Artist Presentations by BCAG and WAA

In February, a presentation was given by Ben Sutherland, an animation artist. Ben explored the ins and outs of animation, how it's made, and the business side of the industry. He also discussed the journey of his art work, how he transitioned from the sciences to the art world, and how its evolution has impacted his

Saturday March 23rd the Willingboro Art Alliance will have renowned artist Lavett Ballard as a guest presenter for their monthly artist series. Ballard will give a talk in her studio sharing information about how her background, education, and heritage has shaped her art. In addition to creating art, Ballard teaches painting at Rutgers and will share her thoughts on the importance of finding your voice, critiques, and work ethic in the business of art. Attendees will see many of her works and will be able to ask her questions during the Q & A.

President's Message

Board Officer Elections in May

The time has come to shape the future of our guild! We are now accepting nominations for the following officer positions for the upcoming term:

President: Leads meetings, oversees guild operations, and represents the guild at official functions.

Vice President: Supports the President, takes over duties in their absence, and may chair committees.

Secretary: Maintains meeting minutes, tracks attendance, and handles guild correspondence.

Treasurer: Manages guild finances, keeps track of budgets, and submits financial reports.

Do you know someone who embodies the spirit of BCAG? We encourage all members to nominate individuals who demonstrate strong leadership skills, dedication to the guild's mission, and a passion for art.

Submit a nomination (<https://burlcoartguild.com>) form by April 30, 2024. Briefly state the nominee's name, position you're nominating them for, and why you believe they'd be a great fit. You may also include a brief statement from the nominee outlining their goals for the guild.

Don't miss this chance to have your voice heard and shape the future of BCAG! We look forward to receiving your nominations.

For any questions, please contact Joseph Hughes at hughesjoe@yahoo.com.
