

A LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

"For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven."

- Ecclesiastes 3:1 -

Greetings to everyone here at Fairview United Methodist Church, and to our community beyond in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. I pray this letter finds you well as we step into the crisp days of October. The leaves are beginning to change, the air is cooler, and the rhythm of life shifts as fall settles in. Autumn is one of those seasons that reminds us of God's steady presence—just as creation turns and renews, so too does God's Spirit continue to bring new life and new beginnings among us.

This past month, we experienced one of those new beginnings together with the Youth for Peace and Justice March, sponsored by the Omega Community Development Corporation and several of our Northwest Dayton area churches. The event was a wonderful success! I am deeply grateful for the relationships that have been built over the past few years and the strong clergy partnerships that continue to grow as we work together for the benefit of our community. I was blessed to be one of the featured speakers at the march, and I was honored to offer a prayer as well. Both my remarks and my prayer are included in this edition of The Columns if you would like to read them.

On a personal note, I will be traveling briefly to Boston this month for the annual Christian Unity Gathering of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the USA. There I will continue my work with the United Methodist Council of Bishops as their representative on the Interreligious Relations Convening Table. Out of this work, I'm humbled to share some good news: next year Friendship Press will be publishing a book on the Interreligious Dialogues of the National Council of Churches, and I was asked to contribute a chapter to that volume. I wrote the chapter over the Labor Day holiday weekend, and it is now in the hands of the editors. Once the editing process is completed, I look forward to sharing it with you all as a companion to a future edition of The Columns.

As we move through this season of turning leaves and shorter days, may we be reminded that our lives too have seasons—times of growth, times of letting go, and times of new beginnings. God’s Spirit is at work in all of it, guiding us, shaping us, and drawing us deeper into His love. My prayer for you this October is that you will find joy in the small gifts of the season—a walk among the changing trees, a cool morning sunrise, or a quiet evening with loved ones—and in those moments, be reminded of the steadfast presence of our Creator.

Grace and peace,
Rev. E. Neil Gaiser

Opening Remarks for the 2025 Peace March

Good afternoon, brothers and sisters, neighbors and friends. My name is Rev. Neil Gaiser and I’m the Pastor of Fairview United Methodist Church.

We gather here today with one voice and one purpose — to declare that the violence tearing at the heart of our neighborhoods has no place on our streets, in our homes, or especially in the lives of our young people. We come to say it clearly, boldly, and prophetically: we condemn all gun violence in the strongest terms.

We are here because too many tears have been shed, too many young lives have been cut short, and too many families in West Dayton have been left grieving. But today we march, not only in lament, but also in hope. We march to say: another way is possible, another day is coming.

We believe that all human life is sacred, that every life is precious. We believe that all people, without exception, are made in the image of God — and no one reflects that image more beautifully than our children and our youth. No child should ever have to fear the sound of gunshots piercing the night air. No child should have to fear bullets tearing through our homes, our apartments, our cars, our bodies. No child should ever have to wonder if they are safe. As image-bearers of God, our children deserve to have joy in their hearts and smiles on their faces, not fear in their eyes.

The Bible says in the book of Isaiah that the day will come when we “beat our swords into ploughshares and our spears into pruning hooks.” Today, we claim that same vision for our streets. We believe with the prophet that violence will not have the last word.

And let it be clear: ALL of our Northwest Dayton churches stand as a united front. From Baptist to Methodist, from fellowships to temples — we are together in this call. We are not divided by denomination, but united by Christ’s call to justice, mercy, and peace. Together we lament the lives lost, and together we rise up to call for peace and a better future for every child in Northwest Dayton.

I want to give thanks for the pastors and leaders who stand in solidarity today:

- Pastor Newkirk of Fellowship Baptist Church
- Bishop Craig High of Bethesda Temple
- Pastor Rockney Carter of Zion Baptist Church
- Pastor Leroy Cothran of United Baptist Church
- Pastor Karl Penn of Fort McKinley United Methodist
- Pastor John Maze of Agape Bible Fellowship
- Pastor Jimmy Mann of All Nations Bible Fellowship
- Pastor Steve Putka of Grace United Methodist
- Pastor Joshua Ward of Omega Baptist Church
- And Pastor Emeritus Daryl Ward, whose legacy continues to inspire.

Though some could not be physically present, they are with us in spirit — and all of us together form one voice, one witness, one prophetic cry: Peace in Dayton! Peace in our neighborhoods! Peace for our youth!

So let us march today not in fear, but in faith. Not in despair, but in determination. And may our presence here send a message loud and clear — that West Dayton is choosing life over death, unity over division, peace over violence.

Let us pray:

O God of life and love,

We gather here today in Dayton, in the heart of our neighborhoods, with heavy hearts. We remember the young lives taken by gun violence this summer and in times past, whether it's been weeks, months, or years. We remember the families who grieve, the mothers and fathers, sons and daughters, brothers and sisters whose absence leaves holes in our homes and in our community.

We cry out in lament for the senseless bloodshed that has pierced our streets. Too many of our children have heard the sound of gunfire when they should have heard the sound of laughter. Too many families live in fear when they should be living in peace.

God of peace, you have promised that one day swords will be beaten into ploughshares, that violence will cease, and that your children shall not learn war anymore. Today we march holding on to that promise.

Until that day comes, make us strong to be peacemakers. Unite our churches, our families, and our neighbors as one front against violence. Give us courage to act, wisdom to lead, compassion to comfort, and faith to keep believing that peace is possible.

Receive into your eternal care those whose lives have been stolen by gunfire in our city. Hold close the grieving families. Stir your Spirit among us, until Dayton's streets resound not with gunshots but with songs of joy, laughter, and peace.

In the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace, we pray. Amen.

UNITED WOMEN IN FAITH BOOK REVIEW

Title: Miracles and Other Reasonable Things

Mission Emphasis: Spiritual Growth

Author: Sarah Bessey

Reviewer: Pam Hounshell

The subtitle of this lovely book is A Story of Unlearning and Relearning God. That may sound confusing at first, but what she really conveys is the ways in which her faith and relationship with Jesus, and ours, evolve over time. We reorient toward God over and over, as the Holy Spirit points us in new directions.

As you read, you will feel Ms. Bessey whispering her story directly into your heart. I loved this feeling, and you will too. The book ends with a benediction prayer for the reader. Nice touch.

PANTRY NEWS
FEEDING OUR NEIGHBORS WITH FAITH AND LOVE
OCTOBER 2025 PANTRY UPDATE

As we move into the crisp days of October, our Food Pantry continues to be a vital source of hope and nourishment for many families in our community. With the change of seasons, we often see an increase in need, and your continued generosity makes it possible for us to meet that demand.

So far this year, we have seen a 20% increase in the number of households that we are able to provide with a variety of food and personal care items. Every bag of groceries represents not just a meal, but the reminder that neighbors care for one another.

Looking ahead to the holidays, we are especially mindful of the extra expenses families face. Monetary gifts are always welcome as well, allowing us to purchase the most-needed items directly that we cannot obtain from the Food Bank.

As we serve, we are reminded of the words from Matthew 25:35: “For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink.” Together, we are living out this call and ensuring that no one in our neighborhood goes hungry.

REMEMBER TO BRING YOUR

Bread

EVERY 1ST SUNDAY

helping people

On the first Sunday of every month, we at Fairview Church celebrate communion, sharing in the body and blood of Christ through symbolic amounts of bread and the fruit of the vine. We would like to expand this sharing into the world around us by asking you to bring a loaf (or two!) of bread to church on Communion Sundays, to be distributed through our very busy food pantry. When you are shopping for your own groceries, please buy an extra loaf of bread and bring it with you on Oct. 5. We would like to make the first Sunday of every month a John 21:15-17 occasion!
