

GRACE AT HOME

18TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

REPENT AND LIVE

"I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked." – Ezekiel 18:32

Since all souls belong to the Lord, he determines what happens to them. His verdict is that all who sin will die. Instead of complaining about how unfair God is, we need simply to return to him, to repent of the sin that has estranged us from our Maker. He is not only holy and righteous, he is also salvation, the forgiver of sin.

QUESTIONS TO TALK ABOUT AT HOME

1. What do the leaders mean when they ask Jesus, "By what authority are you doing these things?"
2. Why do they want to know?
3. Why does Jesus ask them a question instead of answering them?
4. What was their response?
5. Why does Jesus tell the parable that He does?
6. Who does He equate the two sons to?
7. What does Jesus mean that "tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the Kingdom of God ahead of you?"

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

God of love, giver of life, you know our frailties and failings. Give us your grace to overcome them, keep us from those things that harm us, and guide us in the way of salvation, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

TEAM 784

We will not hide them from their children, but tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the LORD, and his might, and the wonders that he has done. – Psalm 78:4

CONFESSION & ABSOLUTION

Which sins are these?

Here reflect on your walk of life in light of the Ten Commandments: whether you are father, mother, son, daughter, master, mistress, servant; whether you have been disobedient, unfaithful, lazy, whether you have harmed anyone by word or deed; whether you have stolen, neglected, wasted, or injured anything.
