A Message from the President Carole Gilbert

Happy Fall! Up North this past weekend, the leaves were beginning to turn glorious reds and bright yellows. By the time you read this, I think we will be seeing some of that color in our neck of the woods. Time to pull out the garden annuals and plant spring bulbs, too.

AND a good time too begin some special projects for the Holiday season.

Your Bylaws Committee has met and begun the task of totally revamping the CAMEO bylaws as suggested at our September meeting by the membership. Hopefully we will have something to present that will make our Guild a little friendlier and not so conscripted. The Board is also taking a look at our membership form with an eye to again making CAMEO friendlier. This was necessary to make our membership application form more in line with whatever lines up with the new bylaws. We invite you to go over the current bylaws and submit your comments and suggestions to the committee. You can send any ideas to cameocarole@gmail.com.

I know that those of you attending the Fall Retreat at Lion's Bear Lake Camp will have wonderful time sewing and chatting. I will miss being with all of you but just couldn't pass up a trip to the Holy Land...a place I have wanted to visit for a long time. But I will be thinking of you and missing the collegiality that always goes on at camp.

Until next month, Sew Many quilts!

Fabulous Finds is Back!

Rosemary Spatafora

Hey everyone! Are you ready to get rid of extra fabric that's left over from a quilt you've made? Do you have fabric that you just don't like, but someone else might? How about fabric strips, squares or orphan blocks that need to be passed on to someone else?

The Fabulous Finds table is a great place to recycle that fabric! Just bring your contributions to the October meeting and put them out on the Fabulous Finds table. Someone will be sure to snatch them up! Who knows, you just might find something fabulous to add to your stash!

Pease bring QUILT FABRIC ONLY to the Fabulous Finds table and take your leftovers with you at the end of the meeting.

Hospitality

IMPORTANT NOTE:

Those with September & October birthdays will bring treats for this month's meeting. Please clean up the Hospitality Table after the meeting and take leftovers with you.

September's treats were supplied by the Board for our "Welcome Back Tea," so these members with September birthdays can bring treats in October:

L. Wolfe	L. Draudt
C. Sluter	J. Considine
A. Bonnelli	J. Speer
J. Nelson

Watch Out for Slip of the Keyboard!

The Silhouette is a source of important information for our guild members. To encourage members to read the entire newsletter, the Editor gets to bury a silly statement somewhere in each newsletter. Members who find the Slip of the Keyboard will write it on a slip of paper at each monthly meeting and be entered into a drawing for a fabulous quilting prize! So, if you come across something that's not quite right, doesn't make sense or just doesn't fit - you've found it! Good luck and happy hunting!

2022-2023 ROUND ROBIN CHALLENGE

We are asking for your participation in a Round Robin activity to be held between November and April. At our June meeting, quilt tops will be displayed and the attending members will be asked to vote for a favorite.

First prize: Barb Lusk has offered to quilt the winning top at no charge.

See Barb Lusk if you are interested in participating. The first exchange will happen at the November meeting.

How it works

- ▶ Each Round Robin participant chooses a quilt style and prepares a center block, which would be added to by other quilters. Each quilter has about a month to design their addition before passing it to the next person.
- ▶ The final exchange, which returns the quilt top to its initiator, happens in May at a specific date and location (to be determined).

Guidelines but no "rules"!

- ▶ Quilters create a center block that could be pieced, appliqued, or whole cloth, square or rectangular, and 10 -12" on a side. Subsequent quilters added a 3" to 8" border on all 4 sides.
- ▶ A notebook is included in each bag, where the initiator can make requests about future additions. For example: no blue fabric, no curves, smaller than lap size, etc. Traditional quilts tend to get quite large by the last rounds since additions are always made to all four sides. "Improv" quilts tend to finish smaller. After finishing their round, participants can add a short note to the originator about their addition.
- ▶ Some originators add fabrics to the bag with their initial block, but this is not required.. Using fabric from your stash is always acceptable. The Round Robin provides the opportunity to use different fabrics and colors, and to try new techniques.

CAMEO Guild Meeting: Thursday, September 15, 2022

Our first Guild meeting for fiscal year 2023 began with a welcome back tea, with tea sandwiches and pastries; The meeting was called to order at 7:32 pm. We began our business meeting, following time for visiting and socializing, with the Pledge of Allegiance.

President's Report: In order to remind the membership of our mission, President Carole Gilbert read the purpose of our Guild from the Bylaws: "The purpose of CAMEO shall be to promote and preserve the art of quilting, patchwork, appliqué, and related fiber arts; to sponsor workshops, lectures, and displays; to stimulate an interest in quilting and occasions for friends to meet for fellowship; and to engage in charitable efforts deemed advisable by the membership."

Officers: At our August board meeting the board voted to ask Pat Baldauf to fill the position of Vice President – Facilitator, and she has accepted the position.

Storage closet: Carole G., Barb L. and Jackie S. worked on organizing/cleaning our storage area the previous week. The cutting mats will be hung up for improved storage.

The Bylaws/Standing rules committee met to discuss revisions. Bylaws and Standing rules were defined and a proposed change to Section 2: Categories of Membership were presented. Discussion followed. Comments included a call to "not change the documents piece-meal" but to revise the whole document entirely. There did seem to be a consensus that we should simplify our membership structure and eliminate the two categories of membership, with every member participating as fully as they are able.

Recording secretary's report: Louise McCormick-Glazier: The minutes from our June meeting (potluck/election) as published in our Silhouette Newsletter for Aug/Sept 2022, were accepted with no additions or changes and will be placed on file. Additional corrections: Please Note that the positions of VP Facilitator and VP Scheduling are the correct titles. (See Bylaws – June 2018) We do not use the title of VP Programs any longer. I had seen this in the Newsletter and was carrying it forward incorrectly. Jackie Considine noted that her first name had been mis-spelled several times during the past fiscal year. Corrected spelling will be used going forward.

Treasurer's Report: Janeen Sharpe:

Budget is due and will be presented in October.

A note of concern, that membership is dropping and consider that if the guild dissolves, that there are specific rules on how the remaining funds are to be disbursed.

Audit Committee report: the result of the Audit for Fiscal Year 21-22 finds all was in order, except for one charge for an EFT (electronic funds transfer). Audit report dated Aug 9, 2022. Committee was Sharon C., Bonny H and Pat. Baldauf.

V.P. Scheduling: Loreen Garrison: Sarah Gallegos (of Fons & Porter TV program & Decorative Stich co-owner) will be speaking at our Guild meeting on Wednesday, October 19, 2022. November, Pat Rapanos of Park Bench Quilt Shop will come for a trunk show at our Thursday, November 17 meeting and present a workshop on the Sparrow Quilt, Saturday, November 19. Options are purchase pattern (required) for $12.50 or a kit is available, including pattern, fabric and binding.

Membership: Bonny Heinzl: was absent, but a reminder from Carole to get dues paid up.

Charity Committee: Linda Wallace:

Proposed adding Orchard Foster Care, Adoption and Family Preservation to our charities. Discussion. Jackie C. moved we accept, Darlene seconded; membership voted to approve adding Orchards. We also support the following charities: Miracle Quilts, they are happy to take all sizes/types of quilts. We will continue with the Layette program through the Methodist Church, explained we traditionally provide all a new mother would need to take a baby home from the hospital. (In another era, an impoverished family might take home a newborn wrapped in newspaper.) Typically collected in the month of April, but will accept donations all year round. We fill cloth gift bags for the Haven (shelter for domestic violence victims) with personal items such as lotion, shampoo, conditioner, etc.; record value of items for our records.

New Business: Welcome to new member: Anna Mae from Port Austin and guests: Phyllis B from Royal Oak and Betty B. a returning visitor. We need a volunteer to store a Cameo sandwich board sign in their garage.

Unfinished Business: Bylaws discussion; additional members to the Bylaws committee. Committee is: Carole Gilbert, Carol Herzberg, Jackie Considine, Kathy Debien, Sharon Cratsenberg, and Lynda Draudt. The Bylaws will be emailed to our membership and they are asked for their input. Jan R. proposed the possibility of a survey sent to members.

Show and tell @ 8:27 pm

Clean up help needed tonight in the kitchen; please do not leave it all for one person. Members are encouraged to volunteer for cleanup/set up at our forthcoming workshops.

Board meeting will be held Thursday, September 22nd, 2022 at Janeen Sharpe's house @ 7 pm
Meeting was adjourned at 8:40 pm

In-person/virtual hybrid programs for CAMEO. Rosemary reported that the church does not have WIFI in the basement. Pat Baldauf will use her laptop to check if there are any internet hot spots in the church basement.

Guild Activities for 2022/23 - Discussion of possible activities. Barb Lusk will work on a Challenge or a Mystery Quilt to propose to the membership. Rosemary will do Fabulous Finds. Other possible ideas - Fat Quarter or other fabric swaps.

Meeting ended at 8:44 p.m.

Respectfully submitted - Rosemary Spatafora
