Come And Meet Each Other

and have fun as we learn about wholecloth quilting!!!

President's Corner...

I do love autumn. My husband and I call it the beginning of the soup season. Nothing better than to have that pot of soup simmering while I quilt and he watches football. It's also the lull before the holiday season comes into full swing. Well, this year we are prepared to make some clever gifts with the tips we learned at the October whistle stop. Thank you to those who made the October meeting such a great success.

We have a super treat with Judy Woodworth coming for our November meeting. I am really excited about having this chance to take her workshop. I love to keep learning and this will be no exception.

Committees are busy organizing their duties as we have a full calendar this year. I know each and every one of you will enjoy getting to know the members of the committees you are on whether they are new or long time members.

Today I will stitch my bags to fill for the Haven, one of our charities. Our charity committee needs these at the November meeting so they can be delivered in time for the holidays. I'm even going to plan my center block for the Round Robin and work on an idea or two for the challenge, so I will have a very busy day! After all, the soup is simmering on the stove.

Keep those sewing machines humming!

Judy Woodworth to Visit CAMEO

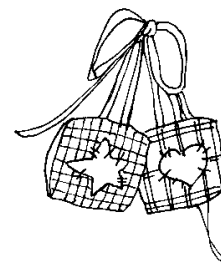

by Jane Aula, VP Facilitator, 2011-2012

We will be welcoming award winning wholecloth quilter, Judy Woodworth. She will be presenting a lecture and trunk show at our general meeting on Thursday, November 17. Her work is absolutely beautiful and she makes wholecloth design easy to understand for all quilters at all levels. I have in my possession a couple of her works of art. She sent them to me so that I can show the membership her work up close and personal. I will have these on display at the general meetings leading up to her visit in November. On Friday, November 18 and Saturday, November 19, she will be holding the same workshop titled "Design Your Own Wholecloth Quilt." She will show you how to use stencils to plan and mark a wholecloth quilt. I have taken this class myself and she is a great teacher and answers any and all questions anyone has. She will be happy to work with you if you are having a difficult time planning out your design and is a great person to bounce ideas off. This class does not require any sewing so no need to drag your sewing machine to class. Details regarding the workshop with Judy can be found elsewhere in this newsletter.

CAMEO Whistlestop Night -

Jane Aula, VP Facilitator

I just wanted to send a HUGE thank you out to Barb Lusk, Sally Carl, Ruth McCormick and Penny Frade for their great presentations at last month's meeting. I heard a lot of good things about the evening which makes me a happy camper. :) It sounds like everyone had a great time. I hope that you are able to use at least one of these projects/techniques on holiday gifts or other projects you plan to do in the future. Thank You Ladies for Helping Me Out!!! I really appreciate it.

Round Robbin Starting in November - Loreen

Garrison

No need to sign up ahead of time. If you wish to participate bring your block in a paper bag, to the November meeting. Print your name on the bag. No peeking at the bags. Each person will add a round or element. Bags will be returned to the owners at the May meeting.

Programs for CAMEO Guild Year 2011-2012

By: Jane M. Aula, VP Facilitator

This is just a reminder to check out CAMEO's website at www.cameoquilters.org for all the information regarding the upcoming lectures/trunks shows and exciting workshops we have set for this year. We have three award winning quilters visiting us this year and I hope you all will consider taking advantage of learning from each of them. Please take a minute to review the schedule which is included in this newsletter. If you are interested in attending any or all of the workshops scheduled, please contact me immediately so that I can reserve your spot and we can make arrangements for you to secure a spot in the workshop(s) by paying the fee. You can contact me at mickeyrules@sbcglobal.net or phone number (248) 990-4299. I will be sure to get back with you as soon as I can. Be sure to put CAMEO in the subject line and also to include in your message which quilter's workshop you want to attend and on which day if they are scheduled for both Friday and Saturday. I am looking forward to this year's programs and hope you are as well. Thank You.

New Quilt Shop - Carol Fetsco

There is a new quilt shop in town!

It is called A Fabric Affair and it is located in a shopping plaza on the southeast corner of John R. and Long Lake (18 Mile) Road.

When you visit there introduce yourself and mention CAMEO Quilters Guild so that they get to know us.

Challenge 2011 - Peggy Grunow

This year we are doing quilts of 6 inch (finished) nine patch blocks. The center square of the nine patch must be the challenge fabric. You can do anything that you would like to it. You can sash it, cut it apart and sew it back together with a different orientation. Set it on point or alternate it with a different block. The fat quarter of challenge fabric will be three dollars and will be ready at the November meeting. If you would like to participate and have not signed up yet please call me or email me soon so I can have the fabric ready for you at the November meeting.

CAMEO Charity Committee News

Chairperson: Linda Wallace 248-398-9234

Hard to believe that this is November and the holidays are rapidly approaching. Those who took HAVEN bags, please remember they are to be returned at the next meeting. If you did not take a bag but would like to fill one anyway, we do have a couple of bags that are made and ready to be filled. If you remember to return the plastic baggies they were in that would be appreciated too. Thank you to those who have already turned theirs in.

As you get ready for holiday sales, be on the look out for baby items that the Church can use for their layette program.

Please remember all CAMEO members are expected to do something for charity. You do not have to make a complete quilt. Doing something as simple as putting on the binding qualifies as a donation. All that I ask is that your work is documented. So if you make a quilt top be sure that you bring it to the charity table and sign it in. If you give the top to one of our longarm quilters, she will get the credit and not you. By you signing it in first, you will both receive credit. The reason I keep track of ALL forms of donations is for the IRS. Your gifts to the HAVEN House and the Layette program at the church also count toward your commitment to the guild. I truly appreciate all your help and cooperation.

LEAFING THROUGH THE LIBRARY

with Sandy "Marian the Librarian" Peiss, Librarian

Dear CAMEO Members,
As you can see in our wonderful member handbook, I have just vastly increased the size of quilting books available to you.

THESE BOOKS ARE CALLING YOUR NAME. CAN YOU HEAR THEM? Call me to let me know which books you would like to borrow. I hope that CAMEO lasts longer than I do (and I do plan on living a long life); but these volumms will be guild property someday. So I thought why make you wait. Here they are now.

They can show up at a meeting or you can come here to view both collections in their splendid entirety. Just call me and we can have a good time. Don't let them get too lonely!

November CLASSES at Ruth's Studio

Rent Me! Long Arm Quilting Class – Learn to use a genuine Gammill Long Arm quilting machine so that you can rent time to quilt YOUR quilts! Ruth will teach you how to load your quilt backing, batting and tops onto machine #2. Charity quilt tops will be used to learn the basics. 4 hours training - $75.00 – minimum two students

Call Ruth McCormick at 248.375.1882 to schedule training time

CALLING ALL CAMEO MEMBERS

DETROIT NEWS CRAFT BLOG BY JOCELYN BROWN

By: Jane Aula, VP Facilitator, 2011-2012

I spoke with Jocelyn Brown who runs a Crafts Blog on the Detroit News website. I sent her information to be posted on the blog with regard to our meeting and workshops next month. She wants to feature one or more of CAMEO Members on her blog demonstrating a small quilting project. She is thinking along the lines of a small wallhanging, placemats, tote bag, etc. If anyone would like to have your project featured on her blog, please contact her at jbrown@detnews.com. She will need instructions along with pictures of your work. Be sure to tell her that I directed you to her and you are with the CAMEO Quilters Guild. If you are interested, please get in touch with her soon. It would be fun to have a one or more CAMEO Members featured on her blog, not to mention some well needed publicity for the Guild. I believe it will be a great way to attract new members as well as getting the CAMEO name out among many different type of crafters. If you have any questions, you can reach me at vp-facilitator@cameoquilters.org or (248) 990-4299. I look forward to seeing some familiar faces on her website/blog in the near future. Thank You!!!!

Dear CAMEO's,

Are you thinking of the Jan workshop with Edyta? Are you concerned about the many triangles? In the current issue of Fons & Porter's Love of Quilting magazine there is an ad for her Laundry Basket Triangle Papers. #LB Q0222 for $10.00. It might make it easier and more accurate. Take a look at page 122 in the Nov/Dec issue. It got me thinking.

Wholecloth Quilting Class November 18 & 19 - Judy Woodworth

(6 hour class, hands on design class)

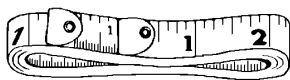

Learn how to use Stencils in an original layout. This award winning quilter will bring over 200 stencils and teach you how to design your own original whole cloth quilt. You'll be learning about the fundamentals of design and what backfills will go best in each contained quilting area. The information you will learn about how to design an original quilt will be worth your money. In this class we will only design the quilt so you will not need a sewing machine. You'll also learn about blocking, and getting your quilt ready to show, and some binding tips. Judy's quilts have won many National quilt awards and she can take you to the next level.

Supplies Needed: White or off white piece of fabric measuring at least 65" by 65"; Five blue water-soluble markers (Mark-B-Gone is best); 2 Blue Pens; 1 Clover Eraser.

Additional Items Needed: One 12" by 6" Ruler; 6" by 24" Ruler; Large 16" or 18 Ruler (Optional). If you do not have the any or all of the rulers listed, I'm sure other class attendees would be happy to share. Be sure your name is on your rulers so they are returned to the proper owner.

*If you would prefer Judy to bring a materials kit for you to class, please email her at jwquilts@yahoo.com. Fee for kit provided by Judy is an additional $25.00 paid to her directly. (Rulers Not Included in Kit)

Feel free to take a look at Judy's website to see her award winning work as well as class description. Her website is www.judywoodworth.com. I hope you all consider taking a class with Judy as she provides very valuable information and technique information regarding this type of quilting which started hundreds of years ago. You will find a registration form in this month's newsletter. Please fill it out as indicated and forward to me at the address provided along with payment to secure your spot in either the Friday class or Saturday class. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me by phone or email. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Meet Your 2011 - 2012 CAMEO Sisters Susan Van Eck

My name is Susan Van Eck. I am the assistant treasurer of the guild. I have been a member of the guild for 2-1/2 years. I made my first quilt in 2002 as a Christmas gift to my sister. It was a folded fabric block I saw on Alex Anderson's Simply Quilts show. I have many interests: I am the recording secretary to the Oakland County Genealogical Society and am in charge of a project that is reading headstones at the Oakview Cemetery. I am also a member of the Bluewater Railroad Club that meets in Royal Oak. I also love to read mystery books and have a large collection. I'm enjoying my friendship with the membership of CAMEO and hope to continue learning about quilting.

Monthly Meetings — Game Night

By: Jane Aula, VP Facilitator

I am very excited about the night of Trivial Pursuit-Quilting Style I have planned for you. I am putting together a version of Trivial Pursuit with all questions relating to quilting, crafting, hobbies and of course, most importantly, your fellow CAMEO member(s). Now this is where you come in....I am looking for some information. If you have information on a CAMEO member with regard to his/her quilting world and think it would be a great trivia question, please send it to me. There is no guarantee that your question will be used but the more variety I have, the more fun we can have. So email me your information with regard to anyone in CAMEO that might or might not stump the membership.

Also if you have a subject matter, favorite technique, quilter, etc. in which you think would add to the variety of the questions, I would love to hear from you as well. As I put this all together, I will provide further information on how this will all play out and what else I may need from you all. I look forward to hearing from you and learning alot of about CAMEO members.

I currently have 2 members who have volunteered to captain a team. I need 3 more people to help me out. You will be in charge of a team of 10-12 people on the Trivia Night. No pre-work is necessary. I will send you some information between now and then but it isn't work you will actually need to do....just information you will need to have with you on game night to help your team win, that I am also recommending you read over to be familiar with the rules and format of the game. I look forward to hearing from all of you and learning alot about CAMEO Members. Thank You.

WORKSHOP HOSPITALITY

Jane Aula, VP-Facilitator 2011-2012

I would like to thank those who have offered to help out with hospitality and/or the teacher during workshops. I really appreciate it. However, the way that is handled is that once an attendance list is established, the person in charge of the workshops will email 2-3 individuals on the list(s) and ask for their help. The things that you might be asked to do would be picking up things for breakfast like bagels, donuts, muffins, etc. Also may have another person pick up some juice(s) or some other type of beverage for the day as well. If you are attending a workshop and are asked to bring something, be sure to save your receipt and submit it to Janeen Sharpe, Treasurer, for reimbursement. Unfortunately, we cannot allow anyone who has NOT paid for the workshop to be present as it would not be fair to those who have paid to attend the workshop. The only way someone would be allow to attend without paying the fee would ONLY be if the teacher requests a helper for the day. I want to thank those of you who have offered and if you want to attend any of the upcoming workshops, that would be great. You can contact me at vp-facilitator@cameoquilters.org so I can add you to the class list and collect the required fee. Thank you.

Monthly Meetings — SHOW AND TELL

By: Jane Aula, VP Facilitator

Just a reminder that we would like to try to display some of your quilts/projects during the general meetings when we do not have a Lecture/Trunk Show scheduled. We think this would be a great way for fellow CAMEO members and Guests Speakers/Quilters to spend some time admiring your hard work. Then when it comes time for Show and Tell, you can share the story behind your project. So what we are proposing is to have some members who are planning to share their quilt(s) at the meeting, to come to the meeting about 15-20 minutes before the start to have their project(s) put on display. We know that some people like to surprise the members, and that is great because who doesn't like surprises but we also know that several of your fellow members would like to be able to take more time to admire what you have brought to share and may also have questions for you on the technique you used for a particular project. As fellow quilters, we all know how much time, money and effort goes into each project. So if you are interested in putting your show and tell project(s) on display at our December meeting, please contact me email me at mickeyrules@sbcglobal.net so that I can put you on the list for early display of show and tell. So let's see if we can have our own mini-art show by CAMEO members in December. I look forward to seeing you all in November.

Hospitality for November Meeting

Lucy Lesperance

What a wonderful assortment of refreshments at our October meeting. I thank everyone who contributed sooooo much. Everyday is about 55 billionths of a second longer than the day before it. Let's try that again for November. Please feel free to bring snacks, sweet and savory, or beverages to the November meeting.
