

Our Story

Hey there, lovely couples-to-be!
You know that *butterfly-in-your-stomach* feeling when you first start planning your wedding?

Trust me, we have been there! As a husband and wife team who have walked down the aisle ourselves, we totally get it - wedding planning can feel like climbing a mountain in high heels!

That is exactly why we started our little decor hiring company right here in Tulbagh. We are not just another wedding vendor; we are your partners in creating those “Pinterest-worthy moments” you have been dreaming about.
Think of us as your fairy godparents of wedding decor (minus the bibbidi-bobbidi-boo, but with all the magic! ).

From the moment you share your vision with us, to seeing your eyes light up on your big day, we are here to transform your wedding dreams into reality. Let us make your special day as unique as your love story!
