Basketry: A Cultural Tradition with Alice Lincoln-Cook

Calendar Of Upcoming Guild Events 2022

Oct. 13 Guild Meeting
Native Basketry with Alice Cook

Nov. 10 Guild Meeting
Little Looms with Tracy Shapiro

 No Meeting in December **

Big thanks to Betsy and Cindy for volunteering to do the hands-on spinning program for September.

The Guild is honored to welcome Alice Lincoln-Cook, Chairperson of the California Indian Basketweaving Association (CIBA.) Alice has served on the CIBA Board of Directors for six terms and been a member for over 20. She is a member of the Karuk Tribe and has worked over 20 years as an artist, making traditional jewelry and weaving Karuk style baskets. She teaches basketweaving to local tribal members at her store, the Klamath Book Nook. In addition, she works with local schools and other institutions and at events throughout the Pacific Northwest region.

She will discuss the history of CIBA, its mission, and some of its current programs, such as Following the Smoke, Rekindling the Fire, Basketry and Language, and Pesticides and Basketweavers. Following Alice's presentation there will be a demonstration of weaving traditional baskets.

It' time to send in $30 membership dues for the year! (See address above.)

Join Yarn at the Septentrio Winery in Arcata on Friday, October 7 from 5-8 pm. We will knit and visit with each other at this lovely outdoor venue. Appetizers will be served and each person will receive a gift bag. You can purchase wine or beverages to enjoy while we knit. Visit Yarn's website at www.yarn-fun.com to register and for more information or call the shop at 707-443-9276.

With the fair behind us, I would like to take a moment to thank the volunteers.

To all of you who donated your beautiful hand made items, they were a shining example of all the talent from our guild members!

To all who came out to demonstrate in our booth, the carding and spinning crew and the overall support was wonderful to be a part of!

Our labor of love is finished and for sale! We're asking $250 for the beautiful Ruana. The money goes to pay for our guest speakers and our scholarship.

Now to look forward to next year, If you are making gifts for the coming season, put an extra yard on the loom to donate something to the fair for next year!

Heartfelt Thanks, Cindy Russell, Fair Coordinator
