February 2019

LETTER FROM COMMODORE

Ahoy WCYC,

It's almost spring! Our March Dinner is March 9th at the El Adobe Restaurant in San Juan Capistrano. We had a good turnout for our February Dinner at Cedar Creek Inn in San Juan Capistrano. We avoided rain by moving inside; however, our seating was in the middle of the restaurant and our members hadn't seen each other in a while. So chatter was abundant which was a bit much for some sitting nearby. Thanks to those that complimented drinks and food for those who were seated next to our party. We have a banquet room reserved for El Adobe so we'll be self contained. As of the writing of this article, we are waiting to hear from the Harbor Master in Oceanside as to how many, if any, slips we can have on the Jolly Roger Guest Docks. There is an Ironman contest that weekend, April 5-7. It is also Oceanside Yacht Club's Opening Day on Sunday, April 7th. Tracey and I are slated to host our first cruise of the season at Oceanside. Should plans need to change, we will be sending out an email to members with an alternative location for our first cruise of the season. Stay tuned!!

I'd like to extend congratulations to one of members, Steve Fiorillo! Steve was named Ocean Institute's Volunteer of the Year for 2018! Way to go Steve! Please see additional article in the Binnacle. Thanks to Dave Stancil for bringing it to my attention. As with any of our members, please feel free to contact me with news to share with our club. Looking forward to getting the boat ready for cruising season and taking to the sea! Hope to see you at our March Dinner and cruising with friends to fun places!

Happy Boating,
Blake Campbell

Member Highlight

Steve Fiorillo, Ocean Institute Volunteer of the Year 2018

The Volunteer of Year for the Ocean Institute is selected by the volunteer coordinators and is someone that embodies the mission and values of the Ocean Institute. Steve serves as a volunteer in our husbandry and public programs departments, Steve serves both our animals and our public visitors twice a week. From taking home tables to refurbish them, to feeding the fish, to gathering kelp with his own personal vessel for our tanks, Steve goes above and beyond. We are so thankful to have Steve as part of the Ocean Institute family, which is why we have recognized him as our Volunteer of the Year for 2018. — Alexandra Latona, Ocean Institute

Nice Job Steve! We're very happy and proud of you!
Keep up the good work!!
