NORMA STARK lecture:
"For the Love of Curves"
7pm Thursday, Nov. 21
Workshop: Saturday, Nov. 23
9am-3pm

Norma will share with you her collection of Curve Quilts and some various ways that she has done curve methods. Her very favorite thing to do is "Sew On the Curve". Come and learn about the history of how she came to be a "Sew Kind of Wonderful" certified instructor and why she loves their method of sewing on the curve.

She has lots of curved quilts to show you along with some of her favorite tips and suggestions for piecing curve quilts. Expand your horizons and let Norma get you inspired and excited about what you can do with sewing on the curve.

Workshop registration form and materials list (on the form) can be downloaded from our website. Members: $45; Non-members: $55

A Message from the President

Barb Lusk

This month I'm giving special thanks for CAMEO Quilters,

Thanks to those who rapidly made adjustments to the October meeting and quick thinking to request use of the Clawson City Hall. Our traditional meeting place had water damage due to work on the city street by the church.

Thanks to Terri Bertalan for sharing her quilting for veterans and a very special thanks to Theresa Nielsen's husband, Dane, for his service to our country.

Another thank you to Louise for taking on our Zoom broadcast and to Sharon for leading our meeting as I was ill and unable to attend in person.

Most of all, I'm giving thanks to all our CAMEO Quilters for the generous way you share your love of quilting.

CAMEO Exhibit at Royal Oak Public Library Draws Praise

Rosemary Spatafora

Thanks again to everyone who shared their quilts for our exhibit at the Royal Oak Public Library. The quilts were displayed during the month of October in the library's locked glass display case. This was the perfect place for the quilts as it is secure and is located right inside the library entrance - where the quilts were highly visible.

While I was removing the display on October 31 there were at least three library patrons who stopped to say how beautiful the quilts were and how much they enjoyed the exhibit. The library director, Sandy Irwin, also stopped by to compliment our display. And she invited us back!

All quilts from the exhibit will be brought to our November meeting. Please be sure to pick up your quilt(s) at the meeting.

Quilters aren't greedy - they are materialistic!

Questions - contact Rosemary at rspatafora@comcast.net

Watch Out for Slip of the Keyboard!

To encourage members to read the entire newsletter, the Editor gets to have a little fun and bury a silly statement somewhere in each newsletter. Find the Slip of the Keyboard, write it on a slip of paper at each monthly meeting and be entered into a drawing for a fabulous quilting prize! So, if you come across something that doesn't make sense - you've found it! Good luck!

CAMEO 30 Year Anniversary Challenge

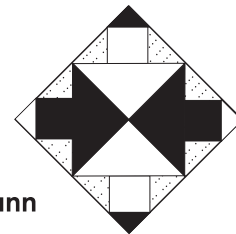

Celebrate with us! CAMEO Quilt Guild is honored to be 30 years strong. Our CAMEO color is green. Share what you love about our quilt guild by making a small quilt, it can be done in any technique you like. Make it your own, applique, pieced, crazy quilted if you dare, whatever you like. The size of the quilt is 30 x 30. There will be prizes, a first, second and third place. Winners will be displayed at our quilt show. I'm looking forward to seeing lots of beautiful quilts as we celebrate 30 years of CAMEO and do our guild proud. Any questions, ask me, Theresa Nielsen. Let your imagination run wild!!

There will be a sign-up sheet on the Membership Table.

Charity

Linda Wallace
Jean Schlegelmann

Many of you took Haven bags to be filled. They need to be returned at this month's meeting. Please be sure to pin a note on the bag indicating if it is for a Women, Infant, Young Girl or Young Boy.

Also, we distributed many of the charity quilts that needed binding. If you have any completed, bring to the next meeting or wait until January. The Charity Table is not open at the December meeting. Some of the Honor Flight quilts actually may need 5 strips of fabric and I only gave you 4. Let me know or if you have something that matches or come close feel free to use.

We are gearing up for Charity Day which is the Saturday after our February meeting (Sat. Feb. 22 at 9am-3pm). We will be doing pillowcases, burp cloths, and will have some small quilt tops.

CAMEO 2024-2025 UFO Challenge

We are having a UFO Challenge this year to help motivate you to finish those quilts you previously started and stopped working on. This is in part to help relieve this "nagging to-do item" and to help you finish quilts for our upcoming Quilt show in April 2025. The Challenge will work like this:

Bring your list of UFOs to me (or email me at:

cheryl.cawley@gmail.com).

For every quilt on your UFO list that you fully complete (quilt-ing, binding and all) AND bring to Show and Tell, you will receive an entry for a prize gift card drawn at our June meeting. If you don't want to go up on stage for Show and Tell, you can give me your quilt to show anonymously.

Let's get things done!

VP, Scheduler for 2025-2026

Greetings CAMEO members,

There is always something to learn when attending a CAMEO meeting, such as how other members put on a binding, or a new technique for doing applique. Maybe it's just a simpler way of making the binding. We learn from each other all the time, I know I do. As Scheduler of Programs for the year 2025-26, I want to know what members want to learn and what speakers you would like to see at a meeting. Share your ideas with me, call or email me.

Meanwhile, I'm going to keep working on those mini quilts for the upcoming quilt show and I would love to add your mini quilts too. I'll also be busy on the next Baltimore Album block, it has been a challenge so far but I can smile when I say I'm halfway done. I do all this without a thimble, just can't get used to one of those little gadgets.

Looking forward to another great year of CAMEO quilting and spending time with members.

Keep on quilting.

CAMEO QUILTERS GUILD MEETING

Clawson City Hall
October 17, 2024 7pm

Membership Chair Sharon Cratsenburg led the meeting for President Barb Lusk, who was ill. The meeting was held at Clawson City Hall because of a water main problem at the church. Meeting was also broadcast on Zoom.

VP Facilitator Cheryl Cawley introduced our speaker, Terri Bertalan, a CAMEO member, who talked about her group “Stitching Sisters Quilts of Valor.”

A Quilt of Valor presentation was made to Dane Nielsen (husband of member Theresa Nielsen) for his service in the Air Force.

Charity: Linda Wallace and Jean Schlegelmann, committee co-chairs, showed 40 quilts made for the Michigan Honor Flight. CAMEO members took 18 quilts to attach binding. Two quilts were presented to Terri’s group.

Hospitality break

The September minutes were accepted and recorded.

Audit: Theresa Nielsen reported on the yearly audit - all was in order.

Programs: VP Facilitator Cheryl Cawley described the UFO Challenge.

November’s speaker will be Norma Stark who will lecture on curved piecing. The workshop will be “Metro Hoops”, an easier way to sew a Wedding Ring quilt. As of this date, seven people were interested in the workshop.

VP Membership Sharon Cratsenburg reported that 29 people were present at this meeting which included two guests and three people viewing by Zoom.

Retreat: Need attendees to take irons, cutting mats and electrical cords to the retreat. Cheryl gave Janeen Sharpe the key to the church closet.

Quilt Show: Sharon also described the Basket Auction and Mini Quilt Auction for the Quilt Show. She expressed a need for help in putting on this event.

Treasurer’s Report: Janeen Sharpe described this year’s budget versus last year’s. Last year, we were $424 in the red with cost cutting. If we follow this year’s budget, we will be $3,109 dollars in the red. The rent is higher this year and we have fewer members paying dues. Motion to approve the budget by Darlene Baer; the motion passed.

CAMEO QUILTERS GUILD OCTOBER BOARD MEETING

November 7, 2024 by Zoom

All Board members were present except Cheryl Cawley who was at another guild meeting recruiting for November's workshop. Chris Schulte joined us later in the meeting.

Meeting was started at 7pm by President Barb Lusk who thanked everyone for organizing and running October's Guild meeting in her absence. Barb asked Corresponding Secretary Louise McCormick Glazer to send a thank you note to the Clawson City Manager.

Treasurer's Report: Janeen stated that the fall retreat had been paid in October. We have approximately $13,000 total.

VP Membership Sharon Cratsenburg reported on renewing the copyright for the guild logo. The logo is currently registered and will cost the guild $1,000 to copyright for another ten years. That cost includes legal fees. The money is due by November 25, 2024. Guild members need to vote because the amount is over $750. Majority of Board members feel the cost is too high. If another organization appropriates our logo and copyrights it, we could just design a newer logo. Janeen Sharpe will research costs if we were to renew without a lawyer's help. Sharon to get break down of costs from the law firm handling this issue.

Membership: 40 members have joined the guild. Membership packet has been emailed to the guild. Sharon will take corrections at November's Guild meeting and do them all at one time, then email a revised roster. There was positive feedback about the Fall Retreat.

Quilt Show: Raffle Quilt is done, Jean Schlegelmann has it to put on a label and a sleeve. The quilting was done by Barb Lusk. Jean will bring the quilt to November's meeting for photos. Linda Wallace and Jean Schlegelmann took measurements of the venue for the quilt show. Sharon will figure out how many vendors will fit. There will be a Quilt Show Committee meeting after Thanksgiving. Laurie Johnson got the cost for a quarter page ad from the Country Register.

Next Board meeting: Tuesday, November 26, 7pm

Meeting adjourned at 8:04 pm.
