PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

"Hello BCAG Members!

My message is one of motivation. It is Autumn. The weather is just about perfect. There's no better time to take in the beauty of the landscapes our natural surroundings have to offer. Cezanne said "Painting from nature is not copying the object, it's realizing one's sensations."

If you have never created art outdoors in natural light, or haven't in a while, switch up your routine and get outside at least once in the coming weeks. You don't need an abundance of equipment. A pencil and sketch pad is sufficient. Do it alone. Do it with friends. Just do it."

Joe Hughes
Acting President

Welcome our

Member Joy Hoffman has taken courses via Zoom with artist Jenny Grant who lives in Ireland. Joy had fun learning to paint faces on top of collages and greatly benefited from the learning experience.

Joy has also entered five pieces on the site EntryThingy for the Medford Art Center. It is the online required registration. Joy notes that it was a challenge to learn this entry format, especially how to photograph the paintings for the site. This is now the preferred manner for entries. Art work will also be delivered to the gallery so they can be seen in both venues. Images shown are acrylic pours and one watercolor (above) submitted by Joy.
