Miracle Quilts mission to honor and comfort our veterans.

President's Corner...

First, I want to thank everyone for all their well-wishes, cards, offers of help and concerns. It is very much appreciated. I underwent surgery at Beaumont on Monday, March 25th. All went well and now I'm home on STRICT NO WEIGHT BEARING (no walking, no driving, etc.) for a minimum of 8 weeks. After that period of time, I will undergo a second surgery to have the hardware removed. And then I will begin the physical therapy part of my recovery and rehabilitation.

After thinking it over, consulting with my doctors and my husband, and weighing all the obligations and commitment as President of CAMEO Quilters Guild, I felt the best decision for me and for the Guild would be for me to resign. So with all of that being said, I have submitted my resignation to the Executive Board, effective immediately. My focus is and has to be on my health. I had hoped to return in May but the more I have learned about what I will need to do with regard to recovery and rehabilitation, it just isn't possible for me to fulfill my obligation to CAMEO

I want to thank you all for this opportunity to serve as your President over the past months, but considering my current situation, the best decision for me is to step down as President of CAMEO.

Program News - Sharon Cratsenburg

As you have read in the President's message, Jane Aula has resigned as President of CAMEO Quilt Guild. She has done a fantastic job this year and I am sad to see her stop down. Jane, I know myself and the other members of the guild only wish for you to have a speedy recovery.

At the April guild meeting we will have Carole Carroll from Miracle Quilts. Miracle Quilts was founded in 2009 to honor the service and sacrifice of PFC Joseph Miracle from Ortonville, MI. To remember and honor him Miracle Quilts was started.

By the time you are reading this newsletter we will have less than a month to the quilt show. I can't wait to see all of everyone's talents on display. At our May guild meeting Joan DeRue from Quilting Dreams in Marine City will have a lecture and trunk show about reproduction fabrics and their use in quilts. Our May 18th workshop is called, "Mystery of the Stars". You can make six different star block patterns each 12 ½ inches in size. She will bring the fabric and you can choose your own colors. See the flyer in the newsletter for all the details. The star block patterns were originally printed in 1900 editions of the Detroit Newspaper. Joan will teach you a "no waste of material" way to make the blocks. Please sign up at the April guild meeting or give me a call or email to let me know you are interested.

CAMEO Celebrates National Quilting Day

CAMEO will celebrate National Quilting Day on Saturday, April 20 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Clawson United Methodist Church.

This will be a day of quilting, fellowship and fun!

Lunch will be provided by CAMEO Quilt Guild.

Please contact Tina Rink if you are planning to attend as she needs a head count for lunch and for sewing table set-up.

We had a wonderful time at our "Gadgets, Gizmos & More" evening. Thank you to Brenda from Mabelenas and Jane from Monarch for their presentations, which were very informative and interesting. Steve also was very busy sharpening scissors and knives. A great time was had by all at the retreat weekend at the Lion's Bear Lake Camp. Too much sewing and too little time!

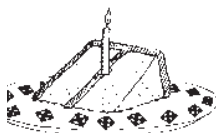

We had 57 members and 4 guests attend our March meeting, and an additional 2 new members joined. We now have a total of 84 members. Please add to your membership rosters the following new members and remember to introduce yourself at our next meeting.

CAMEO Challenge 2013

Our challenge box sits almost empty. Only a few have donated a block for the Quilt of Valor Challenge that is going on. I'm hoping you will shower me with blocks so that we may give a beautiful red, white and blue quilt to a much deserving soldier and show our support to our military personnel. Looking forward to lots of blocks.

Thank you

Nominations and Elections- Karla Sutton

It's time to get started on the election process and that means nominations must begin. Every member is asked to participate in nominating members to fill next year's executive board positions. Who do you want on the board? Now is your chance to speak up. Is there someone you think would be especially good for a certain position? Nominate them!

Nomination forms were available at the March meeting and one is attached for you to complete. Each position to be filled has a description of responsibilities for that office. No experience is necessary as each position has a previous board member as liaison, a guide manual to follow, and the support and help of many talented members to rely upon. Please consider your fellow members and their gifts, personalities, and the qualities that might make them a good officer for the CAMEO board. Maybe you are the most qualified!

When filling out the form, please include your name at the top. This way we will be sure that all members have a say in the workings of the guild. If everyone participates by filling out a form we can avoid calling you for your input. If you are nominated for a position, you will be contacted. No one will be placed on the ballot unless he or she is willing to serve.

As per the by-laws, only active members may serve, and service to each position is term-limited to two years. Service on the board in any position is limited to four consecutive years. Members NOT eligible to serve are:

Joanne Klotz, Associate member
Deena Lundine, Associate member
Lois Marr, Associate member
Nancy Paris, Associate member
Pat Pillot, Associate member

Chuck Blanchard, Recording Secretary (has already served two years in this position but may run for any other office)

Please return your completed nominations form to me via snail mail at 3248 Essex, Troy, MI 48084 or email at karla_sutton@yahoo.com, or in person at the April meeting.

Quilt Show Boutique Update -

Theresa Nielsen, Chair

CAMEO members, just a reminder, if you are going to have items for the boutique on consignment the committee needs to have your list no later than the April guild meeting. We're hard at work putting the inventory list together.

This takes time, so please let me know, so you don't miss out. The boutique will be very successful and we owe a lot to those who have given of their time to make and donate so many beautiful things for sale. And a big Thank You to the boutique committee for all your hard work and dedication, what a huge job it is. Thanks so much.

Hospitality - Betty Carpenter

I was happy to hear that you all had a great time at March's Gadgets & Gizmos meeting. Thank you to those who brought treats, I heard they were absolutely delicious. Look for the sign up sheet for our June banquet on the membership table as you come in. When you sign up early, it gives us a good idea of who's coming and what you will be bringing. As usual, those celebrating your birthday in April will be bringing something to share and look for your name if your birthday is in a month we don't meet.

CAMEO Charity Committee News

Linda Wallace - Charity Chairperson

The month of April is dedicated to the Layette Program for the Methodist Church. Any baby items (diapers, wipes, sleepers, pacifiers, blankets, quilts, etc.) are welcome. If you do not like to sew a charity quilt, this is your opportunity to donate to charity. Please remember that all members must do something for charity. We do have to file a report to the IRS in order to maintain our non-profit status. Plus remember that Barbara Lusk is offering free quilting for one person who has donated to Charity.

I am requesting that ALL Quilts of Valor be turned in by the May meeting. By ALL, I mean unfinished quilt tops, quilt kits, quilted quilts, and the completed quilts. I can donate them and have the guild receive credit. So please return what you have. So far I have exactly one completed quilt. So there are several kits out there that are not completed. Seeing as the quilts are specific for Quilts of Valor, we can not have them come back in the fall. In the fall, the committee will be reviewing who they want to suggest for guild approval and it may or may not be what we are doing now.

If you have any suggestion for Charities to be consider in the fall, please submit them in writing. Include the name of organization, your name, name of contact person, and their phone number. If you tell me verbally, I promise not to remember. MUST BE IN WRITING!!!

CAMEO Quilt Retreat News - Carole Gilbert

On Friday, March 22, thirty-one CAMEO members met at Lion's Bear Lake Camp for the annual weekend retreat, Under the Big Top. There were lots of giggles and laughter throughout the weekend and Show and Tell proved that campers got a lot done.

The Mystery Quilt was fun, challenging, and very doable. At least eight members completed the quilt top named 'Under the Big Top'. All were very different and very creative. There should be lots of Mystery Quilts for the next CAMEO Quilt Show thanks to Pat who perfected the design.

The Committee provided 3 Make and Takes for members—a pouch purse, a card holder for Quilt Shop cards and an insulated water-bottle holder. Thanks to Jackie, Linda, and Pat for the patterns and samples.

As usual, there was plenty of good food and fellowship, and the opportunity to get better acquainted with some newer members as well as to share techniques and ideas. We're looking forward to returning to our usual schedule for next year's retreat, so put May 2-4, 2014 on your calendar now!

Quilting Unlimited - 2013

The Greater Ann Arbor Quilt Guild invites quilters to join them for a weekend of quilting learning, friendships and fun at Washtenaw Community College on August 2, 3 and 4, 2013. Quilting Unlimited offers a wide selection of classes for quilters to sharpen their skills or maybe venture off in a different direction and try something new.

For a list of classes, teachers, fees and registration information check out <http://www.gaaqg.com>.

Registration for non-GAAQG members begins on April 20.

Ed. Note: Thanks to Marie Ware for sharing this information.

Quilt Gardens Along the Heritage Trail

The April/May issue of Quilters Newsletter magazine has a great article about the Heritage Trail, a 90-mile loop that runs through northern Indiana. The communities of Bristol, Elkhart, Goshen, Middlebury, Nappanee and Wakarusa banded together to create gardens based on quilt blocks and quilt art murals for their buildings. These quilt gardens and art murals have attracted tourists from all over the country to this section of Indiana, giving a much needed boost to the region's economy.

The Heritage Trail has been named one of the Top 100 Events in North America for five years in a row.

Check out <http://www.amishcountry.org/things-to-do/quilt-gardens> for more information and a schedule of this year's events.

6. Registration and Receiving Notes (pls contact Linda Watkins w/questions)

The quilt show is almost here, so here is what you need to know when dropping off and picking up your quilts. Don't forget you will need to have two pictures of each piece you have entered. Each entry needs a label with your name and the name of the quilt sewn on the back of quilt. Tote bag or sweatshirt entries should have a paper label pinned inside. Experienced quilt show entrants suggest if you have more than one entry, use a laundry basket or rolling suitcase to bring in your quilts. There will be a storage area if you want to leave these at the show. Make sure these are labeled with your name. If you need assistance bringing in your quilts please let us know. We will be happy to help you. When you pick up your quilts, remember to bring the pick-up form with the picture attached. If someone other than yourself is picking up your quilt please let the committee know when you drop off the quilt.

Drop Off

1. We will begin accepting quilts Thursday May 9th at 9:00 A.M. Please use the door on the east side of the Madison Place Conference Center when entering. There will be signs outside the building.
2. When you enter sign in and pick up a number. While waiting you are invited to help with set up, or wait in chairs provided.
3. When your number is called, you will receive your paperwork and take that and your quilt(s) to an empty table. At this point a committee member will fill in paper work, attach your pictures to the forms, and do a quick measurement and inspection of your quilt.
4. Hanging personnel will take the quilts as they are checked in.
5. You will leave the Receiving area with your pick up form with a picture attached.
5. If you have time, please stay and help with show set up.

Pick-Up

1. Quilt pick up will begin after 4:00 P.M. on Saturday May 11th. You will need your quilt pick up form(s) with the photo attached.
2. If you left a laundry basket or suitcase in the storage area, pick it up.
3. Find your quilt(s) on the alphabetically labeled tables.
4. Bring your quilt to the check out tables for a committee member to check out.
7. Special Guild Displays - if you have other items to drop off on May 9 (quilt racks, etc) there will be a designated area/check in point for those items as well.

Miniature/Small Quilt Silent Auction -

Rosemary Spatafora

What a busy guild year for CAMEO members! With preparing our quilt show quilts; charity projects; items for the quilt show boutique; miniature/small quilts for the Silent Auction; red, white and blue blocks for the CAMEO Challenge - I can hear your sewing machines from my house!

As of this writing, the Silent Auction committee is pleased to announce that we have received 48 miniature/small quilts! Thank you so much to everyone who has contributed a quilt. They are truly amazing. Having made two miniature quilts for the auction myself I can certainly appreciate the work that goes into these small wonders. They don't take much fabric but they do take a lot of time, patience and precision. (And in my case a lot of not-too-lady-like words.)

We are excited for everyone to see all of these beautiful quilts at the quilt show. Tell your family, friends, co-workers, etc. to come and bid on these little gems. This will also generate interest and excitement for our entire quilt show.

Remember there will be an option on the bid form for people to "Buy It Now" where a quilt may be purchased immediately for 120% of the stated value.

We will accept cash and checks only for Silent Auction purchases - no credit cards.

CAMEO Quilt Show 2013

Checking in "Non-Quilt Items" for Special Displays

On Thursday, May 9, guild members will be dropping off quilts to be registered and hung for the show, "Quilts in Bloom II", to be held on May 10 and 11, at the Madison Place Conference Center. The Center is located at 876 Horace Brown Drive, which is south off 13 Mile Road, just east of I-75.

Many of you have also offered to bring other items for special displays. Thank you! We appreciate your assistance and willingness to bring your 'treasures' to the show. Please confirm the time you will arrive to bring your item(s). If you are not sure whether to bring an item, please contact Joline Bowdich at dbowdich@aol.com or 248-545-4702 or contact Nancy Paris at nabob333@wideopenwest.com or 248-588-1822 before Thursday, May 9.

PLEASE BE SURE TO PUT YOUR NAME on each item you plan to share. You could use a permanent marker on the bottom of a furniture item, or pin a label inside a soft item.

On Thursday, please drop off your non-quilt items at the special displays area. When you check your item in, it will be recorded on a list, and you will be given a receipt ticket to confirm that you have left an item. DO NOT SIMPLY DROP YOUR ITEMS IN THE SPECIAL DISPLAYS AREA. Be sure someone checks each of them in.

After the show, you may pick up your items after you pick up your quilts (after approximately 4:30). YOU WILL NOT BE PERMITTED TO TAKE YOUR ITEMS from the displays WITHOUT CHECKING THEM OUT. You will need your receipt tickets to pick up your items, so be sure to keep them with your quilt registration papers.

Barb Veselenak - Door Prize Chairperson

CAMEO Quilters - get out your Joann's coupons! The Quilt Show Door Prize committee is looking for donations of NEW items for door prizes. Our donations are way down from the last show and we don't know how else to get additional door prizes unless we ask members (or their friends and families) for door prizes. A young robin will eat as much as 14 feet of earthworms a day. Some ideas for donations: fat quarters of fabric; a book; notions; anything that you might like to get for a door prize. Please get in touch with Barb Veselenak to make the donation.
