Fostering is a critical part of rescue, without foster carers many animals die. Our foster form is invasive, as animal wellbeing is critical to us. All information provided on this form is kept in the strictest confidence and is used only in support of your application and to assist us with determining the best animals to place with you. Foster Carers of Ellie’s Animal Rescue places high value on our foster carers assisting us save animals from death row. We will be there to support you throughout the journey, so you need never feel alone. By signing this foster application, you understand: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li> Many rescue animals come from insecure environments and are likely to be scared or skittish, and it is likely they will take some time to settle.</li> <li> Animals coming into foster care may not be in the best health when they arrive and may need nursing.</li> <li> Foster carers need to be able to commit to transporting to and from a nominated vet for scheduled vet work, including desexing, vaccinations and other visits as may be required from time to time.</li> <li> As a foster carer you are to provide food, treats, parasite prevention (worm, flea and tick tablets), a leash, harness, collar and/or vehicle restraint, litter and shelter related materials, safety and love to the animals in your care.</li> <li> Ellie’s Animal Rescue does screen all animals and carers prior to making a placement but cannot accept responsibility for the behaviour or actions of the animals placed in your foster care.</li> </ul>

- 🐾 Sometimes in rescue an animal may come with or be part of a story, which at times will be kept confidential within the team at Ellie’s Animal Rescue to ensure no slandering, defamation or bad publicity takes place.
- 🐾 You have considered both the positive and negative aspects of fostering animals such as destruction of property, scheduled feeds, regular trips to the vet, attending Ellie’s Animal Rescue events, mess in the home, disrupted sleep etc.
- 🐾 There may be pre-arranged house visits to your home in regard to assistance provided by us, photographers, emergency vet (should this ever be required), potential adopters and such with a prior appointment made with you.

By signing this foster application, you agree:

- 🐾 You are accepting animals from Ellie’s Animal Rescue at your own risk and can reject or return any animal we have asked you to care for.
- 🐾 You understand that while we will make our best efforts, we may not be able to move an animal immediately or by a deadline provided.
- 🐾 You will never place any Ellie’s Animal Rescue animal with another person, pound or institution, without direct written authority from Ellie’s Animal Rescue.
- 🐾 You will not seek compensation from Ellie’s Animal Rescue should an animal placed in your care chew, scratch or otherwise damage some household or personal items.
- 🐾 Indemnify and hold Ellie’s Animal Rescue free from any and all liability arising from any and all claims, demands, losses, damages, action, judgment of every kind and description which may occur to or be suffered by me, members of my household, or any third parties by reason of activities arising out of this agreement.
- 🐾 You have never been convicted of animal cruelty.
- 🐾 You have read through and accepted the terms of this agreement.
- 🐾 You have answered all questions on this form truthfully and completely.
- 🐾 You are over the age of 18.
