Call to Worship

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea.

(For John, heaven is where we are never separated from those we love. It's a place of wonderful, joyous reunion... "No more sea!")

I saw the Holy City, the New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

"Now the dwelling of God is with men, and he will live with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God.

He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away."

He who was seated on the throne said, "I am making everything new!" Then he said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true."

Invocation

Dear God, for the beauty of this day, we give thanks. For the many ways you have shown us your glory, we give resounding thanks. For the gift of your Son who reveals who You are and we give full throated and whole hearted hallelujahs! Amen!
