GRACE AT HOME

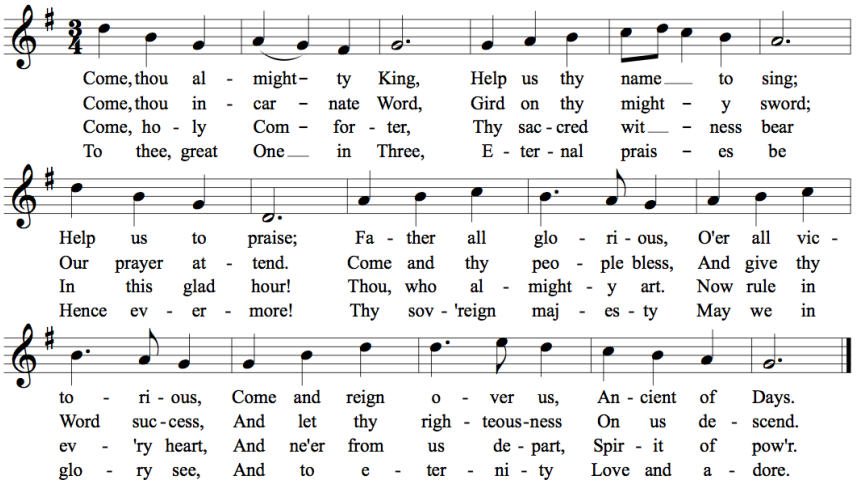

Christ the King Sunday

The King Shall Come

I will rescue them from all the places where they have been scattered on a day of clouds and total darkness. – Ezekiel 34:12

On this final Sunday of the church year our gospel is Jesus' great story of judgment. In the end, the faithful are those who served Christ by ministering to those who are poor, hungry, naked, sick, or estranged. In the first reading God is the shepherd who seeks the lost, weak, and injured and feeds them with justice. We gather this day to celebrate the reign of Christ and his victory over death, yet we await the consummation of all things yet to come. Acknowledging Christ as our merciful ruler, we go forth that his reign may be known in our loving words and deeds.

Come, Thou Almighty King

Psalm for the Week — Psalm 95

Gospel Reading — Matthew 25:31-46

Questions to talk about at home

1. What do you see when you here of Jesus sitting on a throne?
2. How do the sheep get into the kingdom of God?
3. Did the sheep know that they were serving Jesus in their daily lives?
4. What was it that condemned the goats?
5. Was the eternal fire something that the goats were destined for?
6. What was it that the goats assumed about themselves?

Prayer for the Week

O Lord, absolve Your people from their offences, which by reason of our frailty we have brought upon ourselves, that from the bonds of our sins we may be delivered by Your bountiful goodness, through Your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

TEAM 784

We will not hide them from their children, but tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the LORD, and his might, and the wonders that he has done. – Psalm 78:4
