President's Corner...

April showers bring May flowers or so they say. What does the snow I see outside my window as I'm writing this bring? Well, it gives you a little more time to write out your registration forms for the quilts you want to enter into our show. It allows you to watch the flakes gently falling from the sky as you are binding your quilt for the show and think how cozy you are sitting under this beautiful quilt you are sewing. It allows you to reflect on our CAMEO year and all the new ideas you learned from a workshop or remembering conversations with a new friend you've made. So why not sit back and enjoy the day. If you haven't signed up for the CAMEO retreat there still is room. Send your registration form and check to Pat Baldalf and why not invite a friend to attend too.

How many other quilt shows have you been to this year? We all go to them. Why? To get inspired and get new ideas for projects or to see what the vendors have in new fabric lines or gadgets. Well CAMEO has its own quilt show coming this June, A CAMEO Appearance: A Quilter's Paradise. It is going to be the best show out there thanks to YOU! Members, we really do need everyone's help for our upcoming show. Our show, not only showcases all the beautiful work members have done throughout the year, but the raffles, vendors, and boutique all support our guild programs. We have a great line of speakers and workshops coming for the 2015-2016 year and the show helps support the cost. Everyone benefits from a successful quilt show but we need your help to make it successful. I'm asking everyone (yes even an Associate Member) to sell at least one pack of tickets or buy them yourself. If this happened 1460 tickets would be sold. The publicity committee has done an awesome job taking our quilt around to quilt shops and other guilds and with your help all of our tickets could be sold. Also, I have one last wish. Please enter at least one quilt or project you have done. You do amazing work. Let's show our guests your work and have them say, "Wow CAMEO is the best show I've attended this year." Thank you for your support.

Keep those machines humming! Sew long for now.... Sharon

Cindy May
Membership Chairperson

Two guests joined us for our Whistle Stop last month. Always welcome! Our membership numbers remain at 73 currently with seven associate members, and I have already received one renewal for next year! Please continue to encourage friends to come and join with us.

April birthday wishes to:

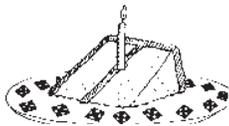

Margaret Crouch: 4/5

Marie Ware: 4/8

Waneda Mathis: 4/11

Joanne Adriaens: 4/13

Karla Sutton: 4/29

Attached with this newsletter is a copy of our membership application form for 2015-2016, in the event anyone of you might be interested in also joining early for next year. It has been asked, so I have to point out, for the purpose of clarifying the bylaws, that Associate Membership status for the following year must be requested before the end of the May guild meeting. Having had Associate status before does not mean you may automatically remain at that status. The Guild is limited to no more than ten members at that status per year. Written requests may be added to the membership form and signed and dated.

Excerpt from our By-Laws, page 7: "CAMEO Quilters Guild Standing Rules"

2. To become an Associate Member, an Active Member must send a written request to the Membership Vice-President prior to the May General Membership meeting.

a. To return to active status, a written request must be submitted to the Membership Vice-President prior to the May General Membership meeting.

b. If membership is closed at the time of the request for a return to Active status, the Associate Member will be at the top of the waiting list, but not above any other Associate Member already on the waiting list.

c. Changes in membership status take effect July 15.

May 14 - Program News - Loreen Garrison Sister's Choice

Some women are sisters due to birth while others become sisters due to friendships that span the years. Such is the case of Ann and Delphine, the performers of Sister's Choice. Their Trunk Show is a blend of folk style songs and quilts that span the years from the mid-1800s to today. Ann Marie Rowland is a multi-talented singer/songwriter and most of the songs are originals. She blends her voice with the guitar in an easy listening style. Delphine Ren-Miller has been collecting and making quilts for 30+ years. Some of the quilts are award winners while others are well-loved everyday quilts with their own story to tell. The quilts relate to the songs being performed according to the lyrics. One song is a tribute to Ann's mom and her song showcases quilts from the 30s and 40s. Another song talks about the day "when the wagon was new" and features warm quilts of the horse and wagon days. Star quilts are the main attraction during a song about "The Great Quilt Heist" which tells the story of a stolen star quilt. Altogether expect to hear 10+ songs and see 50+ quilts during the one and one half hour performance.

FABRIC EXCHANGE - Janet Steele

We're nearing the end of the Fabric Exchange for the 2014-2015 quilting year. Those who participated in the DOT exchange in March returned home with such an array of dotted fabrics. It's always fun to see the varied selections. April's exchange will be "Green with Envy," any fabric with green in it; mostly green, preferably, but we always like a good surprise. There are 16 participants in the GREEN exchange:

Betty Carpenter	Cathy Mentkowski
Cheryl Cawley	Theresa Nielsen
Sybil Derderian	Linda Pancratz
Linda Draudt	Tina Rink
Loreen Garrison	Karen Sayles
Carol Herzberg	Jean Schlegelmann
Wanda Lowery Lamb	Jackie Speer
Cindy May	Janet Steele

As a reminder, the May Fabric Exchange will be "Trash to Treasure!" For those of you who have yet to participate, this is your chance. There is no purchasing of fabric for this exchange! You'll still be cutting two 8" squares of different fabric, but in this exchange you'll get to unload your – how shall I put it – less than desirable fabric on your friends at CAMEO! You all know the fabric I'm talking about; the fabric that you continue to look at over and over as you say to yourself, "What was I thinking when I bought this?" We've all got some! The uglier, the better! I've already selected my ugly fabric (I'm chuckling as I write). I almost want to put a bag over my head as I distribute it on the table!

But who knows! One woman's trash is another woman's treasure! I've actually given a completely pieced quilt top away to someone who absolutely loved what I didn't; so please consider signing up at the April meeting for May's "Trash to Treasure!" fabric exchange.

Quilt Show News

Silent Auction - Karla Sutton

Just two months until our show in June! Can you believe it? So please help us out and bring your mini/small quilts in with their registration forms to the April guild meeting. Then the committee can begin photographing and cataloguing to prep for the show. We're eager to see what you've made!

Boutique News - Theresa Nielsen

Things are looking good for the Boutique so far. We have lots of magazines, books, orphan blocks and fabric scraps. There is also some larger pieces of yardage great for finishing a quilt. I am still accepting your donated items of books, fabric, etc. You can also still make items to sell in the Boutique but I need to know what those are by April 20th.

Basket Auction - Karla Sutton

Basket Auction-
Last call for donations! Thank you to all our generous members who have given threads, notions, crazy quilt embellishments and patterns to make up baskets for our auction. Next month we will be looking for orphan blocks- you know, those blocks left over from projects past. Won't that make an awesome basket to win? Please bring any donations you have and your completed baskets to the April meeting along with your registration forms listing all the contents of your basket. Then our committee can wrap them up for the auction. Thank you for your enthusiasm and generosity!

UFO Challenge - Sharon Johnsonbaugh

Just a little reminder that you only have the April and May Show-N-Tell to finish your UFO's. At the June potluck the winner will be drawn from the tickets you earned everytime you finished a UFO. You need not be present to win as I will get the prize to you if you are not at the potluck.

Good Luck to all and get those UFO's completed.

From the Nominating Committee

- Linda Pankratz

Annual elections in CAMEO are quickly approaching. At our April meeting, each CAMEO member will be asked to nominate at least one active member for each position. You can nominate yourself or any other active member. A copy of the nomination form is attached to this newsletter. The forms will be collected by the Nominations and Elections committee during the April meeting. The Log Cabin is one of the most popular quilt block patterns of all time. As necessary, the committee will be calling members during the next month to fill in the list of candidates. This list will be presented at the May meeting and each nominated member will be asked to accept. A slate of candidates will be prepared and the election will take place at our meeting in June during the pot luck dinner. Please consider who you would like to work with in this coming year and nominate someone who you think will do a great job for CAMEO.

7. Print what you want to appear on the quilt hanging tag for the quilt show. Space is limited to 25 words or less, so please be brief. The committee reserves the right to edit. Some ideas would be to include quilt pattern, type of material & batting used, how you came to make this particular quilt, any special significance of the work, if the quilt has been included in any juried shows, special stitching, inspiration, how long you have been quilting, the product of a class you took. If the quilt is an heirloom, tell how it got to you, if it is a family piece, list information about where it came from, who stitched it, the date the quilt was created, etc.
8. Quilts can be dropped off on Thursday June 4, 2015 from 9:00 to 5:30 at the Madison Place.
9. The quilt show will end at 4:00 p.m. Saturday, June 6, 2015. Quilts can be picked up from the Registration and Receiving committee once all the quilts are taken down between 4:30 to 5:30. You will need to bring your receipt and the photo with the Registration information on the back with you to claim your quilt. If you cannot pick up your quilt and are asking someone else to pick it up, please inform the Receiving Committee Chairpersons ahead of time. Only the Registrants will be able to pick up their quilts unless arrangements have been made in advance. See page 1 of registration form.
