A Message from the President

After all the fretting and worrying and sleepless nights many of us endured, our Hanging by a Thread Quilt Show is in the books and was a HUGE success! Thanks to those of you who worked setting up, hanging quilts, manning (womaning?) the various tables, and doing the myriad of other tasks it takes to put on a show. Thanks, too, to our Vendors who set up booths and supported our show. I think people were ready for such an outing and to get together to discuss quilts. Everyone was so excited to be able to attend a quilt show and they all let us taking admission fees know it!

Our May meeting will be in person followed by a workshop on Saturday in our usual spot at the Methodist Church There is still time for you to sign up for the workshop. (Contact Carmen) The Rock Around the Block quilt is really cute-and one I have wanted to do for a while. Come and join me!

Our Guild year is rapidly coming to an end. We will hold our usual annual potluck in June at the church. I hope you will join us tasting fabulous food that our CAMEO members are famous for providing.

Until then, Sew many quilts!

Carole

“Hanging by A Thread”

Ladies we did it. Congratulations CAMEO members for all the help in putting our show together. Without all hands on deck we would not have had a show. The American Polish Cultural Center was accommodating our needs and had delicious food.

Please continue to support the following vendors who participated in our show:

- Rose Villa Retreat– Rosemary Ridsdale
- Fabric Affair– Michelle Strasburg
- MI Soap & Body/Fluffy Butts Treats– Chuck Blanchard
- Time Remembered Quilting– Barbara Fiantaco
- The Wood Guy– Steve Fortriede
- Quilt Things– Wanda Nash
- Twist & Twine Baskets– Pat Aldred
- Your Sewing Friend– Teresa Weaver
- Keep Sewing– Brian Leinberger

Thank you to all the husbands, sons, family, and the National Honor Society Students from Romeo High School with set up and tear down of the show.

Raffle Quilt winners were:

E. Karales :Blooming Baskets

Janis H: Granny’s Garden Quilt

Basket Raffle included 25 various themed baskets. The baskets were well done and many happy winners received them.

Silent Auction: There were 31 items in the silent auction including a new sewing machine. Everyone did a lovely job making the items that were sold.

Charity : Display: Many positive comments were heard about our charity display and how wonderful it is that our members contribute to them. Your talents are amazing. Visitors loved learning the history of our charities that CAMEO supports.

Hospitality

We hope you had a happy Mother’s Day! The hospitality for May will be provided by those with May and September birthdays and anyone else who has a treat to share.

CAMEO Quilters Guild Board Meeting - April 28, 2022

Submitted by Louise McCormick-Glazier

Present: Carole Gilbert, Jackie Speer, Janeen Sharpe, Loreen Garrison, Sharon Cratsenburg, Carmen Sluter, Marie Weisserman, Louise McCormick-Glazier.

Absent: Rosemary Spatafora, Barb Lusk

Meeting was called to order at 7:10 pm

Loreen G.: Programming: 1) October speaker, Sarah Gallegos (of Decorative Stitch) will come. The date is in conflict with our fall retreat. (Those are the only dates we could schedule the retreat). Options were discussed, as it is felt many or most of the retreat participants prefer to go up to the retreat on Thursday night. She will ask if Sarah can move to Wednesday night and someone needs to check if the church hall is available 3rd Weds in October 2022.

2) Who is putting the up-to-date newsletters on the website, it is not updated?

3) As of now we only have 4 workshop participants for May 21. More are needed to run it.

Janeen S.: Treasurer report: Expenses: Renew Quicken and virus protection due this month

We have a new long armer for helping quilt our charity quilts. Proposed approved to purchase 4 spools quilting thread towards her free quilting services.

Carole G.: Presidents Report: The quilt show went well, everyone deserves a 'pat-on-the-back' for their efforts. Many thanks for a successful quilt show for the men and members setting up, volunteering the days of the show, and for 7 members of NHS Romeo High School for helping take down show and helping vendors clear out.

Sharon C.: Quilt Show

Basket raffle – committee evaluating to find out what sold the most tickets.

Quilts – 108 quilts were registered and judged; some additions were shown, including members who passed in the past two years. Attendance was approx. 500 guests. Profits were $4,928 which was good coming out of the pandemic and as compared to the prior 5 quilts shows.

Part of the money to be set aside for the next quilt show, possibly in a 2-year CD.

A refund will be given to Park Bench quilt shop as they were unable to come vend. The gentleman selling the long arm quilt machines was able to step in.

Upcoming Programs:

Nancy McNally: May 19th and workshop on Sat May 21. (Nancy attended our quilt show on Saturday.)

June 16 is our potluck and elections.

Royal Oak Senior Center is offering an excursion to Grand Rapids AQS Quilt Show Wednesday, August 17th. Cost is $64.00 including admission. Depart at 7 am; return at 6 pm. Call 248-246-3918.

Newsletter deadline – May 6 to Sharon Cratsenburg.

April Board Meeting – May 26 at 7 p.m. place TBA

Wow ladies! You put on quite a show. So many beautiful quilts. This has really made me tired watching all that was done to make this show happen. Congratulations for a job well done. I can't wait for the next show!
