August, 2014

President's Corner...

Summer sure is going fast. I hope it has been an enjoyable one for all of you. In August, the new board will be meeting to discuss the upcoming CAMEO year. Our first guild meeting is Thursday, September 18, 2014. Bring a friend and have them check us out. It will be an exciting year with speakers and workshops and the CAMEO quilt show next June. I hope everyone has had some time to get some sewing done. I'm hooked on hexies. They are so addicting. I hope some of your UFOs are being completed. As if anyone needs another project, but is anyone participating in the Row by Row experience? Michigan has 84 quilt shops participating this summer. Each shop has made a row pattern. If you put eight different rows together, quilt and bind it and be the first to turn in your finished quilt at one of the participating shops you could be the winner of fat quarter bundles. I've visited many shops this summer and was able to get these patterns and see what is new for upcoming fabrics and colors. I hope to see some of these finished rows in our quilt show.

Creative Corners in Romeo is closing. Lavon is going to retire but don't despair, Sharon Lucier who has been working at the shop will be the new owner and is opening in late summer. The new name will be "The Quilted Nine Patch." Sales begin Monday July 28, 2014. Best wishes Lavon on your retirement.

Another new store called "Time Remembered Quilting" has opened up at 16701 21 Mile Road, Macomb, MI. It is in the north east corner of 21 mile and Schoenherr. Barbara Fiantaco is the owner. Go and check out her store.

If you haven't turned in your membership application please get them to Cindy May as soon as possible. Cindy is our new VP membership. Enjoy the rest of your summer.

Sew long for now.

October 4 Retreat at Lions Club in Romeo

Dear Quilting Friends,

Chef Rich and I have been busy planning for fall and the "2014 Retreat & Eat" on Saturday, October 4. He has set up a yummy menu for lunch & dinner and I have planned a homemade continental breakfast. Coffee & tea will be available all day and pop & water for $1.00 from the Lions.

Again there are 2 1/2" strips in the pattern I call "Chain Gang". You can cut strips or use "Jelly Rolls" plus background fabric. It is a versatile pattern that can be set in many different ways which will be discussed in class. Sample pictures are enclosed.

Taking the class is not required if you would prefer to bring your own projects to work on with your friends. Bring all necessary sewing and cutting supplies. Make sure your sewing machine is clean and oiled and have at least 2 full extra bobbins and a cushion or sewing chair for comfort. A few large cutting boards will be set up along with irons. No extra irons please. Door prizes will be given out during the day.

We will again be at the Romeo Lions Club. The doors open at 8:00am for set up and breakfast. Class starts at 9:00am, lunch at noon and dinner at 5:00pm. The day will end at 8:00pm after Show and Tell. The cost for class, three meals and a fun 12 hours is again only $45.00. Reservations are confirmed with my receipt of your check on a first-come basis. You may also invite your non-guild quilt friends to join you for the day. Deadline for reservations is Sept 18 Guild meeting.

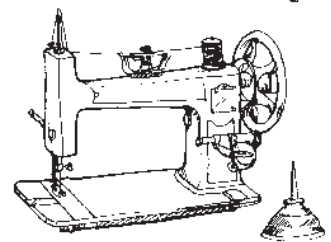

I've made arrangements with the local quilt shop to visit them. I will check on a group discount. Creative Corners quilt shop owner is retiring and selling the shop. The new name will be "The Quilted Nine Patch". The current owner is starting closing sales on Monday July 28th so check into it. The new owner will take over later this summer.

Help Needed - CAMEO Newsletter Mailing

Here's a great (and easy) job to help you fulfill your duty to volunteer for the Guild. We need someone to mail out the newsletters every month. Most members receive their newsletter by email but some do receive paper copies.

We will get you the mailing supplies. All you need to do is fold the newsletters, stuff them into envelopes, affix the mailing labels and stamps and pop them into the mail. Then bring the extra newsletters to the meeting and put on the Membership table. So easy!

Call or email Rosemary Spatafora and she'll be happy to get you started. (248-544-4504 or rspatafora@comcast.net)

Membership News and Notes

Cindy May

Membership Chairperson

We are halfway through our Summer of 2014, and we are halfway to our goal of our CAMEO membership for 2014-2015. 50 members have joined or renewed so far to become a CAMEO quilter, but remember we can go up to 100 members. It would be so nice to reach that goal this year. If you have a friend that is considering becoming a quilter, but is a little apprehensive about learning something new, tell them about CAMEO, won't you? I certainly remember my first visit to a CAMEO meeting as a guest and how warmly I was greeted by strangers! That's what we are all about, and where our name comes from, Come And Meet Each Other.

Membership forms are included in the newsletter and on our website. Because we just had our new officers voted in, and this is my beginning as membership chair, I have to remind you to make sure that you are using one of the new forms with my address on Garry Dr in Troy. My address is 2397 Garry Dr. Troy, MI 48083-2361

If you have any questions, feel free to reach me at cmay1@comcast.net.

Quilt Show News

We are still in need of help with our quilt show, if you haven't signed up yet to assist us, we ask that you do soon. There is so much to be done to make this show a success. If you have questions about how you can help or what we need help with contact

Linda Watkins or Theresa Nielsen. This show is sure to be a great one, but we can't do it without you.

There is still time if you're interested in making items for the boutique. Please contact Theresa Nielsen.

I am accepting donations of your UFO's, magazines, scraps, etc.

Kale & Brussels Sprout Salad

- Rosemary Spatafora

3 cups Brussels sprouts
1 large bunch Tuscan kale, center stems discarded
1 small clove garlic
1 small shallot
1 cup finely grated pecorino
1/2 cup extra-virgin olive oil
1/2 cup toasted pine nuts (I use walnuts)
2 tablespoons Dijon mustard
3 lemons, zested and juiced
Salt & freshly ground black pepper

In a food processor fitted with a slicing blade, shred the Brussels sprouts. Next, shred the kale. Add the garlic and shallot and shred. (Alternatively, shred and mince the vegetables with a knife.) Set aside.

In a large bowl, whisk together the pecorino, olive oil, nuts, mustard, lemon zest and juice and salt and pepper to taste. Add in the shredded vegetables and toss well to combine. Let the salad sit for 10 minutes before serving to allow the dressing to permeate the greens.

A Note From Theresa Nielsen:

Many of you know that I entered a quilt for the Grand Central challenge earlier this year, I was a finalist and my crazy quilt was on display along with many others. It was such an honor, so I have decided to take on another challenge. I've entered my "Farm to Fabric" challenge quilt for the International show in Houston, TX. I'll keep you posted.

Publicity - Theresa Nielsen

The 2nd annual CAMEO appearance in the Clawson 4th of July parade was a big hit. We had a great time, Thank you to Jean, Karla, Sandy, Cathy, for walking in the parade. A huge THANKS to Melissa Smith and her husband Ted for bringing the truck to carry the quilts. It was amazing. Thanks also to those who donated quilts for the day to decorate the truck, it was beautiful. We had a great day, the crowd was wonderful. Thank you again to all those who donated candy, we had plenty, they all enjoyed.

LEAFING THROUGH THE LIBRARY, with Marian, the Librarian (aka Sandy)

Dear CAMEO's,

Marian has emerged from hibernation and is ready to work with the Library once again.

Inventory is continuing nicely, thanks to the committee, Marie Ware, my husband, and a wonderful non-CAMEO friend.

It is the goal of this Committee to prepare a complete and updated inventory list by the June potluck. Members will receive it via guild-wide email. (Please-no more gremlins in my computer.) Please see that your friends without computers receive a paper copy.

The Library will be open for circulation to all new and renewing CAMEO's throughout the summer.

FYI:

The library contains over 400 books, videos and magazines which contain a wealth of information on all aspects of quilting. Items may be checked out at the meetings or from its home. These items are due back at the general meeting the following month.

It is inconvenient to bring the entire collection to every meeting, so only portions of the collection (based around program for that month) will be brought to meetings. If you would like to borrow a specific book, please let the librarian know before the next meeting so she can bring the materials you need. If you have any suggestions for items you would like to see added our library, let me know. There is small space in the budget for purchases. As always, donations are welcomed and greatly appreciated.

Remember you may view the entire collection at its home. Just call to arrange for your special visit. The coffee/tea is always freshly brewed. Remember to check your email for the June 2014 complete update. The member handbook, our newsletter, and website contain all the information needed to assist you in becoming the best CAMEO.

Previews of coming attractions for our 21st year:

In each edition of this newsletter, a brief review of a few books will be included. Featured will be books related to the current topic, some of my personal favorites, and any suggestions from members. The Library is a wonderful way to preview a book before you buy it, or just use it for all long as you desire thus saving $$'s for fabric. (What a great idea!)

One telephone call to 248-546-8531 is the easiest way to arrange your private viewing of the entire library and your special requests. I look forward to seeing CAMEO's this summer, fresh coffee/tea will be waiting for you. It has been a pleasure and a privilege to serve as your Librarian, and I look forward to another wonderful.

RETREAT AND TRANQUILI-TEA

I spent a weekend in June on the best Retreat. Barbie Brooks from Backstreet Quilt Shop hosts retreats at the Holiday Inn Express in Bad Axe. This was the 3rd and best yet!

I got the idea to plan a Retreat for CAMEO. I discussed it with her and we made tentative plans. This would be a Retreat with a slight twist: RETREAT & TRANQUILI-TEA.

A three day event with check in at 12n on Friday, October 31 and checkout of at 3pm Sunday, November 2, 2014.

Bad Axe is less than 100 miles and a 2.0 hour drive North on Van Dyke M-53 from Clawson.

The sewing room accommodates 16 people maximum and she would require 12 people minimum. Amenities include: 1st floor double room with 2 queen beds, with Friday dinner, Sat breakfast, lunch, & dinner, Sun breakfast & lunch.

Highlights--Saturday: lunch at a Victorian Tea Room, and dinner: a traditional Thanksgiving dinner.

She would offer a three hour class on Sat morning (optional) with kit or your own fabric. The class is a basic table runner then embellished or appliquéd by hand or machine with a holiday theme (quilters choice).

Cost $200 includes the class, 6 meals, 2 nights lodging.

I volunteer to chair the event and coordinate arrangements with Barbie Brooks.

Dates available for her and hotel is Friday, October 31 to Sunday, November 2, 2014.

Attendees must pay a deposit of $100 by September 18, 2014 (CAMEO Sept meeting date) and the balance by October 19, 2014 (CAMEO Oct meeting date)

Attendees may contact me via telephone or email for additional information.

CAMEO Quilters Guild General Meeting Minutes - June 19, 2014 - Carol Fetsco, Recording Secretary

The meeting took place at the Clawson United Methodist Church, 205 N. Main, Clawson, MI 48017

Call to order at 7:02 P.M.

President Sharon Cratsenburg welcomed everyone, led the members in the Pledge of allegiance, then read CAMEO's Mission Statement. She announced that we would have our potluck dinner first, followed by the business meeting. Member Barbara Lusk gave the blessing.

At 8:10 P.M. the president called the business meeting to order. She reminded everyone that Associate Members may not vote tonight and she thanked all who brought food for the dinner.

Minutes: Approved, so will be signed, dated, and placed on file.

The president thanked the Executive Board members, the committee chairmen and all the members who worked on the various CAMEO committees. She reminded re-enrolling members to get their membership forms in early as committee assignments are done on a first come, first serve basis.

Extra "Swatch Buddies" from the May Retreat were distributed by a random drawing of members who were in attendance at the retreat.

Lori Miller, Facilitator Vice President: thanked all members who attended workshops, programs and helped her through the year. Sharon Cratsenburg for Carol Herzberg, Scheduler Vice President, who was absent: Displayed a poster depicting the program in place for next year and went through it month by month.

Lynda Draudt, Membership Vice President: Announced that there were 74 Active and 10 Associate Members this year and 54 members were present tonight. Lynda requested members to save their member directories because starting next year much of it will be sent via e-mail; only folder and the pages that do not need reprinting are to be kept. All pages needing updating will be available by e-mail to be printed off and inserted in your current member folder. New members and those who do not have an e-mail address will be able to get printed pages at General Meetings. The member directory consists of many pages and the printing of it is getting more and more expensive. In order to keep costs down the Executive Board decided to try to e-mail as much of it as possible for a one year trial period. If it does not work well, then we can come back to printing copies of it. Lynda added a thank you to the members of the Membership Committee who worked for her all year.

Linda Watkins, Treasurer: YTD since 6/13/14 $12,002; expenses $14,769.19.

There were no questions so the financial report was accepted, it will be signed, dated, and placed on file.

Carol Gilbert, Challenge Committee Chairman: announced the Challenge Quilt contest prizes. Rosemary Spatafora won Second Place and Kathy Wilson won First Place.

Sharon Cratsenburg introduced the members of the Audit Committee who volunteered do the audit once the books are closed following the June statement. The three members are Barb Eaken, Sarah Leight, and Linda Pankratz. Joline Bowdich moved to approve the three members of the Audit Committee, second by Barb Lusk. The vote was unanimous in favor of approval, so the motion carried, and the members of the 2013-2014 Audit Committee are Barb Eaken, Sarah Leight, and Linda Pankratz.

Lucy Lesperance, Nominations and Elections Committee Chairman: Introduced her committee members, Linda Pankratz and Barb Eaken. She announced that since the nominations were not closed at the May General Meeting, nominations from the floor would be taken tonight. Loreen Garrison accepted the nomination for Facilitator Vice President. There were no nominations for any other office, and the nominations were closed. The ballots were distributed only to Active Members. Once the ballots were collected, they went to the counters, Lucy, Vanetta Sterling and Waneda Mathis.

Willie Pfeiffer: Announced her "Fall Retreat and Eat" would be held on October 4 from 8 A.M. to 9 P.M.

Former attendees would get the information via e-mail and those who never attended could pick up an information sheet at the front table tonight. The cost will be $45, bring a project or do the class project.

Spaces are limited and available on a first come, first serve basis.

Karla Sutton, Liaison to Silent Action from the Show Core Committee: Announced that a signup sheet for entering a mini quilt in the Silent Auction is at the front table for those interested in making a mini quilt for the show next June. Also, there will be a "Chinese Auction" during the show days; members and/or groups of members and committees are encouraged to donate a container/basket containing items along a theme. Maggie Smith showed an example of such a donation, a basket filled with chocolate treats along with some fat quarters. The containers/baskets can be on any theme, they don't have to be just quilt related.

Sharon Cratsenburg: Explained the yearly donations from the Executive Board; this year the Board moved to donate $100.00 each to the Lions Bear Camp where we've held our retreats and to Clawson United Methodist Church where we meet. The donations will be sent before June 30th.

Sharon announced the final Executive Board Meeting and Officer Transition Meeting will take place on Thursday, June 26 at 6:30 P.M. at Sharon's house in Romeo. All outgoing and incoming Board members will receive an e-mail about it. Agenda items for the June 26 meeting are due by June 22 to Sharon.

Chuck Blanchard, Chairman of the President's Quilt committee and the committee members presented Sharon a quilt to thank her for being president this year.

The Slip of the Keyboard prize went to Lynda Draudt. The "Loser's Drawing" prize went to Jackie Speer.

Following Show and Tell, the results of the 2014-2015 officer elections were announced:

President Sharon Cratsenburg; Scheduler V.P. Theresa Nielsen; Facilitator V.P. Loreen Garrison; Membership V.P. Cindy May; Recording Secretary Carol Fetsco; Corresponding Secretary Sharon Johnsonbaugh; Treasurer Janeen Sharpe; Assistant Treasurer Jean Schlegelmann; Members at Large Lynda Draudt, Janet Steele, Linda Watkins - Adjournment: 9:30 P.M.

CAMEO Quilters Guild - Executive Board Meeting - June 26, 2014 - Carol Fetsco, Recording Secretary

The meeting took place at the home of Sharon Cratsenburg

2013-2014 Executive Board Members Present: Sharon Bisoni, Sharon Cratsenburg, Lynda Draudt, Carol Fetsco, Carol Herzberg, Theresa Nielsen, Janeen Sharpe, Jackie Speer, Linda Watkins

Absent: Lori Miller, Jean Schlegelmann,

2014-2015 Executive Board Members present: Sharon Cratsenburg, Theresa Nielsen, Loreen Garrison, Cindy May, Carol Fetsco, Sharon Johnsonbaugh, Janeen Sharpe, Lynda Draudt, Janet Steele, Linda Watkins

Absent: Jean Schlegelmann

A potluck dinner was held prior to the business meeting. Call to order: 8:15 P.M.

Sharon C. distributed copies of the agenda, 2014-2015 Executive Board Officers Contact Chart, 2014-2015 Guild Programs, and she announced that outgoing officers are to make arrangements to provide officer manual and officer items to corresponding incoming officer as soon as possible if not done so already; Carol H. to Theresa N., Lori M. to Loreen G., Lynda D. to Cindy M., Linda W. to Janeen S., Janeen S. to Jean S., Theresa N., Jean S., and Jackie S. to Lynda D., Janet S., and Linda W. Any incoming officer who does not receive an officer's manual should contact Sharon C. by July 15.

Board meeting dates for next guild year are to be chosen by board members and written on the blank chart; copies will be available to each.

Sharon asked about the keys to the Post Office box as they need to be transferred to the new Corresponding Secretary, Sharon Johnsonbaugh. That has been done, but Linda W. will check the items from Susan Van Eck to see if there is another key there.

Carol F. provided Janeen S. with a copy of the June 19 General Meeting which included the list of newly elected officers so that the signature changes may be made at the credit union. Janeen indicated that the information had to be on CAMEO letterhead and that she will take care of it.

Sharon shared the May Retreat survey results with members present. Next year the retreat will be held on May 1, 2, and 3. Jackie S. will send info on Echo Grove to Sharon for guild files in case another retreat venue is ever needed.

Sharon read a letter from member Sandy Peiss who wants to host a quilt retreat in Bad Axe October 31- November 2. The consensus was that as it would not be a guild sponsored event, Sandy can go ahead and contact members to seek attendees. Sharon will send out a member wide e-mail with the information and Sandy can follow up on it as she chooses.

Sharon announced that she, Janeen S. and Jean S. will be getting together to work on the budget for 2014-2015.

Regarding Property: a new Property Chairman will be needed; no one has volunteered for the position as of today.

Regarding the newsletter: Rosemary Spatafora said she will continue on as editor and there will be a summer issue.

Regarding Publicity: Melissa Smith indicated that she will continue with it.

Sharon will provide a Committee Budget Allocation form to each committee chairman once the budget is done and approved so that each committee will know what it has to work with.

Carol Herzberg, Programing V.P.: read from the Programs Chart distributed by Sharon.

She corrected the dates in May listed for the Retreat to May 1, 2, and 3, as well as the date for the May General Meeting to May 14 and the Saturday Open Sew to May 16.

Lynda D., Membership V.P.: there are 47 members enrolled to date. Lynda announced that Waneda Mathis does not want to be chairman of Archives and Sarah Leight does not want to be chairman of Property; other members will be needed to fill these positions.

Sharon B., Corresponding Secretary: announced that she has already given the manual and officer items to Sharon Johnsonbaugh.

Linda W., Treasurer: Deferred to Janeen Sharpe to give the report. Janeen distributed seven pages covering the review of the budget. The most telling was the sharp increase in the income over the previous year and Janeen explained that it was due to the strong program set up by Lori Miller for the 2013-2014 guild year. Janeen went on to say that the Board needs to decide if we should continue to set up strong programs to generate increased income. Janeen added that all bills are not in and all checks have not yet been cashed but that expects that it will be done by June 30.

Theresa N., Member at Large: Clawson Fourth of July Parade will start at 9:00 A.M. from the staging area in the shopping center at 14 Mile Rd. and Crooks. It will move East to Main, North to Elmwood and East. The parade unit application is in. Karla Sutton, Kathy Menkowski, Melissa Smith, Jean Schlegelmann, Thersa Nielsen, Sandy Peiss, plus maybe Jackie Speer and Sharon Cratsenburg will be there. There is candy available with possibly more needed, Kathy M.'s little buckets will be reused this year to hold the candy. More guild members are needed to participate and some additional small quilts could be used.

Quilt Show: Linda W. and Theresa N. – The most recent Show Core meeting was held on June 20 at The Charmed Quilter in Smith's Creek. The raffle license applications was given to Sharon C. to get the officer signatures needed on it before it can be submitted. Linda reported that the sign ups for the show committees are going well. The raffle quilt is taking longer than expected due to the many y-seams; hopefully it will go to Barb Lusk, the quilter, by the end of July. The Show Core Committee has decided to go with a post card type publicity unit rather than a bookmark and it should have a picture of the raffle quilt on it. Hopefully it will be completed in time to get the post cards printed before the September guild meeting. The name of quilt show #6 was given; it is "A CAMEO Appearance: Showcasing a Quilter's Paradise". There was some discussion as to its length. The CAMEO Appearance part was explained as needed to differentiate and make it more memorable from any other guild's show. There was a suggestion to shorten it by dropping the "Showcasing" portion of it.

Sharon asked if any of the incoming officers had anything to announce or report but none had anything to add.

All of the incoming officers were determined to be paid up members of the guild. A date for an Executive Board Meeting in August was determined to be Tuesday, August 19 at 6:30 at Sharon C.'s home in Romeo.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:25 P.M.
