

A LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

"For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven."

- Ecclesiastes 3:1 -

Greetings to everyone here at Fairview United Methodist Church, and to our community beyond in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. There are some things we do so often that eventually we stop noticing them. We follow the same routines, say the same familiar words, and move through the rhythms of life almost without thinking about them.

The same thing can happen in worship. We may know what comes next in the service almost instinctively without ever stopping to ask a simple question: Why do we do this?

Before we explore that question this fall, October gives us a wonderful opportunity to remember that we never worship alone. On Sunday, October 4, we will join our friends at Grace United Methodist Church for a special celebration of World Communion Sunday. Christians around the world will gather that day around the Lord's Table, and it seems especially meaningful that Fairview and Grace will have the opportunity to worship, pray, sing, receive Communion, and enjoy fellowship together. I am grateful for the growing friendship between our congregations, and I hope to see all of you there!

October will also begin a new preaching and teaching series at Fairview called Why We Worship This Way: The Meaning Behind What We Do Every Sunday.

If you have been part of the Church for many years, you probably know the rhythm of worship almost instinctively. We gather. We sing. We pray. We confess. We hear words of forgiveness. We listen to Scripture and a sermon. We recite ancient words. We sometimes gather around a Table. And then we are blessed and sent back into the world.

But have you ever wondered why? Why do we repeat some of the same words week after week? Why do Christians confess their sins together and then immediately hear words of forgiveness? Why do we listen to words written thousands of years ago? Why do we follow seasons such as Advent, Lent, and Easter? Why do we gather around bread and a cup? Why do we need to gather for worship at all?

And perhaps there is an even more important question underneath all of them: What are these practices doing to us?

Christian worship was never intended to be a collection of religious activities we perform simply because “that’s the way we’ve always done it.” Worship tells a story. It reminds us who God is and who we are. It gives us words when we do not have words of our own. It teaches us to tell the truth about ourselves and reminds us that grace is greater than our failures. It teaches us to listen. It connects us with Christians across cultures, languages, and generations.

In other words, Christian worship does not simply express what we believe. Through the practices of worship, God forms us into people who increasingly believe, embody, and live the Christian story.

That is what we will explore together this fall.

For those who would like to dig even deeper, our Renewal Hour Bible Study will explore these same themes in greater detail throughout the series, with additional Scripture study, conversation, background, and plenty of opportunity for questions. You can join us in person or online, Wednesdays at 3:30 p.m. and I would love to have you be part of the conversation.

Sometimes the most familiar things are worth looking at again. A familiar prayer can suddenly become new. An old Scripture can speak differently in a new season of life. Bread and cup can remind us again that we live by grace.

Week after week, God invites us back—to the story, to grace, to the Word, to one another, and ultimately, to Christ. I look forward to making that journey with you this fall.

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Neil

UNITED WOMEN IN FAITH BOOK REVIEW

Title: What We Remember Will Be Saved

Author: Stephanie Soldana

Reviewer: Cecelia Long

CLICK HERE TO PREVIEW "What We Remember Will Be Saved"

What We Remember Will Be Saved is a book of hope, about the homes which no longer exist, and the stories we hold within us when everything else has been lost. This book reminds us that refugees are storytellers and speakers of vanishing languages. It also gives us an idea of how much history can be embodied into a piece of fabric or in a song that has been created by a citizen who had to leave her or his homeland.

This book shares the stories of six extraordinary women and men who lived in Syria and Iraq.. They were displaced in a migration of over 10 million people. These stories of Christians touch your inner being in unexpected and astonishing ways. I cried, I smiled, I rocked myself into a state of calmness as I kept thinking, "I can't believe these refugees have brought such unique keepsakes from their destroyed homes to their new homes in far distant lands."

This book is not an easy read, but it is one that urges thoughtful meditation about what matters most to any people. The writer is from San Antonio, TX. She has lived in the middle east for over 20 years as she collected stories of people whom she thought had lost everything. She learned that 'what we remember will be saved and history and traditions continue in the distant lands' that are now occupied by millions of refugees.

On the first Sunday of every month, we at Fairview Church celebrate communion, sharing in the body and blood of Christ through symbolic amounts of bread and the fruit of the vine. We would like to expand this sharing into the world around us by asking you to bring a loaf (or two!) of bread to church on Communion Sundays, to be distributed through our very busy food pantry. When you are shopping for your own groceries, please buy an extra loaf of bread and bring it with you on Oct. 4. We would like to make the first Sunday of every month a John 21:15-17 occasion!

PANTRY NEWS
FEEDING OUR NEIGHBORS WITH FAITH AND LOVE
OCTOBER 2026 PANTRY UPDATE

As we enter October and the beautiful season of fall, we are reminded of the many blessings God has given us. At the Fairview Food Pantry, we see those blessings shared every week as members of our congregation and community help provide food and personal care items to our neighbors in need.

The need continues to be significant. So far in 2026, we have over 2,000 household visits, providing food for more than 7,000 people. Many of those we serve are seniors, families with children, and individuals who are struggling to make ends meet. We are grateful that our pantry can be a place where people are welcomed and receive help without being turned away.

Our pantry is able to continue this ministry because of the generosity of Fairview members and friends, as well as our partnerships with the Dayton Foodbank, Miami Valley Meals and other community supporters. Financial gifts allow us to purchase additional food and personal care items when supplies from the Foodbank are not enough to meet the need.

October is also a good time to remember that our ministry is about more than food. It is about showing compassion, offering dignity, and reminding our neighbors that they are not alone. Every box of food, every donation, and every hour volunteered is an expression of God's love.

Thank you for helping make the Fairview Food Pantry a vital part of our church's mission. As we give thanks for our own blessings, may we continue to look for ways to share those blessings with others
