

International Women's Day Around the World!

March 8th, 2024

FRANCE

International Women's Day in France focuses on fighting against sexism as well as celebrating women's rights.

ITALY

Women are traditionally given small yellow mimosas, which symbolize female strength and solidarity.

UNITED STATES

Capital cities host rallies, conferences, and business events that bring together conversation and thought leadership around women's rights and empowerment.

ARGENTINA

While women in Argentina are often given presents and gifts, in recent years, protests demonstrating against violence, unequal representation, and the gender pay gap have been common.

CHINA

In China, women receive special surprises, gifts, cards, and flowers. On this day, discussions, important meetings, and award ceremonies are also held in a few parts of the country.

POLAND

In Poland, International Women's Day is seen as a day of gift-giving and promoting respect for women. Today, one of the most popular gifts to give women are tulips.
