OCTOBER PROGRAM

This month the program will be hosted by the Willingboro Art Alliance with a guest artist of their choice presenting a demonstration.

Date and Time: TBA

Members will be emailed with a link to join the combined meeting.

NEXT ART CHALLENGE!

This program will continue to be by ZOOM.
October 12th - 7:30pm

For this month's art challenge, we will be creating a final piece based upon the sketches that we did. If you were not at the meeting, don't fret. You can still join us for the art challenge by reviewing the videos and creating a sketch of an image that was provided. And then a final art piece in your choice of medium.

Full details will be emailed.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

"Hello BCAG Members!

Some of you may have noticed that our website has been recently updated. I encourage all of you to visit the website (<https://burlcoartguild.com>) and send us your feedback. There is also a "Member's Sites" section where a link to your personal website can be added. All we need is a link and a photo to user for the link. Of course, you have to be a member.

Which brings me to membership. Don't forget to send in your dues for the 2020-2021 season. They are due this month. Our guild runs on a very tight budget so the dues are very important for our existence. We count on the dues to pay mundane, yet costly items like insurance, non-profit status, etc. So please send it in if you haven't already.

With the recent Covid case increases we are still meeting remotely. October's program will be a joint program with WAA. Keep checking the website for updates.

Last month I asked for people to step up and volunteer. I haven't received one response. You are all creative by definition. So send us your ideas on how to improve our guild.

Let's all do what we can to keep the BCAG going strong!

Joe Hughes
Acting President

Belmar Arts Council (BAC): TIME SENSITIVE- ART OPP! Cabinet of Curiosities- October 13-November 19. Costume Party and Reception: Saturday, October 30, 5-9pm. The term "Cabinet of Curiosities," or "Cabinet of Wonders," refers to collections of the wealthy nobility in 16th and 17th century Europe who sought to accumulate objects to show their knowledge and control of the world in all its aspects: natural, mechanical, political, historical, aesthetics, economic. This theme recurred in the 19th century World's Fairs and idea is to display all the knowledge of the world in a compressed space. The term "cabinet" does not always refer to a piece of furniture but also to rooms that housed these collections. At World's Fairs, the entire world was on display in buildings and landscapes that served the same purpose as the more compressed Cabinets of Curiosities. And museums today are our repositories of this sort of cultural heritage. 608 River Road | Belmar, NJ 07719 | <https://www.belmararts.org/2021-cabinet-of-curiosities.html>

Gwynn DiPilla's painting, Morning Light, was accepted into the Philadelphia Watercolor Society's 121st Anniversary Annual Exhibition of Works on Paper.

JUROR Statement: "My main criteria was to choose work that showed a mastery of drawing, composition, colour and technique. But besides this, one of the most important qualities that I also look for is the personal statement of a painter; it is this that distinguishes his or her work from others."

Gwynn also had a painting accepted into the New Jersey Watercolor Society annual show. The exhibit can be viewed by visiting:

Sharon Errickson was invited to exhibit artwork in the pop-up tent next to the Smithville Mansion on Sept. 18 at the Burlington County Historic Smithville Park for the "Arts After Dark" event. She also had three oil paintings juried into the Smithville Annex Gallery's 45th Annual Fall Art Show which will run through Nov. 20th. Sharon's work is primarily in plein air landscapes.

Sharon was also a featured artist in the annual Medford Art, Wine & Music Festival which was held on Sept. 19th. She shared a booth with her daughter, Lindsey, who offered artful photography. Congratulations to both for this first!

BCAG members, Denise McDaniel and Richard Montemurro painting are featured in the online gallery of the Medford Arts Juried Exhibition. This exhibit may be viewed online at: www.medfordarts.com/2021-great-outdoors-juried-exhibition-online.html#gallery
