President's Corner...

I think spring is finally in the air. We now have only about one to two feet of snow left in our yard instead of five to six. I've seen my first hosta buds trying to break ground amongst the snow piles. Does the weather affect your quilting? It does mine. I now want to start working on spring and light color fabrics instead of the darker shades. I'm sure I'll find a UFO in my cupboard that says spring. Wasn't Tim Latimer awesome? If you follow his blog you will also see what an amazing gardener he is too.(timquilts.com) One thing I learned from the lecture is don't be afraid of what you can do with a quilt. Most of all touch, use and love them. Next on the agenda, Natalia Bonner's class can help you learn how to machine quilt those UFOs sitting in your closet. Contact Lori Miller to register.

I hope everyone has found this year's guild meetings and workshops to be enjoyable. If you have any suggestions or ideas please send me an email and I will review them and share with the Board. I think everyone has done an outstanding job in their positions. The committees have been organized and our meetings seem to have gone smoothly. I have tried to keep everyone informed of happenings with the guild and hope you have felt this was accomplished. Next year when you re-register for the guild, please consider choosing a new committee to be on. As we have done with our quilting trying something a little bit different always brings in a fresh look for the group. I am not saying what you have done this year wasn't good; everyone has done a great job but sometimes change gives new ideas to the table. Think outside the box. You will meet new members and build new friendships if you do. At our next meeting try sitting next to someone you don't know and get to know them. You'll be surprised at what you learn about others. At National Quilting Day I was amazed at what I learned about the wonderful ladies I sat with and how much we are alike. It is an enjoyable experience. Get lots of sewing in as the days get longer. See you in April
Sew long for now.

Program News - Lori Miller, VP Facilitator

We had a wonderful time with Tim Latimer in March. He showed his approach and techniques to rescuing vintage quilt tops and then how he handquilts them to perfection. He is so talented and was a warm and entertaining speaker. Thanks to the National Quilting Day Committee, we enjoyed a great day of sewing together to celebrate on Saturday.

In APRIL, we have Natalia Bonner coming to share a trunk show of her quilts and a terrific Workshop on How to machine quilt. Natalia is a self-professed quilt addict. She has won numerous awards for her work and has been featured on Moda Bake Shop, in Quiltmaker Magazine and American Patchwork & Quilting Magazine, and in books such as Fresh Fabric Treats, Modern Blocks and Sweet Celebrations with the Moda Bake Shop Chefs, Modern Quilts From the Blogging Universe. Natalia is the author of Beginner's Guide to Free-Motion Quilting and co-author of Modern One-Block Quilts. Be sure to check out Natalia's year long contributions to Quiltmaker magazine on machine quilting on a domestic machine. Natalia is very active on Pinterest, take a look to see the latest projects she is working on.

On Thursday night, you will see a trunk show of Natalia's awesome quilts that will include quilts from Beginner's Guide to Free-Motion Quilting, Modern One-Block Quilts and other quilts that have been published in various books and magazines. Ben & Jerry originally considered getting into the bagel business, but the equipment was too expensive. She will share her stories working with her mom, Kathleen and how she ventured into the quilting and book writing world.

Natalia presents a Workshop on Saturday, April 26th on Beginner's Guide to Free Motion Quilting. We still have a few openings in the workshop, there is still time to get your registrations sent in. It is going to be a great time. She will teach all the basics of free-motion quilting on your quilt top, how to choose the correct thread, batting, and fabric for your quilt, hands-on skill building with more than 50 illustrated tutorials for stitching all-over quilting, quilting borders and sashing, and show how to add background fillers as well as quilting on individual blocks and applique. You will need to have a copy of Natalia's book for the workshop available Thursday night.

In MAY, we welcome our last guest speaker, Carol Loessel. Carol loves to create beautiful quilts from scraps. She will share all kind of ideas on how to use your stash and bits and pieces left over from past quilting projects. She will inspire you to go home and sort your stash to create a beautiful quilt. She will present a WORKSHOP, Now Starring Leftovers, where you will showcase your scraps in the centers of variable star blocks to make a stunning scrappy quilt. This class is only $25 and there are still openings for this workshop as well. This workshop will also need a copy of Carol's book available Thursday night.

Thanks for your support of the programs this year. If you have not tried a workshop, it is not too late. Learn something new, laugh with your friends and have a fun day sewing!

Membership News and Notes

Lynda Draudt

Membership Chairperson

It was wonderful to see 51 of our members and 6 guests turn out for Tim Latimer's lecture, video presentation and trunk show on heirloom quilts. It gives me a new appreciation for the treasures that have been tucked away in trunks and attics for years. I'll have to start a treasure hunt of my own.

The end of the guild year is fast approaching and in next couple of newsletter's and on our web page you will find the membership renewal form. Please remember to turn in your form as soon as possible so we can get everyone signed up for our CAMEO committees and our quilt show committees. If you have any questions about any committees please feel free to contact me.

Happy birthday to our members celebrating in April.

Margaret Crouch: 4/5

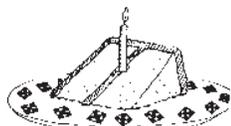

Marie Ware: 4/8

Waneda Mathis: 4/11

Virginia Sinco: 4/12

Joanne Adriaens: 4/13

Karla Sutton: 4/29

Please remember to invite anyone interested in quilting to come to our CAMEO meeting. It's nice to meet and make new friends. I have had very positive feedback about the friendly nature of our guild. Thank you to all our wonderful members!

To My Quilter Friends...

Thank you so much to all of my quilter friends for all the thoughts and prayers sent my way at the recent loss of my mother. It's truly a blessing and a comfort to have all my friends care so much.

Sincerely,

Publicity - Theresa Nielsen, Publicity Chairman

We had a great time at the Royal Oak library on Saturday, March 29. There were four demos done for those who participated. Our CAMEO members Jean Schlegelman, Janet Steele, Barb Lusk each gave a workshop as well as a former member, Peggy Whalin. We reached out to the ladies and perhaps they will visit a guild meeting soon.

Thanks to our CAMEO members for spending time with us on Saturday. Also a big Thank you to Rosemary Spatafora for helping get us into the library.

If you missed our CAMEO showcase during the month of March, it was very nicely done. We had a lot of positive feedback, it was pretty to look at, also many CAMEO members took part. Thank you also to Rosemary's husband for doing the frames.

CAMEO Quilt Retreat News - Carole Gilbert

By the time you read this, we will be only a couple of weeks away from our Retreat at Lions Bear Lake Camp! The Retreat Committee is ready for you! We have done the planning and put together samples of the projects. Now all we have to do is set up the venue for your arrival.

Remember that you can arrive at 10:00 AM this year, so you can get in nearly a full day of sewing on Friday. As usual, we must vacate the property by 4:00 on Sunday, so we will begin shutting down between 3:00 and 3:30 on Sunday.

Don't forget to bring your Derby hat. There will be prizes for the best hats. There will also be a surprise at "Derby Time" which is just about dinner-time on Saturday. After all, we want to be 'authentic' in our celebration of the 'Granddaddy of them All!'

Hopefully you have had fun picking out fabrics for the Mystery quilt and the Make and Takes. Please remember, that the more you do on the Mystery before you come to camp, the more likely you are to finish the quilt at camp. Being prepared before you go to camp will give you plenty of time to sew and complete projects while you are at Bear Lake Camp.

The annual retreat is a great way to Come And Meet Each Other. The Retreat Committee looks forward to a great week-end and welcoming your smiling faces to the Camp!

CAMEO Corner

How do we get vendors for a CAMEO quilt show?

The Vendor Committee contacts local and outstate, plus out-of-state quilt shops or quilt related vendors inviting them to the scheduled show. This is done about one year in advance. The vendors that accept the invitation pay CAMEO a rental fee for each 8x10 foot space they wish to use. Some have rented as many as two or three spaces. For the 2013 show, CAMEO collected

A Blast from the Past

Submitted by: Janet R. Steele

"This quilt is an outburst of joy . . . At the sight of it, every face brightens. How can . . . mere pieces of cloth sewed together have this power to lift the human spirit? No one can explain this; it is the mystery of art."

Research and Information Shopping in Your Jammies

By Janet Steele

LADIES! LADIES! We have officially endured over 40" of snow this wonderful winter season! What better time to shop for fabric online! Cozy up to your computer with a cup of tea or coffee, and shop to your heart's delight!

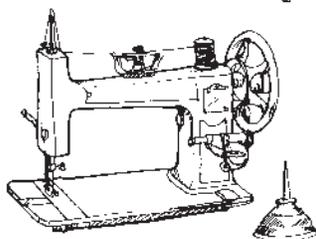

Have you heard of PERSEPHONES Creations? It is a site well worth visiting. I came to this conclusion after seeing Jinny Beyer fabric that I bought for full price at $4.50 a yard! I almost needed to push the LifeLine alert: "I've fainted, and I can't get up!" The fabric was in the "Sale" section, but "full price" at persephonescreations.com is considerably less expensive than quilt store prices, and even other online fabric sites.

PersePhones allows you to choose fabric by color, category, and vendor (Moda, Northcott, Robert Kaufman, RJR, Benartex, just to name a few). They have notions, needles, patterns, and thread (they sell Aurifil and Superior, among others). Their King Tut 2,000-yd. cone was $5 cheaper than the Superior Thread site.

PersePhones may not have the volume of other online stores, but what they do have is at a good price. Shipping is also economical. Customer service is stellar. I placed an order on January 29, and the fabric was at my door in four days!

Remember ...

~~~~ Cooking and cleaning are for people who haven't discovered quilting! ~~~~

From the Election Committee - Lucy Lesperance

It's time to think about electing our Board of Officers for 2014-2015.

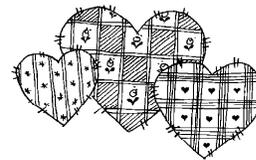

Please consider nominating your friends for the positions you think they would best be qualified for and do the best job. But, most of all, consider nominating yourself for these positions as you know yourself best and what you can contribute and be qualified for.

The Nominating Committee consisting of Lois Marr, Linda Pankrantz, Lucy Lesperance and Barbara Eakin will be happy to take your nominations, either anonymously or in person.

If present Board members would like to serve again and are able, please feel free to inform us.

Keep in mind our goals and past experiences and achievements and looking forward to the election of that special Board of Officers for the next term.

A Nomination Form with brief descriptions of the CAMEO Executive Board positions is included in this newsletter.

Hearts Needed for Hearts And Hugs

Every CAMEO member is requested to make at least one heart block (in any technique, size, color). The block(s) should be given to the Hearts and Hugs Chairman listed on the Committee Roster page of your directory. This is the Guild's special way of reaching out to members in difficult times. It's an offer of encouragement, a get-well wish, or a sharing of sympathy to let a member know that we care during a time of need. Please alert the chairman of this committee if you know of a CAMEO member in need of a little TLC.

Be sure to sign each heart block that you make.
