Tailored Event Management Services

Nestled in the heart of Aberdeenshire, Thainstone Events offers a versatile service, creating memorable events for any occasion.

Thainstone Events is a professional, multi-skilled events management business located in Inverurie, Aberdeenshire, and a division ANM Group, Scotland's leading farming, food and finance co-operative.

The Thainstone Centre is located just 15 minutes away from Aberdeen Airport and 14 miles away from Aberdeen City Centre, with rail links to Inverurie and Kintore. Located just off the A96 south of Inverurie, the Thainstone Centre is home to the Thainstone Exchange, one of the North East's largest multi-purpose event venues.

Our professional team can manage or simply assist in the production of all types of events, working with you from start to finish to deliver outstanding services, tailored specifically to your needs and within your budget. Complementing our events management service, our range of indoor and outdoor events and exhibition spaces offers a flexible and cost-effective solution for any event.

Alongside event planning, we honour our strong farming heritage with our award-winning catering provision, offering an authentic field-to-fork experience prepared by our talented team of chefs.

A warm welcome to Thainstone Events...

A Choice of Facilities

Thainstone Exchange and Outside Canopy

The Thainstone Exchange is a flexible space that can comfortably sit up-to 400 people seated, with a fully operational events kitchen and bar. The Thainstone Exchange has hosted many of the North East's best-known events including Taste of Grampian, The Grampian Truckshow and more, in addition to the many private dinners, functions and conferences.

The space is fully flexible with the option to divide the hall into smaller sizes with breakout rooms available to suit any event and size. The space also benefits from theatre seating which can seat up to 250 people. The hall comes with its own state of the art facilities including, professional sound and lighting systems, projector facilities and air conditioning. The Thainstone Centre also offers free WIFI, ample free parking and 8 public electric charging points.

The Thainstone Exchange also benefits from an outside canopy cover which can be directly accessed from the Exchange doors. This hardstanding area is ideal for hosting corporate BBQ's or exhibitions and conferences of a larger size.

Outdoor Hardstanding Areas

The Thainstone Centre benefits from a large outdoor hardstanding area which can be hired out for large scale weekend events. The Thainstone Centre has held many well-known outdoor public events including Taste of Grampian, the Grampian Truckshow, Royal Northern Agricultural Society Spring Show and Blast from the Past Automotive Event.

The space benefits from being tarred right across the area, making set-up and breakdown of events easier to manage. Free public parking is available in the gravelled yard to the back of the centre, which benefits from direct access to the main gate for the hardstanding area. Public toilets are also in operation for large events at this gate.

Prices are tailored to your exact event requirements.

Thainstone Centre Concourse

The Thainstone centre concourse area is a large open space in the middle of the centre which can be used as an extension to the Thainstone Exchange for events such as fairs, expos and seminars or for welcome drinks for dinner events before heading through to the Exchange hall.

The concourse is also home to the Gallery Restaurant, located on the first floor which looks out over the open concourse. The Gallery can be utilised for larger public events as a catering option, serving high-quality, locally sourced produce. Our team would be happy to discuss tailored menus to suit any event and requirements.

Glen Garioch Meeting and Conference Suite

Located on the second floor, the Glen Garioch meeting suite provides a flexible space to host meetings, conferences or training. The room comes with state-of-the-art smart board technology to deliver your meeting to up-to 60 delegates. The conference room can set-up to your specification including boardroom and theatre style or U shape to suit any requirements. The room comes with a Thainstone Events notepad and pen for each delegate and one flipchart.

A full catering offering can be provided, from teas and coffees, to soup and sandwiches available in the Glen Garioch suite or lunches in our on-site Porterhouse restaurant – a relaxed break from a full day conference or training.

Porterhouse Restaurant

Our on-site Porterhouse Steakhouse restaurant boasts an inspirational menu featuring seasonal and locally sourced ingredients, showcasing only the finest food from the North East of Scotland. Porterhouse restaurant can be hired out for a private event on Mondays and Tuesdays, offering a full catering option and flexible set up for an event for up-to 90 people. Porterhouse has been utilised for a range of different events including private lunches, award ceremonies and business breakfasts. Porterhouse also offers a semi-private dining area which can be booked for a more intimate event or special occasion for up to 30 people.
