LETTER FROM COMMODORE MIKE SANDLER

Greetings WCYC Members,

We have reached the halfway point into the 2022 cruising season and, WOW, what a year so far. We had two awesome events in June, and both were a HUGE success. Our cruise to Two Harbors at the beginning of the month was incredible. Great weather, great seas, only to be bested by great company! We had boats in Cherry Cove, Fourth of July Cove, and Two Harbors Cove. Our cruise and co-cruise captains, the Hepner's and the Rasulo's were well organized and kept everyone moving along. Please enjoy their Cruise Captain's report and the event pictures below. Richard also put together an amazing video and posted it on YouTube. I think the choice of music is the best part. Here is the link <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=erNPfntKJ60> for you to enjoy.

Certainly not to be out done, our Fleet & Port Captain, John Kossa, and his wife, the incredible "Crez", organized one of the best Tiki Regatta's WCYC has ever had. It was by far the largest and most successful turnout of members, guests, and prospective members our club has seen in a very long time. David Monk captained the committee boat and made sure the race ran smoothly. No items were lost a sea this year. Tammy Huntley had the Ships Store fully open, and she created an AWESOME gift basket for the raffle. I believe she sold more tickets than Disneyland did that day. And of course, you know our membership chair, Tom Rasulo, was well into working the crowd. Great job everyone who helped. This was truly a team effort. Please enjoy John's Tiki Regatta report and pictures below.

July is in full swing and it's the perfect time to head back to the island. Cherry Cove here we come. Our cruise captains and co-cruise captains for this event are Chip & Valerie Riddle and Ed & Mindy Sicard respectively. No Shoes, No Shirt, No Problem! The evite has been released so please respond accordingly. Please contact vice commodore Mindy Sicard vice-commodore@westcoastyachtclub.com if you have not received it.

It is now official. I am pleased to announce that our updated WCYC Bylaws are now complete and have been voted upon and accepted by your WCYC board of directors. Our Bylaws were last amended over 12 years ago and needed some tweaking. Our secretary Monique Monk sent out to all WCYC members the revised By-laws on June 6th.

We have some changes planned for our September cruise which will be announced shortly and will require your immediate attention. Keep an eye out for that announcement which will be coming from our Vice Commodore Mindy Sicard.

Well, that's all for now, and I hope everyone has a fun and safe 4th of July.

LETTER FROM VICE COMMODORE MINDY SICARD

Dear Members,

Thank you to The Hepner's and The Rasulo's for hosting the very fun adventure to Two Harbors this past June. Everyone had a wonderful time participating in all the well thought out activities.

Please bring an appetizer to share and BYOB. On Saturday, July 9th at 9:30 a.m. join us for Eye Openers and Continental Breakfast on the Sadie Mae. In the afternoon, time for some rest and relaxation behind R & R (The Riddle's boat) Bring your floaties and Cowboy hats for some Kenny Chesney style fun... No Shoes, No Shirt, No Problem. Saturday Dinner – We will grill Burgers, Hot Dogs and Brats. BYOB Sunday Morning – Departure. For those of you who are staying, Two Harbors is having their Annual Wine Festival.

Save-the-Date: Cruise to Newport Harbor, August 12th – 14th.

We are currently planning a "Commodore's Cruise" in September to Ensenada, Mexico via a Cruise Ship to celebrate our Commodore, Mike Sandler. As soon as we have all the details, we will send out the invites.

IMPORTANT: If you are interested in becoming an active member and potentially move up the ranks of West Coast Yacht Club, please see me in regards to joining our 2023 fun and fabulous board of directors.

LETTER FROM REAR COMMODORE DONNA GROVES

Ahoy Cruise Members,

June was a busy month for WCYC. We had another fun cruising event to the Isthmus. Hat's off to the Captain and Co-Captain for a successful weekend of Adventure. The weather was beautiful, plenty of slips available and the activities they put together were great. Some boats branched off to the 4th of July and Cherry Cove for a different view, but all together for Saturday night's dinner and a little bit of dancing.

Our Tiki Regatta again was a huge success. Thanks to the Kossa's for putting it all together and organizing the entire day. I would also like to thank all our chef's. The food was outstanding. Each added their own special touch and secret ingredients which made the paella's all different and exceptional. We had a great turn out and lots of new and potential members attended. Thanks to Steve and his drone for getting some great pictures for the Binnacle and our Facebook page. He always does such a great job and I know he spends hours on it each month to make it great for our members.

July we are off to Cherry Cove. Cannot wait. Evite has gone out and it looks like a lot of fun. Hope to see you all there.

LETTER FROM FLEET/PORT CAPTAIN JOHN KOSSA

Aloha WCYC members.

WOW! What can I say about the Tiki Regatta? What a whirlwind of an event!

Just when I thought that we would have to do bottle boat races, 3 captains signed up. I had some great friends to help me with the race. Thank you Steve VandenBerg, Ed Sicard & David Monk for your knowledge & support. Last but not least, my wife Crezlun, thank you for helping me babe!

Read more about the event in my report to follow.....

LETTER FROM MEMBERSHIP TOM RASULO

Ahoy,

Membership in West Coast Yacht Club continues to grow. Only now, even faster! We are in an absolute BLITZ of membership activity like never before. Please keep it up! All of those interested in joining are coming from YOU!. Nice going!

The Two Harbors Cruise had some folks just walk up on our party of misbehavers and are STILL interested in joining. Soooo cool. We had flat seas an open mooring field and an improvised change of venue to have one of our events on the beach. All to ourselves! Congratulations to the Hepners for the attention to detail on the hike the meals and the theme. Amazing job.

Next up is Cherry Cove, then the BIG Newport Cruise with live music again this year! What a great destination! Keep watch for items in the Binnacle magazine and for an Evite.

Finally, please be sure to engage anyone you don't know. Wear your name badges and extend your hand. It makes such a difference.

This is me trying to get into heaven after being friends with some of you people!!

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR STEVE FIORILLO

Hello All:

I'm always looking for content for the Binnacle, so anything you'd like to share with the membership that's boating related please send it my way.

If you're not aware, we also have a Facebook group that's been active for several years, <https://www.facebook.com/groups/448832008534519>. This is a private group for members only, so if go to this page and request membership I'll add you in ASAP. Or you can send me your Facebook account and I'll do it that way.

This group, as with the Binnacle, can be used to share your photos, trip journals, etc, but also any suggestions for contractors (upholsterers, boat cleaners, mechanics, etc), as we're all looking for "that guy".

Any contribution to the membership that is more real-time should be posted to our FB group so we all see in a timely manner.

Please let me know if there's any questions or concerns.

Regards,
Steve Fiorillo

June's Adventurers Cruise to Twin Harbors

Cruise Report by Richard & Susan Hepner

Richard and Susan Hepner teamed up with Tom and Karen Rasulo to host the Adventurers-themed cruise to Two Harbors.

Once again, The West Coast Yacht Club demonstrated what a fearless, resolute, and handsome group of Adventurers populate its roll. And a group of dancers to make the Sirens blush!

In 1542, Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo became the first European to discover Catalina Island, and claimed the island in the name of the King of Spain. In 1602, the island was re-discovered on the eve of the feast of Saint Catherine of Alexandria by Sebastian Vizcaino, who named the island in honor of Saint Catherine.

It seems that the island remained largely unpopulated and forgotten since that time, with the possible exception of a persistent legend involving chewing gum and the Chicago Cubs baseball team. Very strange, indeed.

June's Adventurers Cruise to Twin Harbors

Cruise Report by Richard & Susan Hepner

FRIDAY, JUNE 10, ANNO DOMINI MMXXII

The WCYC Adventurers' armada arrived on the island and held a meet-up picnic on the beach. We were chased away from our first picnic site by a group of natives who claimed that we were in a space reserved for their god of fee-based prosperity, PA'EE DA MA'AN, in spite of assurances from Princess Katia that the gods would favor our gathering.

The Adventurers packed up and found a pleasant, non-fee-bearing stretch of beach with a beautiful view of the harbor. An adventurer must be adaptable.

June's Adventurers Cruise to Twin Harbors

Cruise Report by Richard & Susan Hepner

That night, Rod and Tammy Covarrubias' catamaran was boarded by sailors seeking refreshment.

An impromptu birthday and dance party erupted.

Videos of the ensuing debauchery are rumored to exist, but have not been released to TMZ ... yet.

June's Adventurers Cruise to Twin Harbors

Cruise Report by Richard & Susan Hepner

SATURDAY, JUNE 11, ANNO DOMINI MMXXII

An informal breakfast with eye-openers was held on the rafted Siren Song (Hepners) and Genty Lee (Rasulos). Great start to the day!

Around mid-day on Saturday, the Adventurers donned their adventurer gear (costumes), bade the peaceable natives of the village of Isthmus a fond farewell, and set off on an overland hike – all the way to the far side of Catalina Island! There, we discovered a protected body of water that we named Cat Harbor (in honor of somebody's ex-girlfriend of the same name and demeanor), and blazed a trail above the newly-discovered bay to reconnoiter its potential use for future voyages of discovery.

June's Adventurers Cruise to Twin Harbors

Cruise Report by Richard & Susan Hepner

The Adventurers un-Earthed evidence suggesting that the WCYC Adventurers may not have been the first humans to visit Cat Harbor. Nonetheless, I expect that carbon dating will bear out that we were, in fact, the first to lay eyes upon these glistening waters since circa 3000 BC.

We descended the ocean-carved landscape to enjoy sustenance at the edge of the bay before beginning the return journey to the armada. Not a single Adventurer was lost.

June's Adventurers Cruise to Twin Harbors

Cruise Report by Richard & Susan Hepner

The Club dinner was hosted by the Harbor Reef Restaurant & Bar in Two Harbors. The Harbor Reef provided a private room for our group, and did an admirable job of reinforcing and mobilizing its crew to service the large group.

Thank you, Commodore Mike Sandler, for sharing your great words with the Club. Congratulations to Monique Monk - the lucky winner of the raffle!

The prize for the best Adventurer Costume was awarded to Tammy Huntley – largely because we all envied her binocular flask – brilliant! I have to mention my personal enjoyment of Ed and Mindy Sicard's costumes with detachable lions and tigers. Chip and Christie Threlkeld warmed up for their upcoming Running of the Bulls by donning the traditional blood-red bandanas. Unfortunately, we did not encounter any running bison to test their foot speed.

Thank you, Commodore Mike Sandler, for sharing your great words with the Club. Congratulations to Monique Monk - the lucky winner of the raffle!

SUNDAY, JUNE 12, ANNO DOMINI 2022

The armada returned to the mainland.

A more somber moment: Steve Harrison took the adventurer theme to another level when he was evacuated from the island via helicopter due to an irregular heartbeat. The good news is that Steve should be good to go with appropriate monitoring and treatment. Fortunately, Barb and Dell DeFabry were staying at the island as guests, and were able to return It's About Time to the mainland with Sondra. I look forward to seeing Steve out at sea soon!

A video featuring moments from the cruise is posted on the WCYC Facebook page and you Tube... <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=erNPfntKJ60>.

The captains meeting was at 09:30. Again thank you to Ed Sicard, David Monk & Blake Campbell for being there to fill in any info I might have missed. It was a fun meeting with captains, crew laughs & talk of shenanigans!

The committee boat Real Nauti went out at 12:00. Thank you David Monk for volunteering your boat & supplying the club with the proper race markers. I wish I could have been on the committee boat with David Monk, Ed Sicard, Mike Sandler & Blake Campbell, I'm sure with this crew, it was nothing but laughing & some serious fun!

The race started at 13:00 with some good wind to make it a race, not a slow float. A big thank you to our race teams!

Monique Monk & Sherri Sandler
Can we talk about their aprons! No, really are we allowed to talk about their aprons? Great job on the veggie paella.

Their chicken paella was fantastic!

2022 WCYC Tiki Regatta

I want to thank Jim & Maggie MacNamara for bringing Maggie's amazing salad (green sh*t as she calls it). Drew VonGrempp for his famous corn dish (he said has carpal tunnel now from schucking & cutting the corn off the cobs, so everyone better like it. HAHA) Mindy Sicard for the always so popular tiki punch (A secret recipe) & strawberry shortcakes (She claims it's super easy, I'm sure it's not). Stacey Matta for bringing the coconut cake (it was from Cedar Creek, I heard it was delicious) Also someone brought shrimp cocktail & a chocolate trifle, I unfortunately don't know who brought them, but Thank You!

The games were brought by Mike & Sherri Sandler (corn hole) Steve & Brenda VandenBerg (ring toss). Thank you for helping to make it such a fun event.

The ship store looked amazing!

Thank you Tammy Huntly for all your hard work on the Tiki Regatta hats/visors, the professional look of the ship store & the sought after raffle basket!

Congratulations to the winner of the basket...Blake & Tracey Campbell.

1. A woman gets on a bus with her baby. The bus driver says: "Ugh that's the ugliest baby I've ever seen!" The woman walks to the rear of the bus and sits down fuming. She says to a man next to her: "The driver just insulted me!" The man says: "You go up there and tell him off. Go on, I'll hold your monkey for you."
2. I said to the gym instructor "Can you teach me to do splits?" He said "How flexible are you?" I said "I can't make Tuesdays."
3. Police arrested two kids yesterday one was drinking battery acid the other was eating fireworks. They charged one – and let the other one off.

5. I'm on a whiskey diet. I've lost three days already.
6. My therapist says I have a preoccupation with vengeance. We'll see about that.
7. A priest, a rabbi, and a vicar walk into a bar. The barman says "Is this some kind of joke?"
8. A group of chess enthusiasts checked into a hotel and were standing in the lobby discussing their recent tournament victories. After about an hour the manager came out of the office and asked them to disperse. "But why?" they asked as they moved off. "Because" he said "I can't stand chess nuts boasting in an open foyer."
9. I was in Tesco's and I saw this man and woman wrapped in a barcode. I said "Are you two an item?"
10. I was having dinner with Garry Kasparov (world chess champion) and there was a checked tablecloth. It took him two hours to pass me the salt.
