Humboldt County Fair Update

The Fair's Directors will make a final decision on this year's Fair by June 1st. Meanwhile, all the planning is moving forward, so it looks really probable. The dates are August 18- 29.

The Guild will not be producing the Sheep to Shawl event this year, out of an abundance of caution. We'll also be working on getting some better ventilation for the Guild room. Otherwise, we are planning to be there as usual with our spinning and weaving demonstrators, our displays of fiber arts and our hand-made items to sell.

So, dig out all those dish towels you've been making, the scarves, the hats, the handbags, the skeins of wool you've been spinning and put them into a box to donate to the Guild for selling at the Fair. We use this income for our programs, which are free to the community, and for our scholarships. It's an important component of our healthy checking account. We can pick things up from your home or your work – just let Ann know and we'll make arrangements. 707 845-5758 or aeburroughs@gmail.com. You'll be hearing this message again as time for the Fair draws closer!

Virtual Focus on Fiber

Redwood Art Association's Virtual Focus on Fiber is available for viewing, please check it out!

It is a great show featuring diverse examples of local fiber art. HHSG's Linda Hartshorn took first place for one of her weavings. There is also some interesting video content including one on stitched portraits by April Sproule.

This is an annual event and it would be great to see more work from guild members in this show next year. To see the show click on the link:
