Southern Hills Wind Watch – January 2025

Join Us for an Informational Meeting on January 29th

Southern Hills Wind Watch (SHWW) invites you to attend an informational session on January 29, 2025, from 6:30 PM to 8:00 PM at the Tully High School auditorium. This meeting is an opportunity for residents to learn more about the proposed industrial wind turbine project and its potential impacts. A snow date is scheduled for February 4, 2025.

Purpose of the Meeting

This session will provide key information about the wind turbine project and how it could affect our community, environment, and individual properties. It's also an opportunity to hear updates about SHWW's efforts to protect our area and learn how you can get involved.

What to Expect

During the meeting, we will address potential impacts, including:

- Landslide risks
- Property values
- Damage to Kettle Lakes and nearby creeks
- Shadow flicker
- Endangered wildlife

Noise concerns

You'll also hear about:

- SHWW Efforts and Plans Learn about our work to engage elected officials, counter misinformation, and outline next steps.
- Ways You Can Make a Difference Discover how you can take action to protect our quality of life, preserve the Southern Hills region, and support SHWW's efforts.

Looking Ahead

SHWW's efforts are ongoing, but we need your help to continue the fight.

Stay Connected

For questions or more information about the meeting or our work, please contact us at:

Email: findoutmore@southernhillswindwatch.com

We need to work together to protect our community, preserve the Southern Hills' natural beauty and environment, and ensure a sustainable future.

We hope to see you at the meeting on January 29!
