February Program

Pom Pom Possibilities with Kati Texas

Does your yarn stash include fabulous fibers left over from other projects? Don't let those eclectic threads go to waste; put them together to make Pom Poms! In this hands-on guild program, you'll learn to make plush fluffy pom poms three different ways, and leave with your own custom cardboard templates to create warm fuzzies whenever you want.

Bring your favorite pair of sharp cloth/fiber scissors, and any yarn remnants you'd like to poof into pom pom projects. Bulk yarn and all other tools and materials will be provided.

Kati Texas is a multimedia artist with murals and kinetic sculptures all over Humboldt County. Her eclectic set of artistic skills and passion for waste reduction led to her opening Maker's Apron Creative Reuse, a thrift shop and classroom dedicated to rescuing creative possibilities from the waste stream.

Maker's Apron is located at 317 E Street in Eureka.
