February 2020 Newsletter of CAMEO Quilters Guild

Vol. 26 No. 7

Whistle Stop Thursday, Feb. 20, 7pm

We got lucky and had good weather for the January meeting. Cross your fingers for the February program which will include a demo on "How to use a Flying Geese ruler", "How to print quilt labels from your computer", and a refresher on "Quilt Sleeves" for the quilt show.

Bring your scissors to the Whistle Stop at the CAMEO meeting. Steve Fleming, aka Steve's Shears, will drive down from Flint to sharpen any scissors at $5-7 per pair on site. He even sharpens thread cutters and knives.

If you have another suggestion or something YOU would like to demo, please contact Jan Recinos.

Charity Day Sewing Saturday, Feb. 22, 9am-3pm

Bring your own lunch & sewing equipment

CAMEO will supply the projects or bring one you have started

A Message from the President

Sharon Cratsenburg

Now that it is February, are we getting closer to Spring? Spring usually puts you into the mood to clean things out. If you have found any UFOs, why not finish them and display them in our upcoming quilt show in May? Did you make a red and white quilt for your special Valentine? Bring it in for Show and Tell. We would love to see it.

You can find the form to submit a quilt for our quilt show on the CAMEO website under the forms tab. Why not show two or three quilts you've made or even six or eight or more? We hope to have 200 quilts to display this year. Do you like to make mini quilts? Donate one for the Silent Auction or go in with a friend and make a themed basket for the Basket Raffle. I know you ladies have lots of great ideas for baskets!

If you sold your book of raffle tickets please see Linda Watkins and get another pack or two. Participation in these projects will make our show not just good but great. The success of the CAMEO quilt show will continue to support our guild to bring in speakers for lectures and workshops and for the charities we support. We NEED everyone's help.

A special "Quilt Show" Table will be at every meeting, so stop there to get forms, raffle tickets, flyers and information.

Come join us for Charity Day on Saturday. There will be projects for you to sew or if you've started a charity quilt, you may bring that. All sewing on Saturday is for Charity.

Keep warm and happy sewing.

Quilt Show Door Prize Thank You!

I would like to thank several members for contributing to our 2020 Quilt Show Door Prize stash: Jan Recinos and Rosemary Spatafora have contributed nice items nearly every month, Pat Baldauf made eight pincushions with Michigan novelty fabric, Laurie Johnson gave me 20 fat quarters, and recently a group of friends got together and made 37 pincushions!

37 pincushions

An easy way to make pincushions is to use some of your "orphan" blocks, or grab some novelty fabric out of your stash. Another item you could make is a mug rug or coaster, which is even easier than a pincushion.

Keep an eye out for deals online; last month Missouri Star had a daily deal for 2 cents which was a plastic case you could use for your rotary cutter and a fat quarter! So, of course I purchased this deal to add to our door prize stash - so fun when it's inexpensive!

Please bring any items you would like to contribute to our next meeting - look for the Quilt Show Table.

Thank you!

CAMEO CHALLENGE

What's in a Number Anyhow?

Birthdays, anniversaries, milestones, we celebrate all these things. And this year, CAMEO is celebrating a special one. We have passed 25 years of making friends, quilts and memories. This is a biggie!!!

So (sew) to celebrate, we are creating a challenge to our members. Besides being a prime number, what does 25 mean to you? Put that connection into a quilted item.

More details and clues to be revealed at our December meeting, but it could be something as simple as a multiple of items totaling 25. Twenty-five blocks, twenty-five buttons, twenty-five stripes, twenty-five colors, etc. Theresa Nielsen and Cindy May will help you with more interpretations at our next meeting. See you then, but start thinking 25!

Coordinated by Theresa Neilsen and Cindy May

Hospitality

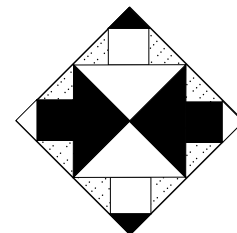

IMPORTANT NOTE:

Treats for the February General Meeting will be provided by these members with FEBRUARY birthdays:

- Darlene B.
- Jolene B.
- Pat B.
- Shirley G.

Any member with a JUNE birthday may also bring in a Hospitality item for this meeting. Of course, no one is required to contribute.

Charity

Linda Wallace

The Charity Committee is getting ready for Charity Day. Charity Day is on Saturday, Feb. 22. We will be sewing bibs and burb cloths for the Layette Program and pillowcases for Cases for Ryan (formally ConK-err). I am working on quilting quilts so those will need to have binding. Also, I hope to have new quilt top kits ready.

The question at the last meeting was 'What to bring?' Your sewing machine and everything that goes with it. Plus your lunch.

I am going to demo "Leaders and Enders" and a variety of ways of putting them together. So cut some of your scraps into 2-1/2" squares and bring them with you. If you just want to donate them, I will be happy to use them.

Please remember our Charity Begins at Home challenge.

The Rules are:

- Any size quilt being at least 36"x36" (Baby quilt)
- Two Knitted or Crochet baby Quilts
- 10 Pillowcases
- ALL MATERIAL MUST BE YOURS. QUILTING MUST BE DONE BY YOU, A FRIEND OR BY CHECK!!! YOU CAN NOT ASK OUR QUILTERS TO QUILT IT FOR YOU FOR FREE.

Programs & Workshops

Jan Recinos
VP, Facilitator

The quilts made by Nancy Kloster were a pleasure to behold during our January meeting. She has a beautiful esthetic and the Judy Niemeyer Quiltworx patterns are intricate designs which look amazing when finished! The patterns are multi-faceted and at different skill levels for those interested in paper-piecing. Nancy is presenting at multiple workshops in the area, so if you didn't get her list for the next ones, the Quiltworx website will show where you can find her to take a class or just get a pattern.

Ed. note: Ann Arbor Sewing Center is offering a couple of classes taught by Nancy Kloster or you can check Decorative Stitch in Shelby Township.

BACK IN PRINT: THE QUILTER'S COMPLETE GUIDE!

The Quilter's Complete Guide by Marianne Fons and Liz Porter is the definitive how-to manual by two of America's most trusted quilters and, (their words) the publication that really "put them on the map." The perfect book for both beginners and those wishing to brush up on their skills, this trusted guide takes readers from the basics of choosing and cutting fabric to placing the finishing touches on their hand-made quilts. Hundreds of full-color photos, charts, and diagrams accompany lessons on quilting styles—hand, machine, trapunto, and appliqué—and instructions for assembly, plus a wealth of patterns and sewing tips.

The Quilters Complete Guide is available through many sources, and maybe even in your local quilt shop, but the ONLY way you can get an AUTOGRAPHED copy is by ordering it from the Iowa Quilt Museum! If you visit us in person, you can pick it up for $25 or order it through our online store and we'll ship it to you for just a little more.

HAM ROLL-UPS

submitted by Carole Gilbert

- 1 can cream of celery soup
- 1 c. sour cream
- 1 or 2 T. Dijon mustard
- 1 c. UNCOOKED Minute Rice
- 1 10 pkg frozen broccoli or spinach, thawed and drained
- 1 c. small curd cottage cheese
- 2 eggs
- ½ c. finely chopped onion (I use dehydrated or onion powder)
- ¼ c. flour
- 18-20 slices sliced deli ham (not too thick or thin)
- ¾ c. Pepperidge Farm stuffing or bread crumbs
- ¼ c. melted butter

Mix soup/sour cream/mustard.
Reserve half for later. Add rice, veggie, cottage cheese, onion, flour to half the soup mixture. Mix well.

Place about 2 T of mixture on ham
slice and roll into a log. Place seam down in greased baking dish. Repeat until all meat has been used.
Pour remaining sauce over the rolls.
Combine stuffing mix (or bread crumbs) with melted butter and sprinkle over the top. Cover.

Bake 350 for 45 minutes. Remove cover last 10 minutes.

This freezes well before baking.
Can also use sliced turkey.

Watch Out for Slip of the Keyboard!

To encourage members to read the entire newsletter, the Editor buries a silly statement somewhere in each newsletter. Members who find the Slip of the Keyboard will write it on a slip of paper at each monthly meeting and be entered into a drawing for a prize! So, if you come across something that doesn't make sense or just doesn't fit - you've found it!
Good luck and happy hunting!

CAMEO Board Meeting Minutes

January 23, 2020

Meeting was held at Clawson United Methodist Church, with Linda Griffin hosting. President Sharon Cratsenburg called the meeting to order at 7:15 pm. Present were: Darlene Baer, Pat Baldauf, Ann Bonnelli, Jackie Considine, Kathy Debien, Linda Griffin, Laurie Johnson, Judy Murray, Jan Recinos and Jean Schlegelmann.

President Sharon Cratsenburg November Board Meeting Minutes were approved.

Quilt Show Sharon Cratsenburg

Ken McCormick, for previous Quilt Shows, has made a video of the show and all the quilts on display. He is willing to do this for this twenty-fifth anniversary Quilt Show. Each video would cost $24. Is there enough people interested in purchasing this video?

Sharon sent out 36 letters to prospective vendors, we have 17 vendor spots available. A deposit is needed to secure your place.

Next priority, after paying the deposit and signing the contract for Madison Place, is to sell ads for the program book.

Miracle Quilts are going to be featured throughout the show in addition, Linda Wallace would like to have a special presentation on Saturday.

VP Facilitator Jan Recinos. Our last speaker, Nancy Kloster was very well received. She is teaching classes locally for the next few months, Jan has her schedule. Plans for February's Whistle Stop are proceeding. Jan discussed whether we could have vendors/quilt shops for the Whistle Stop demonstrations. We can and have had them at previous Whistle Stops, there is no costs involved; we do not pay them to do a demo and they do not pay Cameo for the table. They sell their items if they wish. Some suggestions for this coming program was scissor sharpening, quilt sleeves, special rulers such as the Flying Geese Ruler.

VP Programs Jean Schlegelmann. Penny Sempert is scheduled for October, Deb Hyde for lecture in November and workshop the following March. Ideas Jean is working on a member trunk show in January, Whistle Stop February, a Research Team in March and a Laura Heine style lecture/workshop for April; problem there, is that the person she was hoping to get is not doing programs outside her immediate area anymore. Please send ideas and suggestions to Jean.

Treasurer Jackie Considine presented the Treasurers Report.

VP Membership Laurie Johnson. We need new members! Would a survey from current members finding out what they want from the Guild help recruit new members? Maybe we need to shadow new members more closely to be sure they feel included and that the Guild is meeting their expectations. Should we introduce new guests and ask where they heard of us? Should the Membership dues be increased? Guest fees have been reduced to $5. It would be good to have "Quilting With Confidence" for 2021 organized so we could advertise it at the Quilt Show.

Member-at-Large Darlene Baer. Selling of Raffle tickets at shows and quilt guilds is progressing but slowly. There are lots of tickets to sell. We need more venues and more volunteers.

Meeting adjourned 8:30pm.

January Board Meeting February 27, at 7pm at First Congregational Church of Royal Oak. 1314 Northwood Blvd. (Corner of Webster and Crooks Rd). Judy Murray hosting.

Respectfully submitted Ann Bonnelli
