Catechetical Sunday

"Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?.' And I said, 'Here am I. Send me!'" (Isaiah 6:8)

Today we give thanks to all of our Catechists for volunteering to share the Lord's message with our youth. We have many here at St. Patrick's: those who lead the Children's Liturgy of the Word each Sunday & those who teach the youth classes at Generations of Faith. Also, each and every one of you who attend Generations of Faith are teaching our youth that learning about and sharing our faith is important to us. It is not about how much knowledge you have - it's about sharing your love for Jesus and your Catholic faith. We are grateful for our Catechists at St. Patrick's. It is people like you who keep the spirit alive in our Parish. You are amazing!

Thank you for all you do!

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

In the Gospel today we hear how the disciples were discussing among themselves who was the greatest. Jesus teaches them again, "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all."

We live in a world of self-promotion. Many people are saying in different ways, "Look at me!" Athletes hold out for more money because to them their salary says "I am better than those who make less. I have pretty much quit watching pro-football because I am tired of seeing after every play someone jumping up and down pointing to themselves as if they did something special. I kind of thought that you got paid to make the tackle or catch the pass. Anyway, the Lord calls us to live in a spirit of humility that frees us to acknowledge our need for God and one another. May the Lord provide for us always and guide us in lives of selfless service.

God bless,

Father Havel
