February letter from the Pastor

Greetings to everyone here at Fairview United Methodist Church, and to our community beyond in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. I hope this note finds you staying warm, safe, and well as we make our way through this stretch of severe winter weather and record-low temperatures. These past weeks have reminded us just how relentless winter can be, and I pray that you are finding moments of rest, comfort, and care in the midst of it all.

As we move toward the end of the season of Epiphany, we stand at a meaningful threshold in the life of the Church. Epiphany has been a season of light—of Christ revealed, of God's glory breaking into ordinary places and everyday lives. Soon, we will turn our hearts toward Lent, a season that invites us inward: toward reflection, repentance, and renewal. It is a gentle but honest shift—from seeing the light to asking how that light is shaping us.

With that movement in mind, I am excited to share that we are planning a joint Ash Wednesday worship service on Wednesday, February 18th at 6:00 p.m. at Grace United Methodist Church. This service will mark the beginning of Lent as we gather not just as one congregation, but as a wider community of faith. Participating churches currently include Fairview United Methodist Church, Grace United Methodist Church, and Fort McKinley, with the possibility of additional churches joining as plans continue to develop.

Music for the service will be provided by Michelle Forshaw, Nancy Collins, and our Chancel Choir, with singers from other participating churches also planning to join. While some details are still being worked out, we are already anticipating a powerful and meaningful night of worship—one that reflects the beauty of coming together with our neighbors to begin this holy season, so we hope you will plan on attending! Please stay tuned for further announcements and information about the service as details are finalized.

Ash Wednesday reminds us of who we are and whose we are. It invites us to slow down, to tell the truth about our lives, and to open ourselves once again to God's transforming grace.

Beginning Lent in shared worship is a powerful witness to the unity we have in Christ, even as we walk our individual journeys of faith.

As winter presses on, and as the Church year turns toward Lent, my prayer is that you will sense God's steady presence with you—offering warmth when the days feel cold, light when the nights feel long, and hope that carries us forward. May these coming weeks be a time of quiet preparation and deepening trust in the God who meets us exactly where we are.

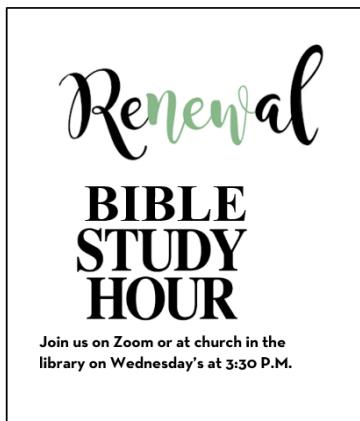

Grace and peace to you, and blessings to you for the remainder of this rather rough winter.

Warmly in Christ,

Rev. Neil Gaiser

UWF BOOK REVIEW

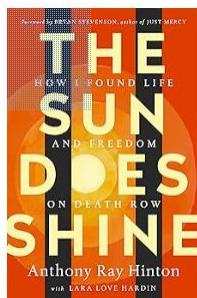

Title: The Sun Does Shine

Author: by Anthony Ray Hinton

Category: Social Action

Reviewer: by Pam Hounshell

CLICK HERE TO PREVIEW - The Sun Does Shine

Anthony Ray Hinton was charged with two counts of murder in Alabama. He was completely innocent, but could not afford legal counsel. He had an alibi. Ignored. He passed a polygraph test. Ignored. The weapon taken from his home had not been fired for over 25 years. That fact was also ignored. He was sentenced to death and spent almost 30 years of his life trying to find someone who would listen. During those years on death row,

Mr. Hinton relied on the love and faith of his mother and the loyalty of his best friend to get him through. Although this book will make you seethe with anger, it will also inspire you and make you ponder what you would do in such a situation. An amazing read!

FEBRUARY 2026 PANTRY NEWS

Sharing Warmth and Hope This February

February may be the shortest month of the year, but it is often one of the hardest for families who rely on the Food Pantry. After the holidays, food budgets are stretched, utility bills are high, and many households are facing tough choices between heat, rent, and groceries.

Thanks to your continued generosity, Fairview's Food Pantry remains a place of welcome, dignity, and hope. Every bag of groceries, every friendly smile, and every volunteer hour makes a real difference in the lives of our neighbors. Because of you, families are able to put healthy food on their tables during a challenging time of year. As we move through the winter months, our shelves continue to turn over quickly. Financial gifts are a great help, allowing us to purchase exactly what is most needed to supplement what we receive from the Food Bank.

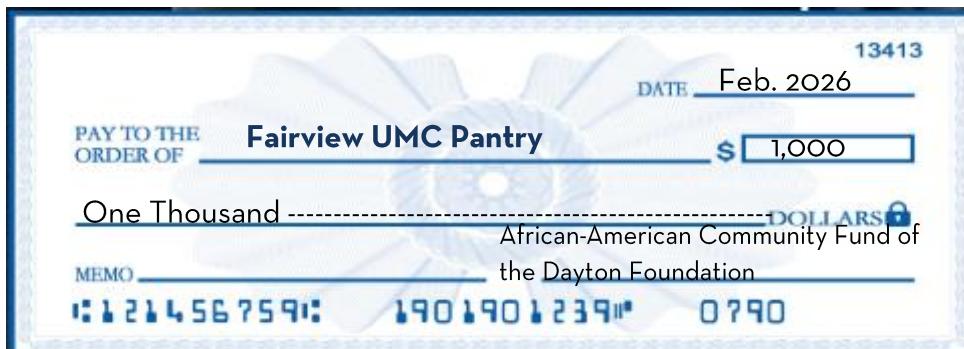

If you are looking for a meaningful way to share Christ's love this February, consider volunteering for a pantry shift, making a special food donation, or inviting a friend to help. Together, we are not just providing food—we are offering hope, compassion, and a reminder that no one in our community walks alone.

Thank you for being the hands and feet of Christ through this ministry.

REMEMBER TO BRING YOUR Bread
EVERY 1ST SUNDAY
helping people

On the first Sunday of every month, we at Fairview Church celebrate communion, sharing in the body and blood of Christ through symbolic amounts of bread and the fruit of the vine. We would like to expand this sharing into the world around us by asking you to bring a loaf (or two!) of bread to church on Communion Sundays, to be distributed through our very busy food pantry. When you are shopping for your own groceries, please buy an extra loaf of bread and bring it with you on February 1, 2026. We would like to make the first Sunday of every month a John 21:15-17 occasion!

Safety for everyone who comes onto our property and into our building is a priority of the Trustees. The Trustees are tasked with the care and maintenance of the building and its contents, the parking lot, and most importantly, the safety of our members and visitors.

The Trustees have adopted a new policy which is intended to enhance the safety of all. This policy states, "All bags are subject for search by authorized church personnel." Signs have been posted at the East Foyer door.

Thank you.

A Pastoral Letter from Bishop Hee-Soo Jung

Hee-Soo Jung, Resident Bishop

Ohio Episcopal Area | West Ohio Conference

Dear Beloved People of The Ohio Episcopal Area,

I write to you today with a heavy heart and a praying spirit as we witness the recent tragic deaths of two people in Minnesota. These losses are not isolated incidents. They are part of a wider pattern of fear-driven, indiscriminate immigration enforcement that has crossed moral and spiritual boundaries. Nothing can justify violence against human life.

As an immigrant myself, I know in my own body what it means to live under the weight of uncertainty, vulnerability, and being labeled. I also know that many who are called “undocumented” are not criminals. They are workers, parents, and neighbors who crossed borders because economic systems, political violence, and family survival left them no other choice. Today, families, industries, and entire communities in the United States depend on their labor and their lives. This is why we must continue to call for comprehensive immigration reform that reflects reality, justice, and mercy.

Scripture is unambiguous about God’s heart toward the stranger.

“When a stranger resides with you in your land, you shall not oppress the stranger. The stranger who resides with you shall be to you as the citizen among you; you shall love the stranger as yourself” (Leviticus 19:33-34).

The crisis before us is not only legal or political—it is moral and spiritual. The United States is being tested at the level of its soul. Will we be a nation shaped by fear and exclusion, or a society rooted in hospitality and justice? Our faith reminds us that God is always found among the displaced, the vulnerable, and the unwelcome.

Jesus himself was a refugee. Scripture tells us that his family fled violence and crossed borders to survive (Matthew 2:13-15). And our Lord teaches us plainly:

“I was a stranger and you welcomed me” (Matthew 25:35).

The church cannot be silent in such a moment. The Ohio churches are called again to be a people who build true human community—where dignity is protected, where the stranger is seen as neighbor, and where love is stronger than fear. Laws matter. Policies matter. But before all of that, the spirit of hospitality must shape our homes, our congregations, and our public witness.

Let us become communities of sanctuary—places where justice has a face, and mercy has hands:

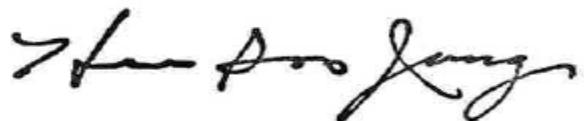

We lift before you the names and faces
of those who have died,
and the families who now grieve.
Hold them in your healing light.

Make our churches places of welcome,
where the stranger is no longer invisible,
and the wounded find safety.

Let justice walk freely in our streets,
and let compassion become the language of our nation.

Break the power of fear.
Restore the soul of this land
through the love of Christ,
who makes us all neighbors. Amen

In peace,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "The Rev. Dr. [unclear]" followed by a name.
