PALM SUNDAY

HOSANNA IN THE HIGHEST

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! – Matthew 21:9

Today, we encounter the paradox that Jesus Christ is glorified as king and condemned to death. We wave palms in celebration today as Christ comes into our midst, then follow his path that leads to death on the cross. Amid it all we are invited into this paradoxical promise of life through Christ's broken body and outpoured love in a meal of bread and wine. We begin this week that stands at the center of the church year, anticipating the completion of God's astounding work.

Lift up your heads, ye might - y gates, Be - O blest the land, the cit - y blest, Where Fling wide the por - tals of your heart, Make Re - deem - er come! with us a - bid; Our hold the King of glo - ry waits! The Christ the rul - er is con - fessed! O it a tem - ple set a - part From hearts to thee we o - pen wide, Let King of kings is draw - ing near, The hap - py hearts and hap - py homes To earth - ly use for heav'n's em - ploy, A - us thy in - ner pres - ence feel, Thy Sav - ior of the world is here.
 whom this King in tri - umph comes!
 dorned with prayer and love and joy.
 grace and love in us re - veal.

2. What my the Lord need of you?
3. What does it mean for them to use the word, "Hosanna"? (Google it!)
4. Where is the quote in verse 5 from?
5. Where do you think the crowd came from?
6. Where does the quote in verse 9 come from?

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

Sovereign God, you have established your rule in the human heart through the servanthood of Jesus Christ. By your Spirit, keep us in the joyful procession of those who with their tongues confess Jesus as Lord and with their lives praise him as Savior, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

CATECHISM CORNER

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

The Fourth Commandment

Honor your father and your mother.

What does this mean?

We are to fear and love God, so that we neither despise nor anger our parents and others in authority, but instead honor, serve, obey, love, and respect them.
