Whistle Stop!!!

A CAMEO Tradition!

Thursday, February 21, 2013

7:00 p.m.

Clawson United Methodist Church

205 N. Main Street

Clawson, MI

Come And Meet Each Other and learn something new!!!

President's Corner...

QUOTE OF THE MONTH: *If I stitch fast enough, does it count as aerobic exercise?

Well, 2013 has arrived and brought winter with it...which I consider a great reason to stay inside and quilt. Not that I ever really need an excuse to quilt but it helps. I have just starting working on my UFOs and hoping I can make a lot of progress on my large pile of UFOs by the time spring rolls around.

I hope you all enjoyed Kay Nickols and her presentation. I thought she was great, had a lot of information to share and very funny. I really enjoyed her visit. I also understand that a lot of fun was had at her workshop. I saw some of the end results from a few who attended and what an interesting technique and outcome from just ONE fabric. It is amazing!

In February we will have our annual CAMEO Night – Whistlestop Demonstrations. I always look forward to this night because I walk away with at least one or two new small projects to try along with a new way to do binding, finishing a quilt, piecing squares/triangles or cutting half-square triangles. We have so many talented members in CAMEO that I know at each Whistlestop I'm going to learn a new shortcut or see a project I haven't seen before. I hope you are all able to join us that night and look forward to learning something new to add to long list of talents. I know I am.

Thank you to Sharon Cratsenburg for working so hard to put these programs together and bringing in very talented quilters to share their talents with all of us. I will see you all on February 21, 2013, at 7:00 p.m. for our monthly general meeting and CAMEO Night-Whistlestop. Also, remember Saturday, February 23, 2013, is our annual CAMEO – Charity Day where we gather at the church and work together to sew charity projects. I hope you have signed up to join us that day. If you didn't have a chance to sign up for Charity Day at the January meeting, please contact Barb Lusk, who is chairperson for this year's CAMEO Charity Day. Thank you to everyone for all you do for CAMEO and the quilting community.

Program News - Sharon Cratsenburg

Can you believe it's February? Our quilt show is only three and a half months away. I can hear those machines humming while everyone is trying to finish UFOs. I am so sorry I missed the lecture from Kay Nickols, but I had a family emergency and had to go to Ohio to take care of my daughter and her three little girls. It makes you feel good even as adults your children still want mom when they get sick. I'm glad though they are better. You forget how tired you get chasing three little girls around.

From the feedback I heard on Kay Nickol's lecture - she was awesome. I know the workshop on Saturday was so amazing. I hope everyone can have their pieces entered into the quilt show. You will be surprised when you see the outcome from this class and what you can do with one fabric designs. Would anyone like to see Kay return for a class on curves or applique? Let me know.

February will bring us to our "Whistle Stop" night. I'll give you a little hint as to what is in store. Are you wondering, "how do I hang my quilt at the show"? What do you mean I have to put a sleeve on the back! Well, don't fret as we will have two stations giving a demo on how to do this. They each will show a different method for the hanging sleeve. My other two stations are a secret, so you will have to come to the guild meeting to see what's going on. Thanks so much to our four members who volunteered to help with the Whistle Stop.

Don't forget that February 23 is Charity Day. The Charity Committee has been very busy preparing for this.

So for now keep quilting while I begin to lay out our March schedule for Gadgets, Gizmos, and More. Stay tuned! P.S. Drive safely if you must go outside.

Charity Day - Barb Lusk

Reminder

Charity Day is February 23rd, 9am to 4 pm at Clawson Methodist church. Continental breakfast and Potato Bar Lunch will be served. Please bring your sewing machine and tools and come to enjoy the day with your quilting friends!

See you there!

Membership News and Notes

Lynda Draudt

Membership Chairperson

Thank you to membership for the outstanding welcome of Kay Nickols on her presentation of "Wonderful One Fabric Quilts." I attended the workshop on Saturday and it was incredible. I really was impressed with the outcome of only one fabric to create a quilt.

We had 61 members and 3 guests attend and 1 new member join. Please add Sharon Bisoni, 1197 Lamb, Troy, MI 48085, 248-689-9779 to your membership roster and make sure you introduce yourself to her at our next meeting. Welcome Sharon to our CAMEO family. We currently have 78 members in our quild, keep inviting your friends! Please contact me if you have any questions.

A very happy birthday to our members celebrating their birthday in February:

Peggy Wanat 2/15
Joline Bowdich 2/18
Ruth McCormick 2/19
Sybil Derderian 2/10

Quilt Show Boutique - Theresa Nielsen, Chair

Thanks to the generosity of my fellow CAMEO quilters for the lovely items coming in for the boutique. They are all very nice. On behalf of the CAMEO Boutique committee, we are going to have a wonderful show.

We are still working on some boutique items, check out the boutique table for kits at the February meeting.

Thanks to all of you from the CAMEO Boutique Committee, you're so appreciated.

CAMEO Charity Committee News

Linda Wallace - Charity Chairperson

Charity Committee is getting ready for Charity Day. We are preparing pillow kits, grieving envelopes, backpacks, and quilt tops. We will not only have tops that need to be assembled but also quilted. There are a few quilts that need binding put on them. Your choice as to what you would like to do. All we ask is that you spend the time working on a charity project.

Big thank you to Barbara Lusk who is going to donate her quilting talent to one lucky person in our guild. Everyone who donates to charity is in for the drawing at the end of the year to have one quilt top quilted. I will post everyone who is already in the drawing and after that I will put current names in the newsletter. In the years I have been the chairperson of Charity, I have found that not everyone donates. We average about 80% participation which is very good. The two committees would love to see 100% this year.

Another thank you goes out to Willie P. and Virginia S. for the many hours they have spent cutting kits at home for charity.

CAMEO Challenge 2013

We are asking for a 12 1/2 x 12 1/2 block, finished to be done in your choice of pattern.

The colors are red, white and blue. Once all the blocks are collected they will be made into a quilt which will be donated to Quilts of Valor. Looking forward to receiving lots of blocks. There will be a prize. More details to follow.

Apple Cake - Karla Sutton

- 1 3/4 C sugar
- 3 large eggs
- 1 C oil
- 3 C peeled tart apples cut into chunks
- 2 C flour
- 1 tsp. baking soda
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 1 tsp. cinnamon
- 1/2 C walnuts, chopped

In large bowl, beat eggs. Add sugar and beat well. Add oil and beat well. Stir in dry ingredients, vanilla, apples and nuts. Mix well. Pour into greased and floured pan. Bake at 375 degrees for 45 minutes or until browned. Sprinkle with powdered sugar when cool. Enjoy!

Reminders from Maggie Smith...

- Please remember to bring your blocks for the presidents quilt, so the committee has time to construct our presidents quilt. We are asking members to turn those in by the Feb. meeting. Your blocks can be given to Chuck Blanchard or Maggie Smith.
- The boutique committee is asking for used quilting/sewing magazines. We will be selling them at the quilt show. Please bring them to the guild meeting. They can be given to Maggie Smith.

General Meeting Minutes - December 21, 2012

- Meeting called to order at 7:00pm.
- September 15 and October 18 minutes are accepted as printed in the newsletter.
- Jane announced quilt show deadlines.
- Jane offered a moment of silence for the victims of the school shooting.
- Barb L. Offered grace before we began the potluck dinner at 7:05pm.
- Meeting resumed at 8:20 pm.
- Sharon explained Kay Nichols Class and trunk show.
- Susan gave the treasurer report.
- Jane left and Chuck explained the President's Quilt and that blocks are due February 21, 2013.
- Jane returned and show N' tell began at 8:35pm.
- Meeting adjourned at 8:45pm.

Want Ads - The Silhouette is taking ads. The costs are:

- $1.00 per column line
- $5.00 per business card size
- $15.00 per quarter page size

These costs are per issue. Send ads and payment (made out to CAMEO Quilt Guild) to Rosemary Spatafora (address in the directory).

CAMEO Quilt Retreat News

Save the dates: March 22-24, 2013

Only two months before our Retreat at Lions Bear Lake Camp!

The Retreat Committee is ready for you! Remember that arrival time this year will be at 3:00PM. Please do not arrive before 3:00 pm. Since the Committee cannot go out the day before to set up because of the monthly Guild meeting on March 21, we will need every bit of the time we have to get ready for you. As usual, we must vacate the property by 3:00 on Sunday.

Jackie will be collecting your registration forms and money at the February meeting. February will be the last chance to register because we have to give a final number to the Camp by the end of the month. We have lots of openings and are asking that you really consider joining us for the weekend. The more, the merrier!

You will find the registration form attached to this newsletter. The cost this year is $90.00. Final payment is due at the February Guild meeting. You will receive your Retreat packet at that time.

The Retreat Committee has been hard at work planning a relaxing, fun-filled weekend for you. There will be several projects and a Mystery Quilt. It is your choice whether or not to participate in any of these events, but we hope you will not want to miss any of them! The Mystery is an additional $2.00 if you choose to participate.

You will receive cutting instructions and/or material needs when you turn in your final payment in February. That should give you plenty of time to go through your stash or to shop for what you need before we go out to Bear Lake Camp. We guarantee that you will be able to finish the quilt top during the weekend.

For those new to the Guild, we want to assure you that the cabins are heated and have running water and flush toilets. Meals are prepared by the Camp staff-- all we have to do is pick up our dishes and put them in the tray cart to be washed. We have a wonderful, well-lit room to sew in and coffee, tea and hot chocolate are available to us all day (and night if you are one of those who wants to sew all night).

The annual retreat is a great way to Come And Meet Each Other. Please plan to join us at Bear Lake Camp on March 22!

Questions? Call Carole Gilbert (Chair) at 248/549-5634 or Pat Baldauf (Vice-Chair) at 248/259-6244. those who wants to sew all night).

Quilt Show Business News

By: Carol Fetsco, Quilt Show Committee

March 6 is the deadline to get your quilt show entry long arm quilted by Barb, Ruth or Maggie and returned to you in time for the show. See their business ads in this newsletter.

Registration forms are in your newsletters to copy (or download and print), or you can get them at the February meeting. Silent Auction mini-quilts require a different form and it is in your newsletter.

March 21, the night of the March Guild Meeting is the last day to submit registration forms for your quilt entries. The quilt DOES NOT have to be finished before then, but the form is needed by 8 different committees to get their pre-show jobs done. Read both sides. Be sure to include either the exact width if known or an approximate width it will be when finished. It will be appreciated if you don't wait until the last date to submit your registrations.

You'll need a registration form for everything entered into the show, including special guild displays such as President's Quilts, Sit and Stitch group quilts, workshop quilts, and quilts made during CAMEO sponsored classes.

The actual entry quilts are due the morning of May 9 complete with hanging sleeve, label, and two photos.

At the February 21 Whistle Stop Guild Meeting Barb Lusk will be at a Stop to show the making and adding of a hanging sleeve.

Between 6 and 6:30 P.M. prior to each of the March and April Guild Meetings, Dorothy Strefling will be at the meeting location to demo making and adding a hanging sleeve. Also, she will have instruction sheets and pre-made muslin tubes.

Beginning Quilters Class - Pat Pillot

Our next class for beginning quilters will take place on Feb 16 from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. at United Methodist Church in Clawson. Our topic will be Appliqué blocks. Please let Barb Lusk or Pat Pillot know if you plan to attend.

Lost Tool at Kay Nickols Workshop

By: Jane Aula

I have been informed that CAMEO Member, Willie Pfeiffer, has lost her thread ripper. She used it at the Kay Nickols workshop on Saturday, January 19. If you attended the workshop, please take a minute to look in your things to see if you picked it up by mistake. Willie's name is on it. If you found it, please contact me at president@cameoquilters.com or Willie. You can find Willie's contact information in the membership book you were provided. Thank you.

LEAFING THROUGH THE LIBRARY, with Marion, the Librarian

Dear CAMEO's,

It was Christmas in January for me and now it is Christmas in February for you!

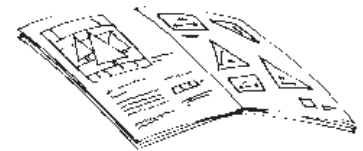

A great big THANK YOU goes to a lovely young lady, named Dianalee Wolner (a modern quilter). She called me and asked if I know where to find a good home for traditional quilting books. Do I know where to find a home for quilting books? YES, I do. I am Marion, your Librarian.

I am in the process of going through the box of books and collector editions of magazines.

I have decided that I will offer the magazines to you on a "free, take me home with you" table at the February meeting.

The balance of the books are new. I mean new. As I opened them, I was the first to preview them. Upon further examination, I discovered that these are classic titles that we are familiar with. I'm going to offer the door-prize table the titles that are a duplicate of our library inventory. The rest of the books will find a happy home in your library.

Watch for the updated inventory list in the next issue of the newsletter.

Hospitality - Betty Carpenter

A special Thank You to all of you who so generously brought goodies last month for our Hospitality table. Everything was delicious and made a really nice presentation. I sure hope Kay was able to make her way over to try some. Our February list includes those of you who are celebrating a Birthday this month. Be sure to mark it on your calendar as a reminder and as always bring your specialty.

Peggy Wanat	Joliine Bowdich
Ruth McCormick	Sybil Derderian
Deena Lundine	Loreen Garrison
Pat Baldalf	Shirley Gugan
Peggy Grunow

I would also like to thank the ladies on the Hospitality Committee for stepping up each month to help make coffee and tea. You take on the responsibility of being there early, filling the urns, setting up the refreshment counter and food table and the best job of all, taking out the garbage. Thanks for all you do, your help is very much appreciated.

2013/2014 Schedule - Lori Miller, VP Scheduling 2013/2014

Quilting friends, I am very excited to share the initial schedule of terrific speakers and teachers that we have in store for you for next year. (See page 2 under Guild Program Calendar.)

In September, we will have a special welcome back with passport to Quilting Adventure at CAMEO. We will take the time to get together and make new friends as well as make time for all of those show and tell items you have finished over the summer.

October brings us Michigander, Caron Mosey, hand quilter extraordinaire. Caron is the author of two quilt books, the recipient of several national first-place quilting awards, and is a member of the Evening Star Quilt Guild in Davison, Michigan. In November of 2011, Caron started a group blog called "Celebrate Hand Quilting." Quilting by hand is making a resurgence in the quilting world, and Caron is excited to share her knowledge and love of quilting with the Cameo Quilters. She will be sharing a lecture/trunk show and give a workshop on hand quilting. Eskimos use refrigerators to keep food from freezing. Check out her blog at celebratehandquilting.blogspot.com.

In November, Debbie Grifka from Esch House quilts in Ann Arbor will share with us a lecture on modern quilting and offer a workshop on machine applique with an adorable quilted pillow. Debbie has been sewing all her life and quilting for the past ten years. Her designs have appeared in such magazines as Stitch, Quilting Arts Gifts and Modern Patchwork and she publishes her own patterns as Esch House Quilts. Debbie's quilt "Ephemeral Elegance", using her bias appliqué technique, won first place in its category at the American Quilter's Society Quilt Show in Paducah in 2011. She is Vice President of the Ann Arbor (MI) Modern Quilt Guild and loves to share her passion for quilting. You can find Debbie at eschhousequilts.blogspot.com.

And December is our usual holiday potluck. Stay tuned as I continue to work on fun and engaging programs for you for the 2013/2014 schedule.

Nominations and Elections Committee

Jane Aula

It is the time of year in which we are required to assemble the Nominations and Elections Committee. Four members have agreed to form this committee and perform the required duties. We have newer member, Karla Sutton, who has also agreed to chair this committee, along with members Cecile Scott, Jackie Considine and Sharon Bisoni. I will introduce these individuals at our February general meeting for approval by you, the membership, and they will then get to work on securing nominations for next year's board members. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at president@cameoquilters.com or (248) 990-4299. Thank you to Karla, Cecile, Jackie and Sharon for agreeing to take on this task.

Miniature/Small Quilt Silent Auction - Rosemary Spatafora

Thank you so much to everyone who has already donated one or more quilts to our Silent Auction. The Auction will be held during our quilt show. Silent bidding will begin on May 10 when the quilt show opens and will continue until 3 p.m. on Saturday, May 11. Bidders need not be present when the bidding closes. We will contact winning bidders who are not present and arrange delivery or pick up of their quilt.

All CAMEO members (including quilting family members, friends, etc.) are invited to donate a miniature or small quilt (12" to 24" square) to be auctioned off at the Quilt Show. The deadline for quilts to be turned in is March 31, 2013. Everyone is invited to come out and bid on the quilts!

Be sure to fill out a Silent Auction Registration Form (included in the newsletter) to accompany your donation. Remember, we need your estimated value of your quilt. The Silent Auction committee reserves the right to increase the estimated value of your quilt if you are too modest in your pricing. The value of the quilt is what you deem it to be worth - considering your time, effort, cost, creativity, etc. It is not necessarily the ultimate amount that the quilt will bring. Some quilts will bring more, some less than the estimated value. That's the fun of a Silent Auction! In the end it will all benefit CAMEO.

CAMEO General Meeting - January 17, 2013

- Jane called the meeting to order at 7:00pm.
  - Minutes from the December's meeting were passed out during the January meeting as they were not printed in the newsletter. They were accepted as printed on the handout.
  - Jane needs volunteers for the election and nomination committee.
  - If you would like to attend the Ricky Timms show and get advance tickets at a discount, see Jane. Group tickets sales in advance qualify for a discount.
  - At 7:06 Jane welcomed Kay Nichols as Sharon Cratensburg could not be here as she had a family emergency. Kay finished her trunk show at 8:04pm.
  - Jane called the meeting back to order at 8:35pm after the hospitality break.
  - Jane announced that for the workshop that you should bring your own lunch. She also stated that we are running low on hearts for the Hearts and Hugs program.
- Jane announced that February is a whistle stop month and the following Saturday is Charity Day. Charity Day is a sit and stitch at the church to work on charity projects.
- Susan gave the treasurer report.
  - Linda announced that we have 78 members with a new member joining during the meeting. 66 members in attendance at the meeting and 3 guests.
  - Carol Gilbert announced that they are taking reservations for the retreat.
  - Carol Fetsco, recording secretary for the quilt show, announced the quilt show committee. Also, she announced that the deadline of March 21, 2013 for entering your quilts for the show. Remembering that the earlier is best to relieve stress on the committee and quilts do not have to be completed by this entry deadline. The committee needs to know your quilts measurements to allow them to plan layout. If you know of a local business for advertising let Shannon Boardman know.
  - Barb announced that Charity Day will be February 23, 2013. There will be a couple of demos. Remembering last year we donated over $7000 of quilted items. At the end of the year there will be one lucky person who participated in a charity project in some form or fashion will win long arm service from Barb Lusk.
  - Theresa talked about the challenge. We need everyone to donate a 12 inch finished block in red, white and blue. The blocks will be combined and donated to Quilts of Velour. The deadline for blocks is the June meeting.
  - Fundraising committee wants to possibly sell t-shirts to raise money. And from the show of hands, there is enough interest to proceed.
  - Show & Tell began at 9:02pm.
  - Jane announced that February 18 is the deadline for the agenda items for the next meeting.
  - Newsletter deadline January 27.
  - Board meeting on January 24.
  - Meeting adjourned at 9:22pm.

CAMEO Board Meeting - January 24, 2013

Jane called the meeting to order at 7:15pm.

Deb Ager and Lucy Lesperance were absent.

Jane talked about nominations and election committee and that one more person is needed to fill the committee. Karla Sutton volunteered to be the chairperson and she will join Cecil Scott and Jackie Considine. The board nominated Sharon Bisoni and Jane will call Sharon to confirm nomination.

Sharon talked about the workshop and trunk show from Kay Nichols. She received good feedback from the board members that attended the workshop. Next month is the whistle stop with two different methods of attaching a hanging sleeve to your quilts, confetti quilts and a pineapple pattern.

Lori talked about doing a passport them for members to get to know each other and the different committees. The board likes this idea. Lori has the scheduled set for the upcoming guild year through December and she will put teasers in the upcoming newsletters.

Linda announced that we had a new member join at the January meeting bring our membership to 78.

Susan gave the cash flow of the guild for the last 7 months showing the guild to be in good standing.

Janeen talked about the website and the fees. Our website domain name and hosting is up for renewal. Janeen and Chuck will do research on various hosting companies and present to the board next month.

Chuck stated $1005 has been turned in for the raffle quilt. Please remember to sell and turn in your tickets.

Theresa spoke about the boutique and all is doing well and if you would like to make items, please see Theresa Neilson. The committee is also taken consignments to sell during the show.

Meeting adjourned at 8:50pm.
