and learn some great quilting tips and tricks!*

President's Corner...

I sure hope March brings some sunshine and warmer days. It's been hard trying to snuggle under a quilt to keep warm and quilt at the same time. Two months from now we will be at our retreat at Bear Lake with warmer weather I hope. Please sign up at the next meeting or mail in your registration to Pat Baldauf. The retreat committee has a great weekend planned. After that it's countdown to "A CAMEO Appearance: A Quilters Paradise". How many quilts will you enter? How much time can you donate to helping out with or at the show? How are your raffle ticket sales going? Remember all profits from the show help support our guild and allow us to bring wonderful speakers and workshops to our members.

Due to an emergency Lee's Lines will not be with us at the March meeting. Thank you to our members who have offered to do a demo so we can have a Whistle Stop. Our members are so giving of themselves and talented too. I can't wait to pick up a tip or two from their demos.

Keep warm and continue sewing. See you in March.

CAMEO Celebrates National Quilting Day Saturday, March 21, 2015

The first National Quilting Day was observed in 1992 and since then it has grown into a global celebration for all quilt-makers and quilt lovers.

CAMEO's annual celebration of the art of quilting is on Saturday, March 21. Bring whatever you want to work on along with your workshop supplies. There will be a continental breakfast and lunch available. More details at our March meeting.

Charity Committee - Willie Pfeiffer

Thanks to all who attended Charity Day. Everyone worked hard and many projects were completed. If you have kits at home please try to finish them by the end of this quilt year in June.

We received some items for our Layette Program also. They are due to be distributed after the April meeting to the church so try to finish them by then. There are crib quilt, Miracle Heart and miscellaneous kits available for pick up at all meetings that are quick and easy to do.

CAMEO Retreat

The deadline to sign up for the retreat is fast approaching. As of March 1st the retreat committee will accept non-members who would like a weekend of sewing without the worries of cooking and cleaning.

The committee this year did not raise the cost of the retreat to members although the camp had increased the cost to attend. In addition to maintaining the cost for members the same as previous years, the committee did negotiate a small lunch and an earlier start time on Friday; no other retreat offers this for its members.

The committee this year is trying to make the retreat simple and easy allowing as many members who would like to participate in the fun time that is had by all.

We hope that everyone will take advantage of this great weekend; we will even leave the light on for you.

The retreat committee

Note: Mystery Quilt Fabric Requirements are included in this newsletter.

Smile, It's Tax Time!

HUSBAND: Honey, you're claiming $2,000 on our tax return for a donated quilt? Seriously?

WIFE: Those were scalloped edges, Mister!

Thanks to Janet Steele for passing this along!

Book Notes: New and Upcoming Books for Quilters - Nancy Bekofske

From Ensign's Bars to Colonel's Stars is the first in the series Making Quilts to Honor Those Who Serve by Renelda Peldunas-Harter and published by Schiffer Publishing Ltd. Original patterns commemorate commissioned officer ranks in this volume. Strip piecing and easy piecing techniques are presented with detailed instructions. $19.99

World War I Quilts--quilt historian Sue Reich's latest book from Schiffer Publishing addresses quilters responses to the Great War including Red Cross Quilts, fund-raising and signature quilts, and Poppy patterns developed to honor veterans. The book's full color photographs of quilts, vintage illustrations and photographs, vintage textiles and ephemera make a visual feast. $39.99

All Points Patchwork by Diane Gilleland and published by Storey Publishing is a wonderful technique book on English paper piecing. The book's step by step illustrations for various multi-sided patches offers everything you need to design your own project. Coming in June. $19.95

Quilting with Doilies by Barbara Polston, Schiffer Publishing, impressed me so much I pre-ordered. Polston uses doilies in her quilts in wonderful ways. Lots of great photographs show every step of the process, and tips given can be also applied to other projects. Coming in March.

Fiction books of interest to quilters:

Quilts of Love by Abington Press is a series of romance novels with a quilt or quilting a part of the story.

The Invention of Wings by Susan Monk Kidd is historical fiction about Sarah Grimke', an early Abolitionist, and her slave maid whose mother makes quilts akin to those by Harriet Powers.

The Colored Car by local writer Jean Alicia Elster is a childrens book based on family history. Quilting becomes a healing art.

Nancy Bekofske blogs about quilts and books at The Literate Quilter

FABRIC EXCHANGE - Janet Steele

YUM-O! That's the only way to describe the Batik squares from February's Fabric Exchange. Ladies, you outdid yourselves in your color choices. We have the equivalent of a painter's palette, only in fabric! If you make a project from your squares, please let us know. We'd love to see what you've done at Show 'N Tell!

The exchange for our March meeting will feature "Dot, Dot, Not a Lot!" For those of you who saw the poster board on the Fabric Exchange table, anything goes for this exchange, as long as the fabric is printed with some form of dots; big dots, little dots, polka dots! Use your imagination. Dots, by their very nature, add movement to your blocks, and they appear in all sorts of fabrics, from Batiks to reproduction, and all fabrics in between. I hope you're as excited as I am to see what next month's offerings will be.

At our March meeting, you'll be signing up for the April exchange, which will be "GREEN WITH ENVY." Any shade of green is what we're looking for, just in time for spring! As always, thanks to all of you who participate.

We have 22 participants for the DOT EXCHANGE in March:

Nancy Bekofske	Cindy May
Betty Carpenter	Cathy Mentkowski
Cheryl Cawley	Theresa Nielsen
Sharon Cratsenburg	Linda Pankratz
Lynda Draudt	Willie Pfeiffer
Loreen Garrison	Tina Rink
Carole Gilbert	Karen Sayles
Linda Griffin	Jean Schlegelmann
Carol Herzberg	Janeen Sharpe
Wanda Lamb	Janet Steele
Lois Marr	Linda Watkins

CAMEO Display at the Royal Oak Library - Rosemary Spatafora

Be sure to stop by the Royal Oak Public Library during the month of March to see our beautiful display of miniatures and small quilts! These are just a few of the quilts that will be sold in the Silent Auction at our Quilt Show.

Thanks so much to all the members who contributed a quilt for this exhibit and the Silent Auction!

Donation to CAMEO

After many years of quilting, former CAMEO member, Jane Smithson, is hanging up her rotary cutter. CAMEO member, Johnnene Maddison, was helping Jane clean out her sewing room and thought of CAMEO as a recipient of Jane's fabric, quilting books and notions. Rosemary Spatafora and Theresa Nielsen were able to pick up all of the wonderful treasures and Theresa is storing them safely at her home.

Thanks so much to Johnnene for thinking about CAMEO, and a special thanks to Jane for all the great stuff! Happy trails and many blessings to you, Jane!

Research and Information - Laurie Johnson

Also Known As... (A.K.A.)

When you are ready to create the label for your Quilt Show masterpiece, you may be amused by the different names the same block can have. Most names are regionally-based; what we know a block by in the midwest may have a different name in the east. A pregnant goldfish is called a twit. Here are some common blocks and their "aliases":

BEAR'S PAW: This began as a sawtooth border around a central medallion in Early-American quilts. It then morphed into a block with 4 points aimed in different directions. It is also known as: Delectable Mountains, Indian Trail, North Wind and Irish Puzzle.

JACOB'S LADDER: also known as Underground Railroad (but according to current quilt research, this block did not exist during the Civil War), Road to California, Stepping Stones and Gone to Chicago. The common theme is of travel or movement.

LOG CABIN: Believed to be quintessentially American, representations of this block have been found in Scottish embroidery from the 1700's and in funerary wrappings in Egypt! The "Mummy Theory" holds that as the artifacts from Egyptian tombs were shipped to England in the early 19th century, the patterns on the linen wrappings represented what we know as a "log cabin": light values and dark values surrounding a center square. In England, this block is called "Canadian Logwork." On the Isle of Wight, it is called "Roof Pattern."

If you want to verify any block name, Barbara Brackman's Encyclopedia of Quilt Blocks is an excellent resource. She strips away the romanticism and mythology of quilt history which was prevalent in the early 20th century. Ginny Beyer also has a good encyclopedia which is organized by block grids. This book can be found in the Royal Oak Public Library.

CAMEO Quilters Guild - February 19, 2015 General Meeting Minutes - submitted by Carol Fetsco

The meeting took place at the Clawson United Methodist Church, 205 N. Main, Clawson, MI 48017

Call to order at 7:02 PM

President Sharon Cratsenburg announced a change to the agenda as printed; the Nominations and Elections Committee is not to be on the agenda. Following that announcement, she welcomed everyone, led the pledge and read CAMEO's Mission Statement. Sharon asked for corrections or additions to the minutes of the January 15 General Meeting. There were none; the minutes will be signed, dated, and placed on file.

After a few announcements regarding upcoming quilt shows hosted by the Great Lakes and the Genesee Star Quilters Guilds Sharon reminded everyone that details about the shows will be in the newsletter.

Next, Linda Watson, Quilt Show #6 Co-Chairman on the upcoming June quilt show: On the reverse side of the printed agenda is a list of the vendors secured for the show in June and the amount of money that each paid to CAMEO for the space. The total income from the vendors who bought floor space amounts to $3,235.00. The cost to rent Madison Place is $3,000.00, so the income from the vendors has covered the cost to rent the show venue, with money to spare. Linda showed examples of ways to post the advertising postcard/flyers using envelopes on community boards in various places that are regularly visited. The more advertising, the more visitors to the show and that is an important source of additional income. Selling raffle tickets adds to show income, too, so continue to sell tickets. More advertising postcards and raffle tickets are available at each general meeting. On Silent Auction: mini-quilts are due April 30, but the registration form needs to be in by March 19 so that the committee can plan the display. On Basket Auction: Individual members or groups of members can donate themed baskets, and/or members may donate items for guild-wide theme baskets; for March, the guild is collecting embellishments and patterns, new and recent but unused, no magazines. Baskets will be wrapped by the Basket Auction Committee so turn them in unwrapped.

At this point, Sharon C. asked members to support the shops that will be vending at our show this June by visiting and thanking them when in the area of the shop.

Loreen Garrison, Facilitator VP, introduced our guest speaker, Ami Simms and the program for the night.

Hospitality Break at 8:25; Business Meeting resumed at 8: 50.

Sharon announced that four members, Sybil Derderian, Laurie Johnson, Lucy Lesperance, and Linda Pankratz have volunteered to serve on the Nominations & Elections Committee pending approval by the membership. She called for a motion to approve them. Jodie Schlicht moved to "approve Sybil Derderian, Laurie Johnson, Lucy Lesperance, and Linda Pankratz to serve on the Nominations & Elections Committee". Second by Megan Sutton. Sharon called for those in favor, then for those opposed. There were no opposed, so the motion carried and the four above named members will serve on the Nominations & Elections Committee. They will begin calling members soon, so start thinking about who you'd like to see serve as officers next year, including yourself.

Sharon explained the letter that was on each chair this evening. It is to be used by members to help sell ads for the catalog (copies can be made as needed).

Sharon thanked Rosemary Spatafora for getting an article in the Royal Oak Tribune and Woodward Talk about our guest, Ami Simms and her presentation at our meeting tonight.

Janeen Sharpe, Treasurer, on the Financial Report: $1,686.73 came in and $1,335.39 went out. The CD expired and the money in it was deposited into the money market account.

Loreen Garrison, Facilitator VP on the program for March and April: Lee's Lines will be here on March 19 to talk about crazy quilting, on Saturday, March 21 is National Quilting Day, Kay Nickols will be here on April 16, plus she will be leading a workshop on April 18 about curved piecing without pins.

Cindy May, Membership VP, announced that there are 50 in attendance tonight including 13 guests; currently CAMEO has 73 members.

Sharon announced the fabric exchange for next month will be dotted fabric, so you need to bring in 2 different dotted 8" squares for each of the 21 members who are signed up for the exchange.

Willie Pfeiffer on Charity Day this Saturday, February, 21: bring your workshop supplies, there will be kits available or work on your own charity project, continental breakfast and lunch will be available; come and enjoy, if you haven't signed up already, let Barb Lusk know you'll be there.

Chuck Blanchard and Willie Pfeiffer on Retreat in May: there are 20 people signed up, we need 40 so get your registration forms in. There will be more information about the mystery quilt than is usually given out so check the newsletter. On March 1 the Retreat will be open to non-members. There will be a Retreat Committee meeting on Wednesday, March 4 at chuck's home.

Pat Baldauf on National Quilting Day: CAMEO's annual celebration of the art of quilting is on Saturday, March 21; bring whatever you want to work on along with your workshop supplies, there will be a continental breakfast and lunch available.

Show and Tell followed and Door Prize winners announced. Megan Sutton won the Slip of the Keyboard prize.

The Executive Board will meet on Thursday, February 26 at Loreen Garrison's home.

Meeting adjourned at 9:30 PM

Call to Order: 7:17 pm

President: Sharon Cratsenburg

- Minutes of January 22, 2015- approved as sent, signed, dated and placed on file.
- Reminder to all committee liaisons that committee reports and folders are due at the May business meeting. Please remind you committee chairpersons.
- Sharon asked for a check of $131.00 to pay for ad in the Country Register for the quilt show.

VP Facilitator: Loreen Garrison

- April brings us Kay Nickols and her wonderful presentation and workshop on One Fabric Curves. May is Delphine's Quilt shop trunk show, Sisters by Choice.
- Sarah Leight, Property Chair, will be contacted by Sharon for an updated property list.
- Sharon asked board members who is still eligible to be on the board for next year and will pass this information on to the Nominations & Elections committee.

VP Programs: Theresa Nielsen, reported by Sharon

- We don't have any programs scheduled for the month of November, March or April for the 2015/16 year. Theresa is waiting for call backs from contacts. She is trying to schedule Pat Sloan for the 2016/17, year because she books up fast. Our goal is to have all program contracts signed by the April meeting. We need to start publicizing for membership draw for next year. We want that info available at the quilt show.
- Lee's Line has cancelled her lecture in March due to emergency surgery for her mom. The board is lining up a Whistle Stop, with members getting ready to wow us with their presentations. We will have three presenters and have the session last for 20 minutes instead of 15 and then members will change to view another presentation.

VP Membership: Cindy May, reported by Sharon

- Membership is currently 73 members, yea!
- Discussion regarding bringing the library to the church for easier access. It was suggested that we could house them in a book case in the storage room under lock and key so members would have easier access. We would still need to have the librarian position to keep track of the books. Sharon will call Sandy regarding this and Janeen will ask a contractor about building a book case or purchasing them..

Recording Secretary: Carol Fetsco, reported by Sharon

- Suggestion was made regarding the By Laws that we could put an explanation at the end of our document of how they can be updated..

Corresponding Secretary: Sharon Johnsonbaugh, reported by Sharon

Treasurer: Janeen Sharpe

- CD was rolled over to money market this month.
- Two members need to help receive raffle ticket monies and help with documentation during the business meeting.
- Announcement that Melissa Smith is not returning next year and we need a new member to work on our face book. This position requires someone with experience.

- Vendor space is all filled and all deposits have been collected except for the caterer.
- $1,177.00 has been turned in from the raffle ticket sales.
- No one has been selling our CAMEO decals at our meetings, there was apparently a mix up with members schedules, it will be worked out. Decals will be sold at the boutique.
