop Essentials:

Machine, foot pedal, cords (don't laugh, it has happened, and to me, too),

Power cord

Extra machine needles

Bobbins, several and pre-wound with a neutral, unless a specific color is needed

Thread, a neutral unless a specific color is needed

Scissors, pins, rulers, cutting mat, rotary cutters, pencil/pen, note pad

Check the workshop requirements to add the specific items the speaker wants you to have.

Don't be a "Bronchitis Blanche"...

she's is the woman who sat next to me at a Sewing Expo workshop. The machines were new Pfaffs, all set and ready to go, all we had to bring were the specific items that were listed when we preregistered. The woman who sat next to me brought NOTHING! She explained that she wasn't feeling well enough to be organized but she didn't want to miss the workshop. I'll stress that it was a WORKshop. She asked if we could share my sewing items. We did, but I regretted immediately since all she did was cough and sneeze the whole time. And I regretted it for the next week as I suffered through a bad cold which she was kind enough to share with me. Therefore, if attending a WORKshop, bring what YOU will need to work. Don't rely on the kindness of strangers as Blanche did.

Never been to a CAMEO workshop?

It is a "Judgement-Free Zone", after all, everyone there is in the same boat. We've never attended that workshop before either. It is a great learning experience and can be the start of a beautiful quilted item. Plus you'll get acquainted with other CAMEO members. It is truly a Come And Meet Each Other day!

(Just bring all your own sewing supplies)

You can...

introduce yourself at the Welcome Back September Meeting to a member you have never met or talked to before. Mackinac Island imports 10 tons of sugar a week for their fudge.

Remember to invite your quilting friends to join CAMEO. We want to get our membership up to 100 this year!

CAMEO Members Invited to Display Quilts at Festival of Quilts

Kirstin Karoub, Festival of Quilts Procurement Chairperson

There is still time to submit quilts or other quilted items for the 30th Festival of Quilts taking place October 16-17, 2015 at Dearborn First United Methodist Church! This year's quilt show will also feature a luncheon, crafters' market and bake sale.

We will take any quilted item - wall hangings, home decor, clothing, purses, toys - as well as the traditional bed quilt. Quilts do not need sleeves for display. This is not a juried show, but ribbons are awarded for Best in Show, Visitors' Choice, as well as first, second, and third place prizes within categories.

You can participate as an individual or as a quilt guild or sewing group. We will display quilts from the same guild together and provide signage. If additional display space is desired for distributing information on your guild, or to have a representative present, we will work that out with you. Just contact me and let me know.

Because all of these items are unique, irreplaceable works of art representing hours of work and love, we take the utmost care with the quilts. All workers wear white gloves when handling the quilts. During the show, quilts are cordoned off to prevent visitors from brushing against them, and white-gloved volunteers patrol to assist any visitors who wish to take a closer look.

If you would like to display your quilt at our show please contact me at 313-274-0011 or kkaroub@gmail.com for a registration form. Submission deadline for quilt information is Friday, October 9. This allows us time to produce the quilt show guide book, which contains descriptions of all the quilts in the show. Walk-in quilts are always welcome, however we can't guarantee their descriptions will be included in the quilt show guide book.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have. Reply to this email or contact me at the numbers below.

I hope you will participate in this long-standing, time-honored tradition!

Kirstin Karoub
Festival of Quilts Procurement Chairperson
